Dear Doctor Du Bois:

Something over a year ago I sent you one of a series of "Educational Sketches" which I thought would interest readers of the Crisis, enclosing at the same time return postage in case the sketch submitted should not prove acceptable to "the editor." I shall thank you very much to let me have the manuscript now if you are thro with it & notice of ~~any~~ charges if any for excess postage.

Very truly yours,

Dear Friend and Subscriber:

Would you not like to send a year's subscription to The Crisis as a Christmas present to a friend or to some one who needs it? I enclose a circular telling of a Christmas card to accompany such a gift.

Whether you can do this or not perhaps you can secure us a brand-new subscriber.

I shall appreciate anything you can do to add to our subscription list.

Very sincerely yours,

W. E. B. Du Bois
