Mayor's Office,

CITY HALL,

Washington D.C. May 6th 1876

Maj Gen. Howard

My dear Sir:

We are without gravel
in the second ward to make the necessary improvements. I understand there is a bank on your grounds that can be removed without detriment. If you can give Mayo Morse, the Contractor for the ward, the privilege of using what he needs you will be doing a service to the corporation and confer on me a personal favor.

Most respectfully

Your Obedt. servt.

S. J. Brown

Mayor
