JAMES ADLAI COBB PAPERS
Collection 18-1 to 18-3

Prepared & Revised by:
Karen L. Jefferson
January 1981

Scope Note

The James Adlai Cobb Collection was donated to Howard University by Dean Charles H. Thompson in 1959. The collection totals three linear feet spanning the period 1897 to 1958- The collection consists primarily Of personal materials, including news articles, identification cards, awards, certificates, Photographs, scrapbooks, and correspondence.

James A. Cobb, a prominent Washington, D.C. lawyer was appointed Judge of the municipal court for the District of Columbia in 1926. The correspondence in this collection focuses mainly upon endorsements to encourage Cobb's reappointment in 1934. Cobb was not reappointed, and in 1935 he resumed his private law practice as senior partner in the law firm Cobb, (Perry) Howard, and (George E.C.) Hayes. The collection includes photographs of the members of the law firm, as well as group and individual photographs of Cobb.
