Vivian Johnson Cook Papers

Collection 191-1 to 191-57

Prepared by:
Robin Van Fleet
July 1998

Scope Note

The papers of Vivian Elma Johnson Cook (1889-1977), school educator and administrator, cover the time period 1903-1977. Mrs. Cook was an alumna of Howard University who worked as a teacher, vice-principal, and principal at various schools in Baltimore, Maryland. The schools where Mrs. Cook served include Douglass High School, Booker T. Washington High School, Dunbar Junior-Senior High School, Harvey Johnson

Junior High School, and Morgan State College. There are approximately 28 linear feet of material. The papers were donated to Moorland-Spingarn by Mrs. Cook's nephew, Sterling Stuckey, in 1996.

Mrs. Cook was also very active in professional organizations. Some of these organizations include Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, National Association of College Women, the Cooperative Women's Civic League, the YWCA, and the Baltimore Commission on the Problems of the Aging.

These papers extensively document the Johnson and Cook families, as well as the life and career of Vivian Johnson Cook. The Johnson family includes Mrs. Cook's sisters, Mary Edna Johnson Lane, who was married to J.F. Lane, president of Lane College in Memphis, Tennessee; and Evelyn Johnson, who was also a teacher in Tennessee and in Baltimore. The papers also document the family of Mrs. Cook's husband, Ralph Victor Cook. He was also an educator, who taught at Douglass High School in Baltimore for 45 years. He was the son of John F. Cook, II of the Cook Family of Washington, D.C. [see Cook Family papers].

Family papers also contain information on Rev. William J. Faulkner, a folklorist from Florida who was a brother-in-law of Ralph Victor Cook. MSRC also has the papers of Rev. William J. Faulkner.
