Scope Note

George Edward Chalmers Hayes (1894-1968), civil rights attorney and University Counsel for Howard University, was an individual whose accomplishments were often labeled as "firsts". He was the first Black man to serve as chairman of the District of Columbia Public Utilities Commission; the first Black elected to the Board of Directors of the Metropolitan Board of Trade; and the first Black lawyer to hold office in the District of Columbia Bar Association when he was elected to its Board of Directors. He served on the Howard University Board of Trustees for more than eighteen years, as the University Counsel for more than thirty-five years, and as adjunct professor at the Howard University Law School.

The George E.C. Hayes Papers were donated to the Moorland-Spingarn Research Center by his grand-daughter, Ms. Shirley Ganao, in 1987. They span the years 1911-1968 and measure two linear feet. The collection is comprised of a few personal papers which include programs in which he participated; biographical data; documents pertaining to his organizational affiliations; awards and tributes; and professional and personal correspondence. Among the correspondents are former Vice-Presidents Richard Nixon and Hubert Humphrey; and former Howard University Presidents Mordecai Johnson and James Nabrit.

The collection contains photographs of George E.C. Hayes at various professional and social gatherings, including the Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity Conclaves, 1948-1950. There are also materials pertaining to the planning, organization, and successful outcome of the M Street High School Class of 1911 Reunion held in 1951.
