Dear Sir,

Thank you very kindly for the long, newsy letter sent down to me several days ago. I was certainly surprised and elated to have been remembered and I am certain that I can qualifiedly speak for all of the other Howardites in the service who have received similar letters when I say that they are packed with meral ammunition and that there should be more of them.

I haven't received the January Bulletin and I would very much appreciate your forwarding a copy to me at this address.

Best personal regards,

THEODORE S. MILLER
