U.S. COLORED TROOPS IN THE CIVIL WAR
(Clothing Account Books)
Collection 141-1 to 141-42

Prepared by:

Scope Note & Series Description

This collection is comprised of 429 clothing account books of the United States Colored Troops in the Civil War. Generated by the Adjutant General's Office, the books were donated to Moorland-Spingarn by the National Archives. These company ledgers primary purpose was to record the monetary value of clothing and gear allotted to each enlistee. They provided a running account of the debits and credits of each black soldier in a particular company. Regiments included in this one-series collection are Heavy Artillery, 1st-14th; Infantry, 1st-73rd, 79th, 82nd (Morning Report only), 83rd-84th, 88th-89th, 100th-104th, 106th-119th, 122nd -125th, 127th-128th, 135th-138th; and Cavalry, 1st-3rd and 5th - 6th . It is difficult to determine of all companies in each regiment are represented in the ledgers since the number of companies comprising each regiment varies. There are two regiments for which ledgers are obviously missing: the 82nd Infantry (Morning Report only), and the 68th Infantry (ledger for H Company only). Generally, however, there is a full range of companies from A to K or A to M, depending on the regiment.

Each entry consists of name of enlistee, place of enlistment, his rank, his signature (usually his mark, X) and that of the witness for each allocation; type of garment of gear dispensed and its cost; total amount of money owed the soldier or the Federal Government; and the Company Commander's signature. In some cases, the entries- also indicate whether the enlistee was killed in action and the date: whether he died of disease, giving name of illness and place and (late of death; whether he deserted, was a prisoner of war, or dishonorably discharged. The ledgers contain approximately 300 names each. There are scattered and incomplete name indexes in some volumes.

Scope Note & Series Description

Among the clothing ledgers are a few Regimental Consolidated Morning Reports which represent compilation of daily company statistics regarding number of enlisted men and officers on duty, sick, arrested or otherwise confined; and the member of transfers and re-enlistments. Morning Reports Care available for the following regiments: 5th Artillery (Heavy), 6th Artillery (Heavy), 2nd, 10th, 15th, 17th, 36th, 417th, 48th, 79th, 82nd, 108th, 113th, and 114th Infantries. This collection complements another collection of records held by MSRC, namely those of the Maryland War Bounty, 1816-1872, which consist of documents relating to bounty and pension claims of soldiers, black and white, slave and free, who enlisted in Maryland for service in the U.S. Army and Navy during the War of 1812 and the Civil War. The combined use of these two collections offers the Researcher a sizeable body of materials, particularly suited for quantitative studied; or genealogical research.

More complete information on The U.S. Colored Troops in the Civil War can be found in the National Archives, Record Group 94, the Adjutant General's Office. There are several series in this Record Group dealing with colored troops, the most comprehensive being the Bureau for Colored Troops. This series contains correspondence, applications for appointment registers, rosters and other papers concerning colored recruitment, organization and service of colored units and their officers. Other records include a colored troop register showing whether an enlistee was slave or free on or before April 19, 1861, and record of regiments of U.S.C.T., 1863-1865.

Historical Sketch

Immediately after the issuance of the Emancipation Proclamation, efforts were begun by the Federal Government to raise colored troops. A bureau for colored troops was established in the Adjutant General's Office May of 1863. Recruiting systems were organized and regiments raised in the Gulf, the Mississippi Valley, Massachusetts, the Carolinas and Kansas. By June of 1863, a recruiting commissioner for U.S. Colored Troops (U.S.C.T.) was appointed, with headquarters at Philadelphia, where a citizens committee was already engaged in raising colored troops. By October 1863, a number of recruiting stations for colored troops had been established in Tennessee and Maryland. The governors of other states were authorized to raise colored regiments.

Enrollment for the draft of colored men was instituted in 1964 by an act which provided for the draft of "all able-bodied Male colored persons, between the ages of 20 and 45 years, resident in the United States"; the freeing of drafted slaves and the payment of bounties to their former masters, if loyal and so on. The draft was generally supervised by the Bureau for Colored Troops of the Adjutant- General's Office.

On July 15, 1865, the quite on which the Last organization of colored troops was mustered in, the maximum number in service at any one time during the war was reached. They were distributed as follows:

120 infantry regiments	98,938
12 heavy artillery regiments	15,662
10 heavy artillery batteries	1,311
7 cavalry regiments	7,245
<hr/>
Total	123,156

Historical Sketch

The entire number of colored troops commissioned and enlisted during the war, as computed in 1865, was 186,097; the loss during the war from all causes except muster-out was 68,178,

After the war, the Bureau became known as the Colored Troops Division, and in 1879 it inherited the remaining function of the Freedmen's Branch, It was consolidated with the Volunteer Service Division, in 1888 and was transferred with that Division to the Records and Pension (R&P) Division of the War Department on July 16, 1889.
