Copyright Warning

The fees outlined herein are payable to the MSRC for permission to publish materials owned by the MSRC. The granting of permission to use material for publication does not absolve the publisher from securing permission from the copyright owners and payment of such additional fees as the copyright owners may require if the MSRC does not own the copyright or if the material is not in the public domain. Users assume responsibility for questions of copyright and invasion of privacy that may arise from publication of MSRC materials.

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, U.S. Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyright material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be “used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship or research.” If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of “fair use,” that user may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of the copyright law.

Special Fees

Rates for other uses not listed in this schedule will be quoted upon request. All fees listed are subject to change without notice. Reduced rates are offered to donors needing copies of materials they have previously donated to the MSRC. Special hourly and daily rates for filming and videotaping from the collections will be quoted upon request.

Nonprofit eligibility

Nonprofit fees are applicable only to those organizations able to prove legal not-for-profit status by providing suitable documentation such as tax-exempt certificates or letters of identification. For-profit corporations, partnerships, private businesses, and individuals working for or with nonprofit organizations and government agencies on projects or publications sponsored by those organizations may be eligible to receive nonprofit rates with suitable letters of identification.

Conditions of Use

Last Updated 05.2023

The applicant agrees to send the MSRC one (1) complimentary copy of the work containing the reproduction.

The MSRC retains all rights to reproductions of photographs including the right to grant others permission to reproduce the photographs. Additional copies must be purchased from the MSRC. The photographic copy or any facsimile of it may not be reproduced beyond the intended use described in the Photo Permission Form.

Permission for publication is granted for one-time use and only for the expressed purpose described in this contract. Any subsequent use or change in use constitutes reuse and must be applied for in writing to the MSRC and appropriate fees paid. Permission is limited to the applicant and is not transferable. Permission for use is not granted until all fees are paid.

Altering the original photographic image beyond standard cropping or resizing requires further discussion with MSRC Staff. These changes must be indicated in the accompanying caption or label.

Unless specifically authorized by this contract, images may not be used as a dust jacket, an end paper, nor in an advertisement or any commercial or promotional use of a similar nature, nor to mass reproduce as unbound material.

In authorizing the publication of a photographic copy, the MSRC does not surrender its own right to publish it or to grant permission to others to do so. All rights are non-exclusive.

Rights are offered for a maximum period of three (3) years, or for the life of the project. The MSRC does not issue rights in perpetuity.

The MSRC reserves the right to limit the number of photographic copies; to restrict the use of reproduction of rare or valuable material involving unusual difficulty in copying; and to charge a higher duplication fee than specified. Copies are not supplied to commercial picture agencies except by special arrangement.

Credit Information

The publication must properly credit the Moorland-Spingarn Research Center. Credit should appear in close proximity to the image or in a special section devoted to credits. Depending on the MSRC source below, the preferred credit line is:

Courtesy of the Moorland-Spingarn Research Center, Howard University Archives, Howard University, Washington DC

OR

Descriptively identified Document or Image, Collection Name Collection #, Box #, MSRC Division, Moorland-Spingarn Research Center, Washington, DC

Sample:

History of Howard University Dance Group, Mary Rose Reeves Allen Papers #160, Box 8, Manuscript Division, Moorland-Spingarn Research Center, Washington, DC

The resolution of reproductions distributed electronically for websites will range from 72 pixels per inch to 150 pixels per inch.

Credit for images used in exhibitions must appear within the exhibition area.

WARNING CONCERNING COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS

- The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.
- Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement.
- This institution reserves the right to refuse a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.
- Microfilm of manuscript material remain the property of the Moorland-Spingarn Research Center (MSRC) and are to be returned to the MSRC when no longer needed by the requestor. Further photoduplication of copies provided is not permitted.

Photographic reproductions are supplied for reference purposes only. The MSRC, its microfilming lab, and its digital imaging lab will not be responsible for obtaining permission to copy or publish copyrighted materials. If copies requested on this form are intended for publication or exhibition, now or in the future, permission must be obtained in writing from the rights and reproduction unit of the MSRC. Note that permission to publish does not constitute copyright clearance; materials owned by the MSRC that may be subject to copyright clearance will also require written permission from the original copyright owner(s) or their heirs or assigns.

PAYMENT: All orders must be paid in advance. Fees are for laboratory processing and shipping only. Acceptable forms of payment are: (1) Wire Transfer, (2) Credit Card, (3) ACH, (4) Interdepartmental charge or Inter-campus charge, and (5) printed purchase orders from an established business or institution. See Reproduction/Use Fee Schedule for Photographs and Other Printed Materials list for more information.
