The Hilltop 9-1-2000

Hilltop Staff

Follow this and additional works at: https://dh.howard.edu/hilltop_0010

Recommended Citation
https://dh.howard.edu/hilltop_0010/1
Howard Student to Compete in Olympic Games

By Christopher M. Harris

Ngozi Monu is preparing for the most moment of her life. Monday, a senior majoring in biology at Howard University, plans to represent the Nigerian team at the 2000 Summer Olympics in Sydney, Australia.

"I am very excited about this opportunity," said Monu, a member of Howard's swimming and diving team.

"I have always looked to the Olympics as the ultimate competition," she added. "I am excited to be a part of this great tradition.""

Monu will compete in the 400-yard freestyle relay, the 200-yard freestyle, and the 100-yard freestyle.

"I have worked very hard to get to this point," said Monu. "I am ready to give my best effort in the Olympics.""

Monu's teammates, including co-captain Nicholas Askew, are excited for her.

"I am very proud of Ngozi," said Askew. "She has worked very hard to get to this point. I am confident that she will do well in the Olympics.""

Monu was unavailable for comment because she is currently training in Australia.

Two Days Before Classes Begin

Howard University Freshman Jasmine Lawrence was supposed to be an ordinary check-in process for most upperclassmen turned into a mad dash to find a place to sleep last week as the University faced its harshest housing crunch in years.

Many students were faced with long lines and crowded dorms as they tried to find rooms for the few hundred students who were moved onto campus housing.

Senior Radio-TV-Film student Harold Lewis said, "I was given the run around and my problem still couldn't be resolved.""

The Nats largest Black Collegiate News paper

The Hilltop

The Nation's Largest Black Collegiate Newspaper

FRUSTRATION

Howard University Freshman Jasmine Lawrence, a senior majoring in biology at Howard University, plans to represent the Nigerian team at the 2000 Summer Olympics in Sydney, Australia.

"I am very excited about this opportunity," said Monu, a member of Howard's swimming and diving team.

"I have always looked to the Olympics as the ultimate competition," she added. "I am excited to be a part of this great tradition.""

Monu will compete in the 400-yard freestyle relay, the 200-yard freestyle, and the 100-yard freestyle.

"I have worked very hard to get to this point," said Monu. "I am ready to give my best effort in the Olympics.""

Monu's teammates, including co-captain Nicholas Askew, are excited for her.

"I am very proud of Ngozi," said Askew. "She has worked very hard to get to this point. I am confident that she will do well in the Olympics.""

Monu was unavailable for comment because she is currently training in Australia.

Two Days Before Classes Begin

Howard University Freshman Jasmine Lawrence was supposed to be an ordinary check-in process for most upperclassmen turned into a mad dash to find a place to sleep last week as the University faced its harshest housing crunch in years.

Many students were faced with long lines and crowded dorms as they tried to find rooms for the few hundred students who were moved onto campus housing.

Senior Radio-TV-Film student Harold Lewis said, "I was given the run around and my problem still couldn't be resolved.""
American Air Force ROTC Detachment 130 is based at Howard University and also graduates HS Seniors and Old Navy for about $30.

Verizon Strike Slows Phone Service to Towers

From PHONES. At Howard University, phone service to building phone lines located on each floor in the East and West buildings to make calls to friends and loved ones this week. Students might have seen similarly designed bag's elsewhere.

The bags, which were given to the class of 2004, as welcoming freshmen to the University with "Freshmen Move In," bag freshmen received as they registered for classes last fall. The style of the bags has changed a few times. Last year's blue-fishbone style back packs were left for last year.

The phone service strike has seen a spike in cell phone sales and discount prices for students for cellular phones. Sprint, which has a contract with the University to provide students with discounted phone plans, has seen a surge in sales.

"The bags are impressive and they made me feel welcomed," said freshman political science major, Typhon Johnson. "The class of 2004 hasoptional patches for the new over-the-shoulder book holder."

The class of 2004 has optional patches for the new over-the-shoulder book holder. The style of the bags has changed a few times. Last year's blue-fishbone style back packs were left for last year.

From REGISTRATION, AI just took forever (laughs). I was pretty fortunate because I handed all of my dorm applications on just one day. Having a whole sheet enabled me to find one of the missed items, I was late for my housing assignment in the mail. Sisney said.

On Monday morning, Sisney was instructed to report to her dorm on the next day. This began her long search for the one piece of information she needed for her room reservation for the next four to five months. She paid her $100 deposit on time to reserve her room, and was still awaiting word from the Office of Residence Life as to where she will be living for the remainder of the semester. Sisney is running with a friend in the East Towers. She declined the Johnson Quadrangle offer.

"I'm grateful for the friends who helped me out in this situation. It's not fair to find sleeping on floors and sharing that first bed."
PHYSICS

college bookstore

PHYS. ED

e campus.com

EASIER
e campus.com SAVE UP TO 50% ON TEXTBOOKS AND STUFF. WITH FREE SHIPPING.
Do those big online-only book-sellers have the books you need at super-low prices? Better take a closer look. You could end up with the wrong edition, shipping costs, and delivery delays—and "discounts" nowhere near what they advertise.

Your local college store has your books, software, and supplies right now—and we're right around the corner.

Get the Real Deal on Textbooks at Your College Store
By Lauren B. Anderson and Robyn G. Walker

The District's subway, the Metro, has once again opened its doors to students. This time it opened two days ahead of its planned opening date.

The Metro has been one of the highlights of the District's revitalization efforts. The system has been praised for its efficiency and reliability.

The food stations were open and ready for students. The stations were well-stocked with a variety of food options, ranging from hot dogs and hamburgers to salads and sandwiches.

The Metro's extension has been met with mixed reactions. Some students were happy to have an alternative to the overcrowded buses, while others were concerned about the cost of using the system.

The Metro's extension has been met with mixed reactions. Some students were happy to have an alternative to the overcrowded buses, while others were concerned about the cost of using the system.

The Metro's extension has been met with mixed reactions. Some students were happy to have an alternative to the overcrowded buses, while others were concerned about the cost of using the system.
Redeeming the Dream in 2000 organized by pistols of the black community, led by Al Sharpton and Martin Luther King II (a few more of the famous, the Redeem the Dream March was an event that unified the voices of the African-American community in its cry of protest against injustices inflicted upon blacks, especially young black males, by the supposedly trustworthy agents of the law. The march gave the issue a prominence that could not be ignored. Personal testimonies from victims and the families of victims of unnecessary police violence, like the parents of Amadou Diallo, the young man gunned down by police in New York City last year, gave tangibility to the important fight against the attitudes and stereotypically distorted policies of state profiling and deaths resulting from these policies.

The Redeem the Dream March evoked a great response from the Black community, issuing from performers Wycle F and Kelly Price to members of the NAACP who played an active role in civil rights activism for 37 years when they stood on the steps of the Lincoln Memorial along with Martin Luther King Jr. At the time, there were great expectations, and students also took the opportunity to show their support in redeeming the original dreams of equality envisioned by our parents, and they too demonstrated that the youth are serious and sincere. If the youth are serious and sincere, all for the color of their skin. It should be noted that, although the practices of attacking blacks with police dogs, spraying them down with hoses, or plucking them from their homes in the dead of the night to leave them swinging from a Maggie tree are no longer common, the battle is not over. Today, the faces may have changed, but the landscape is the same and the black future stands at risk. The police and the streets are like the battlefield, and we must remember to keep marching onward toward the dream.

With the New*

In With the New*

S ummer's closing, the living is easy with the start of the new school year and its long and glorious dog days journeying with it.

But before summer 2000 ships away for good, a new school year sweeps in past by moving trucks and sport-utility vehicles laden down with trunks, books, and that new beginning also known as the Howard University freshman.

Within the last six months have been largely the 1998-2004 HBCU Newspaper Conference. As the year has ended, every student with a grade point average of 2.0 or more is awarded a degree. We are proud that the black and brown students have worked hard to achieve these degrees and that they are now ready to take on the challenges of the new wave of civil rights activism.

The battle for civil rights has come a long way, but there is much work to do. The emotional high stimulated by the unity of the race breaks across our chests. It is the time here to count. More than any other unit, the students of this year have come to this campus not to receive an education, but in pursuit of one. They are standing with their hands on their knees, singing "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" with the words "We'll march on, to the victor's song!"

Education is needed. Until the NAACP was needed, the battle had not been fought for dignity. Until then, Black people were treated as inferior by society. They were prevented from entering the professions, leading their communities, and maintaining their own families.

The students of this year have been largely the 1998-2004 HBCU Newspaper Conference. As the year has ended, every student with a grade point average of 2.0 or more is awarded a degree. We are proud that the black and brown students have worked hard to achieve these degrees and that they are now ready to take on the challenges of the new wave of civil rights activism.
ELECTION HEAT

The young shrewd lawyer andornado
"Could help your hands that I'll in roll."
whom the Billy Hopps' have been cited against
"Where's the hilltop? Tho hehilltop@hollymail.com,
"flaming frost. then civic duty burns in your brain
churns. Do you want to be inside or outside the economic policy is wealth, trickle-down is dearth, dearth is poverty, poverty is public policy, public
the eye of a whirlpool will be. "The larger the eye,
the more people can ti1 ins ide as the whirlpool
whirlpool: health care is health, health is wealth,
physician vote for Al Gore.
herd the sun? And how cold shall your hands be shepherd? Who will ascend to replace him,
ance of the moon, spins your earth the wrong breath? Who. if displaced, will no longer be your
key.
stop, seen the sun freeze, the moon eclipse. the
freeze you out from the sun. denies you the radi­
earth holds its breath, as the Iceman, you know that flow . That rhythm. that life like water is the
than an aesthetic, a view of God. a vagary of love.
------------------
--- ------- - ------------- ---- ball game being played in neither D.C. nor our quest for this reward. We don't live with sand in our unde­

"Survivor" did this and more in a quest for something charter American success: money.

To make choice ME again and again. We watched them make rolling meal. The logistics fascinated us:
human beings thrown together on an island. cu1
however; our American sensibilities were drawn to the Dar­
willing for the hallowed prize: "Sweat and blood!"
"Sweat and blood!"
back-stabbing drama as it unfurled before their very eyes. II

Experiencing Howard University is like ou1las 1iting the Sur­
hing drama (slash comedy). "Survivor," that aired on CBS.
his summer, America was transfixed by the new docuing story of working the knowledge gained. worth that came books and life. This is about education, and in the end. hopefully students.

You must have faith in yourself. And. unlike in CBS's little world up to the sky with your prose and make make men and women dance between the rain­ Epic of America, America could fulfill the Darwinian engine of human self-interest, but one that never ends. It was the old story of
and leave that crack alone.
the world of politics and private life is a
shaped. health care is health, health is wealth,
physician vote for Al Gore.
herd the sun? And how cold shall your hands be shepherd? Who will ascend to replace him,
ance of the moon, spins your earth the wrong
breath? Who. if displaced, will no longer be your
key.
stop, seen the sun freeze, the moon eclipse. the
freeze you out from the sun. denies you the radi­
earth holds its breath, as the Iceman, you know
that flow . That rhythm. that life like water is the
than an aesthetic, a view of God. a vagary of love.

Michael Winfield
PERSPECTIVES

The young shrewd lawyer andornado
"Could help your hands that I'll in roll."
whom the Billy Hopps' have been cited against
"Where's the hilltop? Tho hehilltop@hollymail.com,
"flaming frost. then civic duty burns in your brain
churns. Do you want to be inside or outside
the economic policy is wealth, trickle-down is dearth,
dearth is poverty, poverty is public policy, public
the eye of a whirlpool will be. "The larger the eye,
the more people can ti1 ins ide as the whirlpool
whirlpool: health care is health, health is wealth,
physician vote for Al Gore.
herd the sun? And how cold shall your hands be shepherd? Who will ascend to replace him,
ance of the moon, spins your earth the wrong
breath? Who. if displaced, will no longer be your
key.
stop, seen the sun freeze, the moon eclipse. the
freeze you out from the sun. denies you the radi­
earth holds its breath, as the Iceman, you know
that flow . That rhythm. that life like water is the
than an aesthetic, a view of God. a vagary of love.
------------------
--- ------- - ------------- ---- ball game being played in neither D.C. nor our quest for this reward. We don't live with sand in our unde­

"Survivor" did this and more in a quest for something
charter American success: money.

To make choice ME again and again. We watched them make rolling meal. The logistics fascinated us:
human beings thrown together on an island. cu1
however; our American sensibilities were drawn to the Dar­
willing for the hallowed prize: "Sweat and blood!"
"Sweat and blood!"
back-stabbing drama as it unfurled before their very eyes. II

Experiencing Howard University is like ou1las 1iting the Sur­
hing drama (slash comedy). "Survivor," that aired on CBS.
his summer, America was transfixed by the new docu­
ing story of working the knowledge gained. worth that came books and life. This is about education, and in the end. hopefully students.

You must have faith in yourself. And. unlike in CBS's little world up to the sky with your prose and make
make men and women dance between the rain­
Epic of America, America could fulfill the Darwinian engine of human self-interest, but one that never ends. It was the old story of
and leave that crack alone.
the world of politics and private life is a
shaped. health care is health, health is wealth,
physician vote for Al Gore.
herd the sun? And how cold shall your hands be shepherd? Who will ascend to replace him,
ance of the moon, spins your earth the wrong
breath? Who. if displaced, will no longer be your
key.
stop, seen the sun freeze, the moon eclipse. the
freeze you out from the sun. denies you the radi­
earth holds its breath, as the Iceman, you know
that flow . That rhythm. that life like water is the
than an aesthetic, a view of God. a vagary of love.

Michael Winfield
PERSPECTIVES

The young shrewd lawyer andornado
"Could help your hands that I'll in roll."
whom the Billy Hopps' have been cited against
"Where's the hilltop? Tho hehilltop@hollymail.com,
"flaming frost. then civic duty burns in your brain
churns. Do you want to be inside or outside
the economic policy is wealth, trickle-down is dearth,
dearth is poverty, poverty is public policy, public
the eye of a whirlpool will be. "The larger the eye,
the more people can ti1 ins ide as the whirlpool
whirlpool: health care is health, health is wealth,
physician vote for Al Gore.
herd the sun? And how cold shall your hands be shepherd? Who will ascend to replace him,
ance of the moon, spins your earth the wrong
breath? Who. if displaced, will no longer be your
key.
stop, seen the sun freeze, the moon eclipse. the
freeze you out from the sun. denies you the radi­
earth holds its breath, as the Iceman, you know
that flow . That rhythm. that life like water is the
than an aesthetic, a view of God. a vagary of love.
------------------
--- ------- - ------------- ---- ball game being played in neither D.C. nor our quest for this reward. We don't live with sand in our unde­

"Survivor" did this and more in a quest for something
charter American success: money.

To make choice ME again and again. We watched them make rolling meal. The logistics fascinated us:
human beings thrown together on an island. cu1
however; our American sensibilities were drawn to the Dar­
willing for the hallowed prize: "Sweat and blood!"
"Sweat and blood!"
back-stabbing drama as it unfurled before their very eyes. II

Experiencing Howard University is like ou1las 1iting the Sur­
hing drama (slash comedy). "Survivor," that aired on CBS.
his summer, America was transfixed by the new docu­

The young shrewd lawyer andornado
"Could help your hands that I'll in roll."
whom the Billy Hopps' have been cited against
"Where's the hilltop? Tho hehilltop@hollymail.com,
"flaming frost. then civic duty burns in your brain
churns. Do you want to be inside or outside
the economic policy is wealth, trickle-down is dearth,
dearth is poverty, poverty is public policy, public
the eye of a whirlpool will be. "The larger the eye,
the more people can ti1 ins ide as the whirlpool
whirlpool: health care is health, health is wealth,
physician vote for Al Gore.
herd the sun? And how cold shall your hands be shepherd? Who will ascend to replace him,
ance of the moon, spins your earth the wrong
breath? Who. if displaced, will no longer be your
key.
stop, seen the sun freeze, the moon eclipse. the
freeze you out from the sun. denies you the radi­
earth holds its breath, as the Iceman, you know
that flow . That rhythm. that life like water is the
than an aesthetic, a view of God. a vagary of love.
HOWARD vs. Hampton at the Meadowlands, NJ
September 9, 2PM
Tickets NOW on Sale
THROUGH NOON, WEDNESDAY, SEPT 6
at Cramton

***************
NO TICKET SALES
AT STADIUM
on day of game

Congratulations to Women’s Soccer for Winning the First Game!

HOME GAMES:

Women's VOLLEYBALL vs. Loyola
Tues., Sept. 5, 6PM, Burr Gym

and

SOCCER Double Header @ Greene Stadium
Wed., Sept. 6
WOMEN vs. St. Francis at 3PM
MEN vs. Drexel at 5PM

***************
TRY OUTS
TRACK
(X-Country, indoor, Outdoor)
Meet in Main Gym (Burr)
4 PM, Wed., Sept. 7

Women - See Coach Shivers
Men - See Coach Merritt

TRY OUTS
BASEBALL
Call Coach Williams at 806-6804

DIVISION OF STUDENT AFFAIRS
SEPTEMBER, 2000
Just reloading comes to mind. The Rattlers come to mind. The Gulf Coast Offense," which averaged 251 points per game last season.

Jauron Dailey, who recorded 57 tackles including 12 for losses, most of which came from the left side, and offensive linemen Alvin Wyau, will also look to junior quarterback Alphonso Owusu, who earned the honors by picking up 178 yard rushing total.

The Rattlers won the MEAC Offensive Player of the Year award, with quarterback Quinn Gray (81-of-171 for 1,329 yards) and running back James Lark (1,331 yards, 14 touchdowns) leading the way.

With the loss of their top two players, Florida A&M will have to rely heavily on its running attack.

The Howard University Bison offense and defense will be key to the team's success in the MEAC.

The Howard Bison will face the University of Maryland in the first game of the season.

The Howard Bison offense, led by quarterback Bobby Montgomery (1,500 yards, 13 touchdowns), will be key to the team's success in the MEAC.

The defense, led by linebacker Charles Johnson (108 tackles, 12 for losses), will be key to the team's success in the MEAC.

The Howard Bison offense and defense will be key to the team's success in the MEAC.
2 MINUTE DRILL

By Breezy Butler
Sports Columnist

L

united! The first week of school has passed and now that we all the initial ups and downs and asking ‘How are your spring exams?’ for the upcoming term. It’s time to get business. Now for those of you who didn’t read the initial announcement of the new sports regime we issued on Graduation Day we have forgiven your trespasses. As Howard University. You may see me sauntering aimlessly on the yard or carefully, this just may well be the standard in opinion based sports journalism. A collegiate sports mandate if you will.

Once again, I am a free spirit in this very different, yet real world known as Howard University. Last week I thought that maybe I was going to write this column thing for a minute so we might as well get comfortable. Now that we are back for another year it’s time to dig into the meal of this installment of the new sports regime we issued on Graduation Day we have forgiven your trespasses. As Howard University. You may see me sauntering aimlessly on the yard or carefully, this just may well be the standard in opinion based sports journalism. A collegiate sports mandate if you will.

The new sports regime we issued on Graduation Day we have forgiven your trespasses. As Howard University. You may see me sauntering aimlessly on the yard or carefully, this just may well be the standard in opinion based sports journalism. A collegiate sports mandate if you will.

The name is Brandon M. Bickerstaff, and the title is Sports Week Editor. I’m not the big guy with the beret. I’m the slim guy standing in the aisle, during basketball games. Allow me to introduce myself. The name is Brandon M. Bickerstaff, and the title is Sports Week Editor. I’m not the big guy with the beret. I’m the slim guy standing in the aisle, during basketball games. Allow me to introduce myself. The name is Brandon M. Bickerstaff, and the title is Sports Week Editor. I’m not the big guy with the beret. I’m the slim guy standing in the aisle, during basketball games.

The new sports regime we issued on Graduation Day we have forgiven your trespasses. As Howard University. You may see me sauntering aimlessly on the yard or carefully, this just may well be the standard in opinion based sports journalism. A collegiate sports mandate if you will.

Brandon M. Bickerstaff can be reached at claireba@howard.edu.
I'm in Africa. I'm in Africa.

African shoreline is beautiful. I saw more African countries to visit. Come with me Howard.

To write for Life&Style call Tori at 806-6866

there's a better textbook experience

Discounted Books
Fast Delivery
100% Secure Site

Visit www.com/
Universal Pictures and Beacon Pictures present Bring It On, a comedy about two rival cheerleading squads who butt heads and brawling notes to see who is best, but nothing stands in their way of making it to the top.

The Torrance H.S. squad, led by Globals, is the rich white kids. The Compton C. Lovers, led by Rich Kids, are the poor black kids. The Globals' perfectly chiseled athletes have been drilled. The Rich Kids have been forced to leave the N.E. after the N.F.L. draft. When this moment so coincidentally defined GLAM ROCK has exploded into a total rip-off of the early days of Hip Hop. Everything that is R.T.I.N.T.

When urban youth dancing on the corners didn't mean anything consider Glam Rock as it and defining rock and roll. About it. In the 1970's we evolved a whole new mode. Much different from the punk kids, and the same kids with hard parts of the Hardrock Era. We were B-fly's and B-grits. B-boys were still cool, Adidas, a black gold rage, Garfield's on their eyes, and a gargyle on their head.

Music: Fourplay

"Who is that?"

"Exactly,

"I could study and chill to this."

"That sounds real smooth."

"Can I borrow your cd soon?"

My Alum review was on eighteen. Track five.

"Blacks fists," made my ears punch to the smooth beat. The piano sensually played across the track, the drums demanded respect and the drumming beat along with my heart. "Little Feat" for the middle. "What was that?"

It was a hard decision to pick the track with her voice. Thesmoother sound to pick the song with one cymbal. I don't get that. It's a question mark on her face.

"What is that?"

"Fourplay."

"That sounds real smooth."

"I could study and chill to this."

"Don't you."

who said there are no good [bars] on campus?

The best bars on campus don't even drink. The other bars don't serve alcohol. The student body at this university lives like alcohol-free college students. The bars on campus are not like bars at other universities.

ARMY ROTC: Unlike any other college course you can take.

Graduate, you'll be an officer and get a set of gold bars. The best bars on campus don't serve dr flk$
Howard University Hosts The Hewitt Collection

By GINNY SMITH

Engage Editor

Ernest Childress’s Woman in a Blue Coat, as African-American artists with strong features designed in deep oil browns, tans and black, says “welcome” as you enter the Fine Arts Gallery of Art. She greets her very own wall because a masterpiece was made alone. Woman is her own Muse of art and shape.

The Hewitt Collection of African-American Art

The Hewitt Collection, purchased by Bank of America, represents more than 30 years of collecting. The exhibit features 35 paintings by 20 acclaimed artists. Art is the Ernie Collins, Henry D. Tanner, Eugene Grigsby, Virginia Davis Sist and Alvin Hollingsworth.

The Hewitt Collection was purchased from John and Vivian Hewitt of New York as a gift for the Afro-American Cultural Center in Charlotte, N.C. “The many people, through the generosity of Bank of America, will now have the opportunity to learn about and appreciate the outstanding art pieces of some of the greatest African-American artists, many of whom have become our friends,” Vivian Hewitt said.

The exhibit, which is scheduled to run through October 15, features the graphic works of Crichlow such as Girl With Flowers. Crichlow’s imaginative collages such as Woman in Yellow and Suburban Woman designed with hues of yellow, blue, brown and grey.

The Hewitt Collection also features the more intricate works of such abstract artists as Virginia Brown. The colors and imagery flow from each other to Alto Hollingsworth’s African Village of India ink and oil on canvas. Still Ann Tanksley’s Harvest of Flowers compliments the viewer to envision close plantations, unbearable summer days and the inevitable horizons of it all.

Spotlight Calendar
September 1-7, 2000
Friday, September 1, 2000 - Labor Day Weekend

September 1, 1970 - Dr. Hugh Grigsby, Virginia Evans Smith and Alvin Hollingsworth.

September 3, 2000 - Dr. Hugh Grigsby, Virginia Evans Smith and Alvin Hollingsworth.

September 6, 1988 - Lee Roy Young becomes the first African-American Texas Ranger in the police force's 165-year history.

September 6, 1991 - Marcia Grier presents Agudath Shalom in the Union Chapel, N.C.

The Hewitt Collection was purchased from John and Vivian Hewitt of New York as a gift for the Afro-American Cultural Center in Charlotte, N.C. “The many people, through the generosity of Bank of America, will now have the opportunity to learn about and appreciate the outstanding art pieces of some of the greatest African-American artists, many of whom have become our friends,” Vivian Hewitt said.

The exhibit, which is scheduled to run through October 15, features the graphic works of Crichlow such as Girl With Flowers. Crichlow’s imaginative collages such as Woman in Yellow and Suburban Woman designed with hues of yellow, blue, brown and grey.

The Hewitt Collection also features the more intricate works of such abstract artists as Virginia Brown. The colors and imagery flow from each other to Alto Hollingsworth’s African Village of India ink and oil on canvas. Still Ann Tanksley’s Harvest of Flowers compliments the viewer to envision close plantations, unbearable summer days and the inevitable horizons of it all.

EARN WHILE YOU LEARN TO BECOME AN ASSISTANT DIRECTOR IN MOTION PICTURES

Trainees are paid to work on a variety of motion picture and television sets. Successful completion of this 400-day program will qualify you to join the Directors Guild of America as a Second Assistant Director.

Applications for the motion picture and television industry’s Assistant Directors Training Program are available now and will be accepted until the filing deadline of November 15, 2000. For program information, eligibility requirements, and application forms contact:

The National Museum of Women in the Arts 202/547-9077.

Angela Davis is a radical British poet who had been joined for 40 years. As a result of her own words unspoken.

Art Briefs

Howard Stage hosts belly dancing, “The Great White Hope” running for seven weeks through October 25. The Pulitzer-prize winning play by Howard Barker tells the story of Black horse, Paul. For tickets and information call 202/488-3000.

The National Museum of Women in the Arts hosts its African Dance and Drum Conference running through Sunday, September 4. The show features male dancers who originated in the province of Kamulo and the symposium would be held in a pull out. Still Ann Tanksley’s Harvest of Flowers compliments the viewer to envision close plantations, unbearable summer days and the inevitable horizons of it all.

The exhibit runs through September 24. For information call 202/571-3000.
MAKE THE MOST OF IT.

BREAKFAST WITH PRICEWATERHOUSECOOPERS SEPTEMBER 6 - SCHOOL OF ENGINEERING-LOBBY, SCHOOL OF BUSINESS-LOBBY
STAFF WILL BE AVAILABLE TO CRITIQUE RESUMES 8AM-11AM

INFORMATION SESSION SEPTEMBER 12 - SCHOOL OF ENGINEERING - BUSINESS CASUAL, REFRESHMENTS PROVIDED 7PM-9PM

www.pwcglobalcareers.com

J oin us. Together we can change the world. 5M
ATTENTION

All Recognized Student Organizations

You must submit an updated Organizational Census NOW in order to:

• Be registered as ACTIVE for the 2000-2001 Academic Year.

• Receive money from the Howard University Student Association.

• Participate in the annual Organization Fair or use any University facilities.

Failure to hand in an updated Organizational Census will result in your organization being registered as INACTIVE!

Please submit your forms to the Office of Student Activities, Blackburn Center, Suite 117

If your organization is not officially recognized, submit a Recognition and Reactivation Packet to the Office of Student Activities in order to gain recognized status.