My dear Sir:-

yours of Dec.
17 containing your check for $25 is received.

We are very grateful to you for the help and shall try by hard work to prove ourselves worthy of your confidence.

It's very encouraging
to know that such friends as Mr. Coble and others are so interested in the Southern work, Mr. Coble

© Moorland-Spingarn Research Center

has certainly proven
his friendship for us in a manly way.

If a few more Southern people would come out boldly as Mr. Noble has it would help matters
much there you may in the South & who think as Mr. Noble does but have not the moral courage to express their sentiments.

We are going to send you the Southern Letter a little paper published by us that you may see what we are doing.

Sincerely yours
Booker T. Washington
