GALLEY PROOF

Marquis National Biographee Reference File— Southern and Southwestern Section

FOURTH EDITION

This proof sheet sent to you for checking in the interest of mutually advantageous accuracy, should be returned at once whether or not corrections or additions are required, so that make-up of the new volume may proceed without delay. Your individual attention will be appreciated by the Editors. A postage-paid envelope self-addressed to the Editors accompanies this proof sheet.

Essential corrections in this proof will be printed in the sketch itself whenever possible, or in a separate section especially provided for them, as the galleys are now moving into page make-up, and often changes in the sketch itself are not possible.

Since WHO'S WHO IN THE SOUTH AND SOUTHWEST can not, because of its size, be printed for stocking under present publishing costs, the press runs for it and its companion Marquis biographical dictionaries, are now held as closely as possible to bookings in hand before press time and the known additional requirements. Accordingly, to you as a biographee, use of the enclosed reference form which you are entitled to validate on returning this proof to the Editors checked as they request, provides not only the substantial discount so extended in reciprocation for cooperating with them, but an assurance of delivery as a result of your booking being included in the press run.
