RACES REPRESENTED AT HOWARD UNIVERSITY BEFORE 1873.

On the day set apart for prayer for Colleges, January 25th, 1872, we organized a small church at Howard University. Since the organization, we have had three communions at each of which we have added to our number. Last Sabbath was a day of special interest in the history of this infant enterprise. Dr. Rankin preached the sermon, after which two native Chinese, supported here through the contributions of your society, were among the number received. In looking over our files, I find a letter from Rev. E. P. Smith, then your field secretary, dated February 18, 1870, making an application for the reception of three Chinese young men to our institution, named Fung Afoo, Leong Sing and Choy Awah. The first two named, he regarded as men of great promise, and they having indulged hope in Christ, were last Sabbath baptized by Dr. Rankin in the name of the Holy Trinity, and entered into covenant with the people of the Lord. At the same time a native African from the eastern coast, who came to this country with the Reverend Mr. Robbins, missionary of Am. Board, a daughter of a deceased
