

Howard University

Digital Howard @ Howard University

Correspondence

Prometheans

10-13-1945

Bridges, Alvin

Alvin Budges

Follow this and additional works at: https://dh.howard.edu/prom_corres

Recommended Citation

Budges, Alvin, "Bridges, Alvin" (1945). Correspondence. 8.
https://dh.howard.edu/prom_corres/8

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Prometheans at Digital Howard @ Howard University. It has been accepted for inclusion in Correspondence by an authorized administrator of Digital Howard @ Howard University. For more information, please contact digitalservices@howard.edu.

Co. 'A', 317th Med. Bn.

A. P. O. 92

c/o Postmaster, New York, N.Y.

May 1945

Novi Ligure, Italy

My dear Mr. Tate

I've received the Promethean News Letters of January and March. Words cannot express the joy that was mine each time I received a letter. It is with a feeling of disgust with my ownself that I apologize for not having written long before now, but I have been quite busy doing my small share in the war.

I have nothing but praise, and thanks for you, and the other editors of the news letters. They have been both interesting, and inspiring to me. I'm interested to read what we, the Prometheans, are doing, and inspiring to know that there is someone who is trying to keep alive a small token of that life which some of us have given our lives for, and for which we are all working to preserve.

It was my good fortune to meet Dave Cason about two weeks ago. At that time he had not received

An edition of the letter containing his article. He was surprised, but very pleased to hear that his article was carried in the News Letter. Our meeting could not end until I related every word of the news letter I could remember to him (smile), of course it was a pleasure

There are two other famous Howard (A. S. T.) men in my Company, Ford Thomas and Martin G. Brookins. We are all getting along very well. As yet Thomas (Foggy as the fellows remember him) and Brookins have not received an edition of the News Letter. However, I have passed the ones I received on to them.

Enclosed you will find a money order for ($10.00) to be deposited for my dues. I shall remit more in the near future.

In closing I would like to extend my thanks for your kindness in sending the news letter and for all the work you are doing to make the Promethians a success.

Very truly yours
Edmund A. Anderson