WHATEVER YOUR SCORE....

YOU HAVE AN INTEREST IN CIVIL LIBERTIES!

PROTECT IT BY JOINING THE AMERICAN CIVIL LIBERTIES UNION!

The ACLU is the only permanent national non-partisan organization defending the Bill of Rights for everybody. The Union fights for the civil liberties even of those whose anti-democratic opinions it abhors. But the ACLU bars from its governing councils all adherents of all totalitarian doctrines.

Today the ACLU with its Board and National Committee of leaders in every field, its twenty-three major branches (and their many sub-chapters), its corps of volunteer lawyers, and its experienced staff, is engaged primarily on four fronts. YOU have a stake in the American Civil Liberties Union's fight:

 Against those indiscriminate federal, state and local measures which, though aimed at Communists, threaten the civil liberties of all Americans.

 TO MAKE an effective civil rights program the law of the land.

 Against both governmental and private pressure group censorship of movies, plays, books, newspapers, magazines, radio, and television.

 TO PROMOTE fair procedures in court trials, congressional and administrative hearings.

ACLU members of the following classifications receive Civil Liberties each month and the Union's Annual Report on U.S. liberties, and are entitled to single copies of some 25 pamphlets currently available:

PARTICIPATING MEMBER.................$100

COOPERATING MEMBER...............$50

SUSTAINING MEMBER................$25

SUPPORTING MEMBER...............$10

CONTRIBUTING MEMBER..............$5

Associate Members at $2 receive Civil Liberties and the Annual Report. Weekly bulletin is available on request to contributors of $10 and over.

Members living in the following states and city areas also belong to the respective local ACLU organization, without payment of additional dues: Southern California, Colorado, Connecticut, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Wisconsin, and Buffalo, Detroit, Lansing, Miami, New York, Philadelphia and St. Louis.

If you live in one of these areas, your chapter will automatically receive a share of your contribution. (The same plan applies to all new branches organized.) The more you give, the larger its share. Be as generous as you can!

All members vote in the annual election of the Union's National Committee.
TWENTY QUESTIONS ON CIVIL LIBERTIES

You believe in the Constitution and the Bill of Rights—but what do you think they require in our democracy today, in times of domestic complexity and world tension? The framers of this quiz realize that these short questions may not state the issues with absolute impartiality or complete fullness, but we do believe it will tell you where you stand with regard to these simplified statements of American Civil Liberties Union policy. The Union’s policies are not all adopted unanimously by its Board of Directors; its members seldom agree 100% on any issue.

To find out if you and the ACLU are in step, put a circle around Y (for YES) if you agree with each statement below; if you do not agree, circle N (for NO).

1. Government employees accused of disloyalty should have the right to know the sources of information against them and to cross-examine their accusers. YN
2. Police and other censors should be allowed to ban books and movies such as “Ten North Frederick” or “Baby Doll.” YN
3. Personal ability alone should determine employment, regardless of the applicant’s race, religion or national origin. YN
4. The teaching of sectarian religion should be permitted in public schools. YN
5. Soldiers leaving the Army should receive discharges whose character is based solely on their active duty military record. YN
6. State universities are justified in using a quota system to limit enrollment by members of certain racial and religious groups. YN
7. Gerald L. K. Smith and William Z. Foster should have the right to make public speeches as other political leaders. YN
8. Trade unions are entitled to restrict their membership on the basis of color, religion or national origin. YN
9. Any private individual should have the right to criticize any government or government official anywhere in the world. YN
10. Police officials should have the right to listen in on private phone conversations. YN
11. Employers should be permitted to state their views regarding labor unions to their workers. YN
12. Movies, plays and books should be suppressed if they present an offensive characterization of a particular racial or religious group. YN
13. Everyone who claims the privilege against self-incrimination when asked if he is a Communist must be one. YN
14. Labor’s right to picket includes the right to deny access to struck plants by force of numbers. YN
15. Segregation in public schools violates the equal protection of the laws guaranteed to all Americans by the 14th Amendment. YN
16. The Attorney General is justified in maintaining a list of “subversive” organizations without holding prior hearings. YN
17. Congress should investigate political beliefs and associations in order to determine whether they are “un-American.” YN
18. The Post Office is justified in refusing to deliver unidentified foreign propaganda material to certain addresses. YN
19. Tests of government employees’ security should be confined to sensitive positions involving military, atomic or international affairs. YN
20. Public school and college teachers should be required to sign a special non-Communist loyalty oath. YN

PLAY FAIR—DON’T CHECK YOUR SCORE UNTIL YOU ANSWER ALL TWENTY QUESTIONS. In the ACLU’s opinion, you get 5 POINTS each for answering YES to numbers 1, 3, 5, 7, 9, 11, 15, 19; and 5 POINTS each for answering NO to numbers 2, 4, 6, 8, 10, 12, 13, 14, 16, 17, 18, 20.

IF YOU SCORE 75 OR MORE . . . . . .
then you agree substantially with the American Civil Liberties Union.

it means you belong in spirit to the ACLU.

put your belief in civil liberties to work by joining the one national organization which fights—52 weeks a year—for the liberties you cherish. Use membership blank on the other side of this quiz.
