ARTHUR B SPINGARN
36 WEST 44TH STREET
NEW YORK CITY

May 9th, 1947.

Mrs. Dorothy Porter,
University Library,
Howard University
Washington 1, D. C.

Dear Mrs. Porter:-

Your letter of May 6th reached me yesterday.

I am afraid that because of previous commitments and the condition of my health it will be impossible for me to speak at your Club this Spring. Perhaps in the Autumn conditions may be different.

I regret this particularly because of the interesting group in the Club, most of whom are familiar to me, either through personal contact or from their books.

With all good wishes, I am,

Sincerely yours,

Arthur B. Spingarn
