Prof. R. E. Thompson, Ph.D., Editor-in-Chief,

iii:-

Sometime since I forwarded
ed to you, care of the Messrs.
Stoddart, the ms. of the Aldridge sketch.

Not having heard
from you I have not sent the other ms.
part of which is ready. I have ma= terial for a short ac= count of Hon. N. N. Gar= ret, late Minister to Liberia, one of the early workers in the Anti-Slavery crusade.

a gentleman worthy of notice.
There are one or two facts
I have since learned relative to Addridge, which could easily be incorporated in proof, if not too late for the supplementary volume.

I presumed there was no necessity for haste as you set no particular time.

Very truly Yours,

Richard T. Greener.

Washington, D. C.,
July 6, 1882.
