THEOLOGICAL DEPARTMENT.

This department—supported entirely by the American Missionary Association and the Presbytery of Washington City—aims to impart a thorough knowledge of the Word of God (in the original tongues to those qualified for the study, otherwise in the English,) with instruction in Biblical and Dogmatic Theology, Church History, Homiletics and Pastoral Theology. The course requires three years. The department is open to students of all Christian denominations, whose scholarship will enable them to pursue the prescribed studies, and who bring testimonials of Christian character.

Course of Study.—Junior Class.—Moral Philosophy; Natural Theology; Evidences of Christianity; Bibliology (including the history, authenticity, inspiration and canonicity of the Scriptures) with Hermeneutics: Hebrew Grammar and Genesis; Greek New Testament; Harmony and Exegesis of the Gospels and Epistles; Vocal Culture and Composition; and Mission Work, its aims, principles and claims.

Middle Class.—Systematic Theology; (Idea of God to and including Fall of man); History and Theology of the Old Testament; Church History (Apostolic Church to the Reformation); Homiletics (with analysis of texts and methods of pulpit preparation); Harmony and Exegesis of Gospels and Epistles; Hebrew (the Psalms and Prophets); Greek New Testament; Pastoral Theology; Rhetoric, with Composition, and the reading of Scriptures and hymns.

Senior Class.—Systematic Theology (Person of Christ to Final Judgment); History and Theology of the New Testament; Church History (Reformation to present time); Homiletics (plans and composition of sermons); Hebrew and Greek till Christmas holidays; Gospels and Epistles; Pastoral Theology (Christian work, organizing churches, Sunday schools, methods of beneficence, etc.; Church Institutions; Rhetoric and preaching sermons.

EXPENSES AND AID.—Each student pays simply $5.00 per year for incidental expenses and $3.00 for care of halls. Washington affords more or less opportunity for earning money by labor, and aid is obtained for the deserving from benevolent societies and individuals, in money, clothing, books, etc.; and donations for this purpose are earnestly solicited.

MEDICAL DEPARTMENT.

The Annual Session opens on the first Monday of October, and continues twenty weeks. It gives a complete and thorough course of medical instruction. A gratuitous Spring course of lectures begins in April.

CLINICAL INSTRUCTION.—Arrangements have been made for the admission of the students of medicine, under proper restrictions, to the Freedmen's General Hospital and Asylum, situated within the grounds of the Institution, for the purpose of studying diseases at the bedside. Surgical, medical, and obstetrical cases will be seen by the class, under the supervision of the professors, and operations will be performed in their presence in the amphitheatre. Clinical instructions occur twice a week. The hospital contains several hundred patients, and presents unusual facilities for the study of practical medicine and surgery. Resident students are selected every quarter from the graduating class to serve in the wards of the hospital. They will write prescriptions, under the directions of the Professors, and keep histories of all the interesting cases, and assist at clinics.

MATRICULATION.—1. The department is open to all, without distinction of race or sex, and on terms nearly gratuitous.

- 2. The applicant must furnish evidence of good moral character.
- 3. He must possess a thorough English education, and a sufficient acquaintance with the Latin language to understand and write prescriptions, and to comprehend medical terms in common use.

For information as to terms and other particulars, write to C. B. Purvis, M. D., Secretary. 1118 Thirteenth St., N. W., Washington, D. C.

LAW DEPARTMENT.

ADMISSION.—The applicant must have a good English education, and some mental training; otherwise it is useless to enter upon the study of law. The department is open to all, without distinction of race or sex, who are over eighteen years of age, and possess the proper qualifications. Those desiring to become members of the school should enter their names upon the register of students, in the hands of the secretary, at or before the opening of the academic year, and make satisfactory arrangements with him for the payment of all dues to the University. Respecting preliminary reading, some familiarity with Blackstone's Commentaries and the Federal Constitution will be of great service. A good law dictionary is almost indispensable. The Law Room is in the Lincoln Hall building. Entrance on Ninth street.

Course of Study,—First Year,—Blackstone's Commentaries, (Sharswood's edition preferred); Kent's Commentaries, vols. III and IV; Parson's on Contracts, and Byles' on Bills, Second Year,—Stephen on Pleading; Cox, Common Law Practice; Adams' Equity Jurisprudence; Bishop on Criminal Law.

EXPENSES.—Tuition is $40 a year; $20 payable in advance on entrance in September, and $20 payable the first Tuesday in January, after the winter vacation. For the accommodation of students, the Treasurer will, when requested, receive monthly payments of $5.00 each, strictly in advance. No deduction for absence. The graduation fee is $5.00, and is to be paid when the student is notified that he has passed and is entitled to a diploma.

For the Post Graduate course the charge is $25, payable in two installments, in advance.

For further information apply to the Secretary,

JAMES H. SMITH, Esq.,

520 Eighth Street, N. W., Le Droit Building.

NORMAL DEPARTMENT.

ADMISSION.

All applicants must present satisfactory evidence of good character. Candidates for admission to the Model School of this department will be required to pass satisfactory examinations in Arithmetic, (through common fractions,) Reading, Spelling, and Elements of Geography. The course of instruction is so arranged that those who complete it will be prepared to enter either the Normal or Preparatory Course.

Candidates for admission to the Normal School, proper, must be fourteen years of age, and sustain examinations in Reading and Spelling, Writing, Arithmetic, Algebra, English Grammar, (throughout.) United States History, Natural History, and Geography, with Map-drawing. This course of instruction is designed for students who have the work of teaching in view; but it is equally adapted to those who seek a good English education. Advanced pupils will teach classes in the Model School under the direction of the Principal. Diplomas will be awarded to all students regularly completing the above course. For other points of interest, address in person, or by letter, the Principal of the department.

SPECIAL STATEMENT.

ADMISSION.:-The Institution offers the full advantages of each department to all, without regard to creed, race or sex. Applicants are often rejected, in all the departments of the Institution, because they have not pursued the studies previously necessary. To prevent disappointment, therefore, they must examine the conditions of admission stated in connection with each department.

Religious Exercises.—There is a weekly prayer-meeting on Thursday evening, conducted by the officers of the Institution; and another on Saturday evening, conducted by students. There is also a Bible Class and a preaching service on the Lord's Day, usually conducted by the President, and a daily religious exercise in the Chapel.

LITERARY SOCIETIES, LIBRARY, CABINETS, ETC.—Literary Societies are formed in each of the Departments, for improvement in elocution, extemporaneous speaking, written discussions, and general culture. The general library numbers about 7,000 volumes, many of them choice and select works. The mineral cabinet contains over 4,000 specimens, including minerals, fossils, etc., etc. The museum contains various articles of art and curiosity.

AID TO STUDENTS.—Aid is given to worthy students, who need it, so far as contributions made for the purpose will allow.

University Site and Buildings.—The Institution occupies an elevated and beautiful site, just outside of the city of Washington, on the north, at the head of Seventh street, facing the University Park. Two lines of street-cars lead to it. Its University edifice is four stories in height, containing recitation and lecture rooms, chapel library, philosophical rooms, museum, and offices. The Medical Building is on the south of the Park. Miner Hall, set apart for radies, will accommodate one hundred and forty students, together with rooms for matron and teachers. The rooms are arranged in suites of two, with two closets, each suite to be occupied by two persons. The basement of this building is arranged and furnished as he University boarding hall. Clark Hall, for young men, will accommodate two hundred students, and its rooms are furnished like those in Miner Hall.
