

Howard University

Digital Howard @ Howard University

Correspondence

Prometheans

1-1-1945

Cason, Dave

Dave Cason

Follow this and additional works at: https://dh.howard.edu/prom_corres

Recommended Citation

Cason, Dave, "Cason, Dave" (1945). Correspondence. 12.
https://dh.howard.edu/prom_corres/12

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Prometheans at Digital Howard @ Howard University. It has been accepted for inclusion in Correspondence by an authorized administrator of Digital Howard @ Howard University. For more information, please contact digitalservices@howard.edu.

AMERICAN RED CROSS

Fellows:

This is your old pal Lason signing on. I never dreamt I'd have an article of mine read around the globe, but since we have such travel minded members in the Prometheans what has been a remote possibility is now a fact.

When the first Newsletter reached me I immediately rounded up the boys and we read it together and had one of our old bull sessions. It really brought back memories. There is no doubt in my heart as to whether wheather our seperation has loosen the bounds of Fraternity. I believe we are definily a more closer knit group.

AMERICAN RED CROSS

To the fellows who have been fortunate enough to cross the bridge between E M and Officer we ~~offer~~ offer our heartiest congratulations, we are proud of you and we have every right to be so. All of you ~~who~~ who are still in the states have our envy and we hope you may remain there.

I know that every member has the same emotional feeling whenever our irreplaceable losses are referred to.

There is one person we want to thank with all our hearts for her patience and kindness. That person is Dr. Tate. There is only one way to state how we feel about her. Using the words of Herman Ndal "She's regular."

In closing I want to say, may the blessings of our maker

1 over

suek each of you, ~~no matter~~ how and allow all of us to be at the reunion.

Let's Come Back!!

Int. Due Cason 36588207
402 Rep 1. Co. 13th Bn. 24th R.D
HPO 781 New York, N.Y.