Scope and Contents

---

The Barbados Photograph Album is a hardcover album consisting of cardboard-like pages that contain photographs featuring historical landmarks, pictures of individuals, and scenes of the island. It comprises approximately 47 pages, with a few pages (pages 37-45) left empty at the end of the scrapbook, which are still included in the count. In total the album holds 63 photographs of Barbados as well as other islands, such as St. Kitts, Martinique, Antigua, and St. Lucia. Many of the photographs come with descriptions that provide information about where the photo was taken or by whom. The photographs are also quite clear in conveying the depicted scenes. Due to the condition of the album, most of the photographs and pages within show considerable signs of age, wear, and fading, placing them in a poor to very poor condition scale. This collection is classified as "FRAGILE - DO NOT CIRCULATE."

Conditions Governing Access

FRAGILE - DO NOT CIRCULATE. Please visit Digital Howard for access once the collection becomes available online.

Condition Report

One notable issue is its physical deterioration. Some of the pages have detached from the book's spine, making it easy to misplace them if not handled carefully. The material used for the scrapbook's pages, which appears to be cardboard, and is very old, dry, and brittle. The fragility of the pages leaves room for breakage upon contact, especially if not handled with care. Many of the photographs are somewhat damaged; some are torn at the edges along with their respective page. This album is not in the best condition for public access due to its fragility.
