Collection 165-1 to 165-23

MANUSCRIPT DIVISION

Scope Note

The papers of R. Louise Burge (1908-1986), contralto vocalist and teacher, reflect her personal life, performing career and her role as an educator, specifically at Howard University. These papers date from circa 1930, when Ms. Burge was attending Howard University and performing, until shortly before her death. They were donated to Moorland-Spingarn by Mr. and Mrs. Shephard Burge, Ms. Burge's brother and sister-in-law, in 1986. There are approximately eight linear feet of materials.

Programs and publicity concerning Ms. Burge's performances are included in these papers, as well as programs of other performers. Ms. Burge's role as an alumna and faculty member at Howard University is well represented, as well as her relationship with family members, documented by correspondence, news clippings and obituaries. These papers also reflect Ms. Burge's friendship with Camille Nickerson, also a performer and faculty member at Howard University. Included are Nickerson correspondence, photographs and programs. Ms. Burge donated Ms. Nickerson's papers to Moorland-Spingarn in 1983.

Ms. Burge was very active in the National Association of Negro Musicians, National Association of Teachers of Singing and Sigma Alpha Iota, a music fraternity.
