ARMY SERVICE FORCES
LOS ANGELES PORT OF EMBARKATION
WILMINGTON, CALIFORNIA

Public Relations Office

RELEASE AT WILL:

WILMINGTON, Calif., 22 August--Peter N. Butler, on duty with the 666th Port company at the Los Angeles Port of Embarkation here, was recently promoted from private to technician fifth grade (corporal).

Son of James E. Butler, 12 White Horse Pike, Lawnside, New Jersey, Corporal Butler received his basic training at Indiantown Gap, Pennsylvania and received training under the Army Specialized Training Program at Howard University.

He was assigned to this vital Army Transportation Corps installation June 1945 and is serving as a squad leader in charge of a crew of soldier stevedores. Before entering the service, Corporal Butler had completed one year at Howard University as a science major.

His father, James E. Butler served overseas in World War I.
