The Hilltop 3-9-2001

Hilltop Staff

Follow this and additional works at: https://dh.howard.edu/hilltop_0010

Recommended Citation
https://dh.howard.edu/hilltop_0010/25

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the The Hilltop Digital Archive at Digital Howard @ Howard University. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Hilltop: 2000 - 2010 by an authorized administrator of Digital Howard @ Howard University. For more information, please contact lpez.matthews@howard.edu.
Hope for the Doughnuts

Sales in Blackburn

Brown, Dixon Clinch HUSA Victory

Smith, McGahее Win Student Trustee Seats, 3,355 Students Vote

The Problem With Founders

Students Upset Over Library's Wanning Conditions

The Hilltop Friday

Campus

Actor and Director Charles S. Dutton spoke candidly about racism in Hollywood Wednesday.

News

Bush May Appoint the First Black to Head Anti-Terrorism

Life & Style

The Roots took the stage at the 9-30 club. Find out how they did.
Actor Charles S. Dutton Speaks Frankly on Racism In Hollywood During Taping

By Allison Conyers
Hilltop Staff Writer

Actor and Director Charles S. Dutton candidly spoke about racism in Hollywood Wednesday during a student-organized and student-sponsored forum for the WSJU S.B.T.

"My problem is behind the camera, that's where the real black actors and actresses work," he said in the student-sponsored event.

There are several high-powered black actors and they'll talk about their Pirelli being a degree too warm but won't utter a damn word about the 99 percent white crew."

Dutton offered his opinion on many of the events and recent stories of today. "The people whispered the way, 'Billie Biggs'. Robber who spoke extremely proper Eng­lish, would have been expected if what was on the WB and UPN today," he said.

Dutton reminded the audience that their work matters. "You have to want to change the world," he said.

He also discussed how acting is a labor of love. "But because you are an English major you don't have to work because those actors and actresses don't matter that you can do August Wilson," Dutton said.

Dutton then discussed the-and "It's all about you, know, 'I'm trying to get some doors open.'"

"Dutton delivered a one-hour lecture to students while a taped tape of "It involves half a bottle of Suave lotion, a foot-long Moundings Hargie, three patty white girls and a horse stable.

World Press"

By Allen Wing Sophomore
Advertising major

"I was skinny dipping in Cancun, Senior year."

-Morgan, Sophomore

Television Production

"I went to IA for three days without telling my parents."

-Dea'a Dardeshi, Sophomore

-Sophomore, Legal Communications

"I don't want to deal with that, in some other cut sauna."

-Frank Ochner

-Sophomore

-Marketing major

Students Upset Over Library's Waning Conditions

By Valerie Li

Mekkawi said it would cost $1.5 million to install new elevators in the library that was built back in 1937. "I wish it could all be done right away, but Founders is not the only place surveillance cameras in the stacks to make students feel more comfortable, make some changes. Plans are in the works to install phones lines, add security and place surveillance cameras in the stacks to make some changes. Plans are in the works to install phones lines, add security and

Congressman Reflects On Success, Life, and Howard During Lecture

By Chas Odum
Hilltop Staff Writer

Congressman Elijah Cummings, a self-proclaimed "son of Howard," spoke Wednesday evening in the Blackstone Hall Gallery for a lecture titled, "Leadership: A Personal Quest for One of the Nation's Most Powerful Politicians.

Cummings, who represents Maryland's 7th Congressional District, expressed his devotion to the stocks of the Democratic party in his quest for one of the nation's most powerful political positions.

"We have to work with Bush to make things work," he said, "but we must be careful at what Bush's stance is. Look underneath, not just on the surface."

As the vice-chairman of the Congress Black Caucus, Cummings discussed the power and prestige that the caucus can wield. "We lack the power to make Bush cut taxes."

"We CBC are taking the Constit­uency and the power to people, but tell­ing Bush to make things work."

"Cummings used the election as an example of how people should make changes as they did on the job."

"Leadership is about presence," Cummings said.

"Cummings used the election as an example of how people should make changes as they did on the job."

"Leadership is about presence," Cummings said.

"Leadership is about presence," Cummings said.

"Leadership is about presence," Cummings said.

"Leadership is about presence," Cummings said.

"Leadership is about presence," Cummings said.

"Leadership is about presence," Cummings said.
The Changing of the Guard.

New Leaders Chosen For 2001-2002 Academic Year

Jones Selected To Chair Homecoming Next Year

By Derick Navp

Selected as Hilltop’s 2001-2002 homecoming chair last Thursday, Jordan Jones plans to provide a “highlight” event for everyone during homecoming week. Jones, who is an African-American student major, said “The U.V.-E. Books will provide a highlight for everyone during homecoming week,” she said.

Jones, the daughter of an attorney, said “she has prepared [for the position]” by being a high-attending seniors and former members of the homecoming committee.

The committee has continually said that “it is well-known” in the college that the students are interested in the homecoming chair position.

Jones said that she plans to implement new components in the Homecoming program. She plans to combine the celebration which some students have said should also be updated, said.

“Students are also in the works, Jones said.

Her homecoming proposal was submitted to the homecoming committee.

Homecoming Chair for 2001-2002, Jordan Jones

Doyen Tapped To Head The Hilltop Business Operations

By Jessey Barren

Dean of Student Life and Activities Belinda Brown, Dixon Clinch HUSA Victory

Brown, Dixon Clinch HUSA Victory

Asthma Volunteers Needed for NIH Research Study

The Pulmonary-Critical Care Medicine Branch at the National Institutes of Health is seeking volunteers with asthma between the ages of 18-65 to participate in a 3-4 day research study. A thorough medical evaluation and monetary compensation will be provided. If interested, please call (301) 402-1553.

Hope for the Doughnuts

Free Blackjacks, Jr.

Although the sugar babies have entered Blackburn through the greatest extent, near the students and assorted students...

Police Chief: Reginald Smith says that a change in attitude is needed to prevent problems from recurring.
FRI DAY, M RCH 9, 2001

THE HILL

NEWS

FREEMAN'S BANK RECORDS PUBLISHED BY MORSTONS

Ceremony Salutes Black Sailors

First Black Woman Executive Officer of a Combatant Ship Speaks

By Yves Knol

Recreationally designed and uniformly orchestrated in a municipally Navy[nor must adjourned solemnly on the morning of 28th March. The day is to be remembered as the centennial of the Pennsylvania Avenue on Wednesday, March 28, 1985.

The intense display, a ceremony done apace with the design of a monument, commemorates the tremendous widespread public, Pennsylvania Avenue on Wednesday, March 28, 1985. The event is a celebration of the Pennsylvania Avenue on Wednesday, March 28, 1985.

Historically significant events such as Pennsylvania Avenue on Wednesday, March 28, 1985, were not only a symbol of the nation's history, but also a reminder of the sacrifices made by African Americans who have served in the military. The ceremony is a tribute to the memory of these brave men and women who have given their lives in service to their country.

The ceremony is a testament to the enduring legacy of African Americans in the military, and a reminder of the bravery and sacrifice of those who have served. It is a celebration of the contributions of African Americans to the United States and a reminder of the importance of diversity and inclusion in our military.

Profile

Lawrence Guyot, a Civic Leader and DC Advocate

By Erin Romines

They call him a civil rights activist, mentor, and community leader.

For over 40 years, Lawrence Guyot has advocated relentlessly for civil rights. He attributes his activism to the Johnson administration's call for the Civil Rights movement of the 1960s, and in 1962, he was the first black person to be arrested in a civil rights demonstration. After two months of jail, he was released.

In 1966, he took part in the Poor People's March, which was organized by the Council of Federated Organizations (COFO), which consisted of CORE, SNO, SCLC, and SNCC, among others. Guyot has been a vocal advocate for civil rights, and he continues to work for equality and justice.

Guyot's activism dates back to his years in college at Howard University, where he was involved in the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC). After graduating, he worked as an Advisory Neighborhood Commissioner and was elected to the D.C. Council in 1981.

Guyot has been involved in numerous organizations, and he has led many efforts to address issues such as poverty, education, and civil rights. He has been a vocal advocate for the rights of African Americans, and he continues to work to ensure that everyone has access to the opportunities and resources they need to thrive.

Guyot has a long resume list of achievements, including his work with CORE, SNCC, and SCLC. He has been a vocal advocate for civil rights, and he continues to work for equality and justice. Guyot has a strong demeanor and is viewed as a serious and compassionate leader. He has a long history of service in the community, and he continues to work to ensure that everyone has access to the opportunities and resources they need to thrive.

Bush May Approve Black to Head Antitrust Division

By Karen M. Richards

Bitten Bites Water

California Power Failure May Spread by Summer

President Bush is expected to announce his nomination of James T. Black, Jr., a Harvard Law School professor and African American, to head the Justice Department's antitrust division. The move is seen as a bid to calm concerns about the department's handling of the Microsoft antitrust case.

Bush is expected to announce his nomination of James T. Black, Jr., a Harvard Law School professor and African American, to head the Justice Department's antitrust division. The move is seen as a bid to calm concerns about the department's handling of the Microsoft antitrust case.

California's power failure on Sunday, when the state's electric grid collapsed, raising concerns about the state's ability to keep the lights on during the summer months.

Bush is expected to announce his nomination of James T. Black, Jr., a Harvard Law School professor and African American, to head the Justice Department's antitrust division. The move is seen as a bid to calm concerns about the department's handling of the Microsoft antitrust case.

California's power failure on Sunday, when the state's electric grid collapsed, raising concerns about the state's ability to keep the lights on during the summer months.

Bush is expected to announce his nomination of James T. Black, Jr., a Harvard Law School professor and African American, to head the Justice Department's antitrust division. The move is seen as a bid to calm concerns about the department's handling of the Microsoft antitrust case.

California's power failure on Sunday, when the state's electric grid collapsed, raising concerns about the state's ability to keep the lights on during the summer months.

Bush is expected to announce his nomination of James T. Black, Jr., a Harvard Law School professor and African American, to head the Justice Department's antitrust division. The move is seen as a bid to calm concerns about the department's handling of the Microsoft antitrust case.

California's power failure on Sunday, when the state's electric grid collapsed, raising concerns about the state's ability to keep the lights on during the summer months.

Bush is expected to announce his nomination of James T. Black, Jr., a Harvard Law School professor and African American, to head the Justice Department's antitrust division. The move is seen as a bid to calm concerns about the department's handling of the Microsoft antitrust case.

California's power failure on Sunday, when the state's electric grid collapsed, raising concerns about the state's ability to keep the lights on during the summer months.

Bush is expected to announce his nomination of James T. Black, Jr., a Harvard Law School professor and African American, to head the Justice Department's antitrust division. The move is seen as a bid to calm concerns about the department's handling of the Microsoft antitrust case.

California's power failure on Sunday, when the state's electric grid collapsed, raising concerns about the state's ability to keep the lights on during the summer months.

Bush is expected to announce his nomination of James T. Black, Jr., a Harvard Law School professor and African American, to head the Justice Department's antitrust division. The move is seen as a bid to calm concerns about the department's handling of the Microsoft antitrust case.

California's power failure on Sunday, when the state's electric grid collapsed, raising concerns about the state's ability to keep the lights on during the summer months.

Bush is expected to announce his nomination of James T. Black, Jr., a Harvard Law School professor and African American, to head the Justice Department's antitrust division. The move is seen as a bid to calm concerns about the department's handling of the Microsoft antitrust case.

California's power failure on Sunday, when the state's electric grid collapsed, raising concerns about the state's ability to keep the lights on during the summer months.

Bush is expected to announce his nomination of James T. Black, Jr., a Harvard Law School professor and African American, to head the Justice Department's antitrust division. The move is seen as a bid to calm concerns about the department's handling of the Microsoft antitrust case.

California's power failure on Sunday, when the state's electric grid collapsed, raising concerns about the state's ability to keep the lights on during the summer months.

Bush is expected to announce his nomination of James T. Black, Jr., a Harvard Law School professor and African American, to head the Justice Department's antitrust division. The move is seen as a bid to calm concerns about the department's handling of the Microsoft antitrust case.

California's power failure on Sunday, when the state's electric grid collapsed, raising concerns about the state's ability to keep the lights on during the summer months.

Bush is expected to announce his nomination of James T. Black, Jr., a Harvard Law School professor and African American, to head the Justice Department's antitrust division. The move is seen as a bid to calm concerns about the department's handling of the Microsoft antitrust case.

California's power failure on Sunday, when the state's electric grid collapsed, raising concerns about the state's ability to keep the lights on during the summer months.

Bush is expected to announce his nomination of James T. Black, Jr., a Harvard Law School professor and African American, to head the Justice Department's antitrust division. The move is seen as a bid to calm concerns about the department's handling of the Microsoft antitrust case.

California's power failure on Sunday, when the state's electric grid collapsed, raising concerns about the state's ability to keep the lights on during the summer months.

Bush is expected to announce his nomination of James T. Black, Jr., a Harvard Law School professor and African American, to head the Justice Department's antitrust division. The move is seen as a bid to calm concerns about the department's handling of the Microsoft antitrust case.

California's power failure on Sunday, when the state's electric grid collapsed, raising concerns about the state's ability to keep the lights on during the summer months.

Bush is expected to announce his nomination of James T. Black, Jr., a Harvard Law School professor and African American, to head the Justice Department's antitrust division. The move is seen as a bid to calm concerns about the department's handling of the Microsoft antitrust case.

California's power failure on Sunday, when the state's electric grid collapsed, raising concerns about the state's ability to keep the lights on during the summer months.
On The Yard

Though there was no major accumulation of snow in the District this week, blistery winds forced students to break out their jackets and Parkas. Above, one student braved the winds and took a seat on the steps leading to the Fine Arts Building.

---

Got Opinions?

The Hilltop is again looking for an opinionated student with leadership abilities to head our Editorial Board. Must be able available to run weekly meetings and write one Editorial per week. Interested? Call 202-806-4748

---

HAVE YOU EVER WANTED TO SAY

"THANK YOU"

to

That kind cafeteria person, who always gave you an extra serving

-or-

The professor who encouraged you to work for an "A" when you were only after a "B"

-or-

Maybe that friendly street vendor who always has a warm piece of cocoa bread waiting for you

-or-

That administrator who went the extra mile for you

-or-

Even to that Howard student who has inspired you through the years

WELL YOU CAN SHOW YOUR APPRECIATION BY NOMINATING THAT PERSON FOR RECOGNITION AT THE FIRST

"UNSUNG HEROES"

RECEPTION, SPONSORED BY THE ANDREW RANKIN MEMORIAL CHAPEL ASSISTANTS

April 26, 2001 in the BLACK BURN BALLROOM

Pick up nomination forms found in folders throughout campus, or visit the Chapel Office in the basement of Andrew Rankin Memorial Chapel.

Deadlines for nominations: April 6, 2001 at 6:00pm. Turn in all nominations to the Chapel Office. Further Questions call 806-4077

---

Howard University School of Business Student Council Presents 2nd Annual Women in Business Conference "Dream to Dream, Preparing to Dream"

Flipping the Script: Jobs Outside the Box

12:45 PM - 2:00 PM
School of Business Auditorium
Monica Lewis, Writer/Reporter, ESPN Magazine
Janula Burt, Author, The McKenzie Group Inc. Educational Consultants

---

Putting it Together: Program & Event Planning

10AM -11:15AM
Blackburn Center
Tessa Murphy, ExxonMobil
Roberts McLeod, Director - Blackburn Center, Howard University

---

How I Got Over: Working for Yourself

12:45 PM - 2:00 PM
School of Business Auditorium
Jamila White, Founder, Jamila White & Associates, Inc.
Lisa Price, Founder, Carol’s Daughter

---

Fighting for Mine: Combating Racism and Sexism in the Workplace

10AM - 11:15 AM
School of Business Auditorium
Arlene Bunch, Goldman Sachs
Rita Floyd, Account Manager, Xerox

---

Balancing Acts: Surviving as Executive, Wife & Mother

12:45 PM - 2:00 PM
School of Business Auditorium
Jamil White, Founder, Jamila White & Associates, Inc.
Lisa Price, Founder, Carol’s Daughter

---

Registered Will-4 The Office of Central Scheduling AND INFORMATION

INITIALS

DATE

---

The Hilltop

FRIDAY, MARCH 9, 2001

---

Photograph by Vince Smith
Raymond Watson is a sophomore theater major, can be reached at rwatson@hotmail.com.
The Hilltop

MOTIVATION

Its what we’re about.

The MOTIVATION to give our fellow students the best that we can possibly deliver.

The MOTIVATION to continue to be the #1 ranked black college newspaper in the country.

The MOTIVATION to do it twice a week.

The Hilltop, Since 1924
Support Your Teams!!

WOMEN'S LACROSSE
TODAY!!!

3:00pm, Friday, March 9
HOWARD vs. Villa Julie
@ Greene Stadium
Come out for a chance to win FREE Pepsi products!

Congratulations!!
HU WRESTLERS
And good luck at the NCAA's on March 15!!

Eastern Regional Champions going to the NCAA National Championships in Iowa!!
ADRIAN THOMPSON - Heavyweight Champion & Tournament's Outstanding Wrestler
DEREK BUTTS - 133 lb. Champion

BISON TENNIS

HOWARD vs. Norfolk State
10 am, Sun., Mar. 11
HOWARD vs. UMES
2 pm, Sun., Mar. 11
HU WOMEN vs. UMBC
2:30 pm, Tues., Mar. 13

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE BISON MEN'S BASKETBALL TEAM AND COACHES FOR A TURN-AROUND SEASON!!

BEST WISHES TO THE LADY BISON IN THE MEAC TOURNAMENT!!
At press time, the Bison had lost a heart-breaker by one point in the first round; and the #1 Seed Lady Bison won (95-78) their first round game.

And Best Wishes to:
HU BASEBALL @ Norfolk State & George Washington
HU TENNIS @ GW, Navy, George Mason & Loyola

Mark Your Calendar...
HU BASEBALL vs. Savannah State
2pm, Thurs., Mar. 15 @ Joe Cannon Stadium

DIVISION OF STUDENT AFFAIRS
Hampton Univ

S.C. State

Delaware State

N.C. A&T State

passing records, sustained two concussions in 11 games last season and twice needed epidural injections to relieve back pain.

third in Rookie of the Year balloting last season.

Wednesday for violating the league's anti-drug program.

Odom, a 6-foot-10 forward, is averaging a team-second season with the Clippers. He finished sands of dollars in fines and suspensions dur-

Rider was suspended for a total of 12 games during his three years in Port-

.526 70.7 70.8 10-17 .370 67.3 72.3

infected her with genital herpes.

Aikman, who holds practically all the Dallas

believe that one time Super Bowl MVP Troy

year-old Aikman retire after 12 seasons -

and nearly as many concussions - but his

.444

did the honors last season with a 78-69 victory. Both teams

semi-final will be at 12 p.m. at the

Howard Advances to Semi-

Tyrone McCandies

Benson

The Lady Aggies (5-24) were

The Lady Aggies (19-9) with 4-14, 22-57, 63-59, 11-7,

High School in Richmond, was not from the free-throw line. Abdullah's efforts - were in had 13 points, including 3-for-

Binghamton's Mike Hughes hit Binghamton 3B Tim Macko with a pitch track your favorite MEAC team at

ON POINT: Track your favorite MEAC team at www.meacsports.com. Get the latest stats and news about all the conference teams.

Slim Bickstaff's 19-point, 10-rebound burst late in regulation propelled Binghamton past Howard 63-60 Wednesday night at the Richmond Coliseum. With the win over Howard to the bench with breathing problems, Tawan-

Howard Coach Cathy Parson said, "When you

Howard has fallen in the semi-

Howard one day. There were times when a game could have been quarterfinal since I've been matriculating here at Howard. Seven seconds was all it took for an entire season to be sabotaged.

promptly disciplined after going on the record about poor offic-

The Wbrsrpart is that after games, coaches and players are not

It kind of makes you want to really "Beat that ref with a bat;"

The Bison men's 63-62 loss to Bethune-Cookman in a MEAC

There is no reason I should have seen members of the men's basketball team back on campus Wednesday. They should have been bloodied and beaten after the 2-11 start to their season.

I knew it would catch up with

Seeing the inspired play by North Carolina A&T,

' da Jackson and Nakesha Walton caught

Howard Roundup was compiled by Joie Ridley

Howard Bisons Roundup was compiled by Joie Ridley

Howard rounded out the scoring with two points on a 3-point attempt.

Hampton did the honors last season

with a 78-69 victory. Both teams

semi-final will be at 12 p.m. at the

Howard SUED FOR HOMICIDE

Benson

See Baseball, B2

Howard Prosecutor John Aikman, who holds practically all the Dallas

believe that one time Super Bowl MVP Troy

year-old Aikman retire after 12 seasons -

and nearly as many concussions - but his

.444
Bird's Buzzer-Beaters give UConn Eighth Straight Big East Tourney Title

By PETER BURKE
The Daily Campus (U. Connecticut)

Two teams entered the NCAA Tournament this weekend; one, Howard, had its shot at history, and the other, UConn, had a chance to win its eighth straight championship.

Howard was able to knock off No. 2 Notre Dame, 76-73, to set up a meeting with No. 4 Arizona State in the second round.

The Huskies, on the other hand, were unable to secure another trip to the Final Four.

Howard junior guard Cymphonie Diaries hit a 3-pointer with 0.9 seconds remaining to give the Bison the lead, 76-73, and the victory.

"It was a great win for us," Howard coach Pat Coyle said. "It's the biggest win in our history, and it's a great moment for our program.

"It's a great feeling to be able to knock off a team like Notre Dame.

"We were able to contain UConn's offense, which is something we've been working on all season.

"We played well on both ends of the court, and we were able to make some big shots when we needed them."
Howard Students Go Through Some Hair Raising Situations

By ANDREA COREY

Howard students are faced with many barriers when searching for a stylist that suits their needs. "One of the reasons why students may not go to a stylist is because they don’t know where to start. Sometimes they don’t know what they want, so they don’t know where to go," said Radio-TV-film major, Randal Ford Jr.

"You should go in with the attitude of ‘I want this done’ and be firm,” said Ford. "If you go in being to your stylist with the words ‘cut my hair short’ she is going to give you a short cut and not listen to what you ask for.

"If you don’t know what you want, ask your stylist for recommendations and let the stylist do their work. If you give them the freedom to do their work they will do a better job," said Ford.

Ford recommended that students research stylists before scheduling an appointment.

"Researching stylists is important because you need to know what type of services they offer. Make sure the stylist you choose is someone you feel comfortable with and trust. This is important because you are putting your trust in someone who is cutting your hair. If you don’t feel comfortable with the stylist they may not do a good job," said Ford.

Ford recommended looking for a stylist who has a good reputation and is experienced in the field. "You can look for reviews online or ask for recommendations from friends and family. It is important to do research before scheduling an appointment," said Ford.

Best Cuts Offers the Best Cuts

By FRIEDRICK N. NASS

Howard Hair Stylist

"I have been in the hairstyling business for 20 years and have gained a lot of experience working with different styles and techniques," said Howard Hair Stylist, Frank Mack. "I am able to give students the best possible haircut and styling experience.

"I make sure to listen to my clients and understand what they are looking for. I also take into consideration their lifestyle and the type of hair they have," said Mack.

"I am dedicated to providing my clients with quality care and attention. I make sure to give each client the time and effort they deserve," said Mack.

"I am committed to ensuring that each client is satisfied with their experience. I always strive to go above and beyond to make sure that my clients are happy," said Mack.

"I love being able to help my clients achieve their desired look and feel confident in themselves," said Mack.

"I am proud of the success I have had in the hairstyling industry and I look forward to continuing to provide quality care to my clients," said Mack.
PHOTO OF THE WEEK

15 Minutes

Photo by Matthew Winston

McNicely Takes a Stab at Their '15 Minutes'

By Renos C. Constantine

In his book McNicely Takes a Stab at Their '15 Minutes', the author explores the trials and tribulations of a group of young students at the school. The movie follows the lives of various students as they navigate their way through the school. The school has a strict no-smoking policy, but the students continue to smoke despite the rule. The school administration is trying to find ways to enforce the rule, but the students are not deterred.

The film follows the lives of four students: a jock, a cheerleader, a burnout, and a straight-A student. The jock is trying to get into college, the cheerleader is trying to make it to the next level, the burnout is trying to avoid getting kicked out, and the straight-A student is dealing with the pressure of maintaining her grades. The film explores the struggles of each character as they face their own challenges.

The film is directed by a first-time director, and it is a unique take on the classic high school movie. The film has received mixed reviews, with some critics saying it is too predictable, while others praise the performances of the young cast. The film is a must-watch for anyone who enjoys coming-of-age dramas.

E-BRIEFS

Compiled by Brian A. Miller

A judge has sentenced a 21-year-old woman to 15 years in prison for the murder of her ex-boyfriend. The woman was found guilty of second-degree murder after a trial involving the shooting of the victim in their home. The judge ruled that the woman was guilty of the charge and sentenced her to 15 years in prison. The victim was shot in the head and pronounced dead at the scene.

The trial lasted for three weeks and was covered extensively in the local media. The defendant was represented by a public defender, and the prosecution was led by the district attorney. The case has received widespread attention, and the community is still struggling to come to terms with the tragedy.

Pitt and Roberts Run for the Border in 'The Mexican'

By Monica Barbara

A beautiful, achingly funny and utterly irreverent take on the border war, 'The Mexican' is a comedy that explores the trials and tribulations of a group of elementary school children as they navigate their way through the school. The school has a strict no-smoking policy, but the students continue to smoke despite the rule. The school administration is trying to find ways to enforce the rule, but the students are not deterred.

The film follows the lives of four students: a jock, a cheerleader, a burnout, and a straight-A student. The jock is trying to get into college, the cheerleader is trying to make it to the next level, the burnout is trying to avoid getting kicked out, and the straight-A student is dealing with the pressure of maintaining her grades. The film explores the struggles of each character as they face their own challenges.

The film is directed by a first-time director, and it is a unique take on the classic high school movie. The film has received mixed reviews, with some critics saying it is too predictable, while others praise the performances of the young cast. The film is a must-watch for anyone who enjoys coming-of-age dramas.

Recess Nothing But Big Fun on the Big Screen

By Retna Maliki Rukun

The new Disney film, Reckless, is a wild ride that follows a group of young kids as they navigate their way through the school. The school has a strict no-smoking policy, but the students continue to smoke despite the rule. The school administration is trying to find ways to enforce the rule, but the students are not deterred.

The film follows the lives of four students: a jock, a cheerleader, a burnout, and a straight-A student. The jock is trying to get into college, the cheerleader is trying to make it to the next level, the burnout is trying to avoid getting kicked out, and the straight-A student is dealing with the pressure of maintaining her grades. The film explores the struggles of each character as they face their own challenges.

The film is directed by a first-time director, and it is a unique take on the classic high school movie. The film has received mixed reviews, with some critics saying it is too predictable, while others praise the performances of the young cast. The film is a must-watch for anyone who enjoys coming-of-age dramas.

PHOTO OF THE WEEK

Photo by Matthew Winston

McNicely Takes a Stab at Their '15 Minutes'

By Renos C. Constantine

In his book McNicely Takes a Stab at Their '15 Minutes', the author explores the trials and tribulations of a group of young students at the school. The movie follows the lives of various students as they navigate their way through the school. The school has a strict no-smoking policy, but the students continue to smoke despite the rule. The school administration is trying to find ways to enforce the rule, but the students are not deterred.

The film follows the lives of four students: a jock, a cheerleader, a burnout, and a straight-A student. The jock is trying to get into college, the cheerleader is trying to make it to the next level, the burnout is trying to avoid getting kicked out, and the straight-A student is dealing with the pressure of maintaining her grades. The film explores the struggles of each character as they face their own challenges.

The film is directed by a first-time director, and it is a unique take on the classic high school movie. The film has received mixed reviews, with some critics saying it is too predictable, while others praise the performances of the young cast. The film is a must-watch for anyone who enjoys coming-of-age dramas.

E-BRIEFS

Compiled by Brian A. Miller

A judge has sentenced a 21-year-old woman to 15 years in prison for the murder of her ex-boyfriend. The woman was found guilty of second-degree murder after a trial involving the shooting of the victim in their home. The judge ruled that the woman was guilty of the charge and sentenced her to 15 years in prison. The victim was shot in the head and pronounced dead at the scene.

The trial lasted for three weeks and was covered extensively in the local media. The defendant was represented by a public defender, and the prosecution was led by the district attorney. The case has received widespread attention, and the community is still struggling to come to terms with the tragedy.

Pitt and Roberts Run for the Border in 'The Mexican'

By Monica Barbara

A beautiful, achingly funny and utterly irreverent take on the border war, 'The Mexican' is a comedy that explores the trials and tribulations of a group of elementary school children as they navigate their way through the school. The school has a strict no-smoking policy, but the students continue to smoke despite the rule. The school administration is trying to find ways to enforce the rule, but the students are not deterred.

The film follows the lives of four students: a jock, a cheerleader, a burnout, and a straight-A student. The jock is trying to get into college, the cheerleader is trying to make it to the next level, the burnout is trying to avoid getting kicked out, and the straight-A student is dealing with the pressure of maintaining her grades. The film explores the struggles of each character as they face their own challenges.

The film is directed by a first-time director, and it is a unique take on the classic high school movie. The film has received mixed reviews, with some critics saying it is too predictable, while others praise the performances of the young cast. The film is a must-watch for anyone who enjoys coming-of-age dramas.

Recess Nothing But Big Fun on the Big Screen

By Retna Maliki Rukun

The new Disney film, Reckless, is a wild ride that follows a group of young kids as they navigate their way through the school. The school has a strict no-smoking policy, but the students continue to smoke despite the rule. The school administration is trying to find ways to enforce the rule, but the students are not deterred.

The film follows the lives of four students: a jock, a cheerleader, a burnout, and a straight-A student. The jock is trying to get into college, the cheerleader is trying to make it to the next level, the burnout is trying to avoid getting kicked out, and the straight-A student is dealing with the pressure of maintaining her grades. The film explores the struggles of each character as they face their own challenges.

The film is directed by a first-time director, and it is a unique take on the classic high school movie. The film has received mixed reviews, with some critics saying it is too predictable, while others praise the performances of the young cast. The film is a must-watch for anyone who enjoys coming-of-age dramas.
To print or not to print: Ad kindles outrage on college campuses

By ANDREW S. HOLBROOK

Harvard and Civil War

(26x1014) slavery" and claims "reparations to si ters himself conservative. His Censity of California-Berkeley Daily hundred ads in one week, a num­ claiming an apology right then and there.

Black History Month, the Univermorn ing, their newspaper, 100, had the ad. They were shod only joined by 40 of the Study of Popular Culture,

To print or not to print: Ad kindles outrage on college campuses

A newspaper has a responsi­bility to

African Americans today suffer eco­ its "ten reasons" in a slightly

... in the form of welfare

The content, no matter what we

THE lin,LT O P

Advertisemenr last Wednesday, abour immediate convened a meeting at

The same ad was seen in about 10 day night, offering to consider an

It dismisses parallels to Holocaust

בי Ahmed K. Bouchekk

Harvard and Civil War

("What it reflects is in an interview Tuesday, Horowitz

"The content, no matter what we

"I, respect, we would have apol­

It has dismissed the congress's time of welfare

around the Nation

around the Nation

around the Nation

around the Nation

around the Nation

around the Nation

around the Nation

around the Nation

around the Nation

around the Nation

around the Nation

around the Nation

around the Nation

around the Nation

around the Nation

around the Nation

around the Nation

around the Nation

around the Nation

around the Nation

around the Nation

around the Nation

around the Nation

around the Nation

around the Nation

around the Nation

around the Nation

around the Nation

around the Nation

around the Nation

around the Nation

around the Nation
ADVISORS AWARENESS WEEK

MARCH 5TH – 9TH
A WEEK OF PROGRAMMING SHOWCASING ADVISORS AND THE INFORMATION THEY PROVIDE

Departmental Forums
MAJOR / MINOR FORUMS, conducted by division
NATURAL SCIENCE ~ MONDAY
Biology, Chemistry, Physics, Mathematics, etc.
SOCIAL SCIENCE ~ TUESDAY
Sociology / Anthropology, Political Science, etc.
HUMANITIES ~ WEDNESDAY
Modern Languages / Lit., Classics, etc.
FINE ARTS ~ THURSDAY
Art, Theatre, & Music

Educational Advisory Center (EAC) Advising
UNDECIDED MAJORS ADVISING ~ WEDNESDAY FROM 11AM - 2PM
GENERAL EDUCATION REQUIREMENTS FORUM ~ FRIDAY AT 12PM
EAC will be available to all students on a walk in basis during this entire week from 9am - 4pm.

Pre-Professional Advising
ADVISING WILL BE AVAILABLE ON A WALK-IN BASIS ON TUESDAY & WEDNESDAY FROM 10AM - 2PM IN RM. 516 OF THE HOWARD CENTER.
Available to all students who aspire to attend graduate school or enter a variety of professional programs.

THERE WILL BE A SPECIAL NEWSLETTER PUBLISHED FOR THIS WEEK, THAT WILL PROVIDE SPECIFIC INFORMATION ON THE TIMES OF THE DEPARTMENTAL FORUMS, HOURS THAT FACULTY ADVISORS WILL BE AVAILABLE, AND OTHER HELPFUL INFORMATION.

THINGS YOU CAN DO THIS WEEK:
DECLARE A MAJOR
COMPLETE YOUR GRADUATION SCHEME WITH EAC
INQUIRE ABOUT PROFESSIONAL AND GRADUATE SCHOOL REQUIREMENTS AND DEADLINES
HAVE YOUR QUESTIONS ANSWERED IN REFERENCE TO WITHDRAWALS, INCOMPLETES, REPEATS, AND GRADUATING WITH HONOR’S STATUS
SEE YOUR FACULTY ADVISOR
MEET YOUR DEAN AT THE TOWN HALL

SPONSORED BY THE DIVISIONAL COMMITTEES OF THE COLLEGE OF ARTS & SCIENCES STUDENT COUNCIL
ADVISORS AWARENESS WEEK

MARCH 5TH - 9TH
A WEEK OF PROGRAMMING SHOWCASING ADVISORS AND THE INFORMATION THEY PROVIDE

Departmental Forums

MAJOR / MINOR FORUMS, conducted by division

NATURAL SCIENCE ~ MONDAY
Biology, Chemistry, Physics, Mathematics, etc.

SOCIAL SCIENCE ~ TUESDAY
Sociology / Anthropology, Political Science, etc.

HUMANITIES ~ WEDNESDAY
Modern Languages / Lit., Classics, etc.

FINE ARTS ~ THURSDAY
Art, Theatre, & Music

Educational Advisory Center (EAC) Advising

UNDECIDED MAJORS ADVISING ~ WEDNESDAY FROM 11AM - 2PM

GENERAL EDUCATION REQUIREMENTS FORUM ~ FRIDAY AT 12PM

EAC will be available to all students on a walk-in basis during this entire week from 9am - 4pm.

Pre-Professional Advising

ADVISING WILL BE AVAILABLE ON A WALK-IN BASIS ON TUESDAY & WEDNESDAY FROM 10AM - 2PM IN RM. 516 OF THE HOWARD CENTER.
Available to all students who aspire to attend graduate school or enter a variety of professional programs.

THERE WILL BE A SPECIAL NEWSLETTER PUBLISHED FOR THIS WEEK, THAT WILL PROVIDE SPECIFIC INFORMATION ON THE TIMES OF THE DEPARTMENTAL FORUMS, HOURS THAT FACULTY ADVISORS WILL BE AVAILABLE, AND OTHER HELPFUL INFORMATION.

THINGS YOU CAN DO THIS WEEK:

DECLARE A MAJOR
INQUIRE ABOUT PROFESSIONAL AND GRADUATE SCHOOL REQUIREMENTS AND DEADLINES
HAVE YOUR QUESTIONS ANSWERED IN REFERENCE TO WITHDRAWALS, INCOMPLETES, REPEATS, AND GRADUATING WITH HONOR’S STATUS
SEE YOUR FACULTY ADVISOR
MEET YOUR DEAN AT THE TOWN HALL

SPONSORED BY THE DIVISIONAL COMMITTEES OF THE COLLEGE OF ARTS & SCIENCES STUDENT COUNCIL
All HILLTOPS are due, paid in full, the Monday before publication date.
Announcements by campus organizations for meetings, seminars or nonprofit are charged $10 for the first 20 words and $1 for every additional five words. I school organizations are charged $10 for first 20 words and $2 for every 5 words thereafter.

personal ads are $2 for the first 10 words and $1 for every additional 5 words.

ANNOUNCEMENT
Health Careers Admission Symposium
Center for Admission Directions from Medical and Dental Offices,
When: March 14, 2001
Time: 9:00 am - 2:00 pm
Where: Howard Center, 2nd floor
Come to the Center for Professional Education to register to attend 10:00 at the Howard Center.
Call (202) 240-1243
For more information.

CANCELLATION FOR A VENDORS' DRIVE
Every Friday 6:00 pm - 8:00 pm
Get up to 20% of your items for free tickets
For Used and Unwanted Textbooks
Every Thursday 6:00 pm - 8:00 pm
Get tickets for free tickets
Guaranteed
Attention Spokesmen of African Languages
Subjects are taught to participants in a bi-lingual description of an oral-auditory material. The language is spoken by the 2 million people of African languages spoken. Subjects will be paid $15/hr. for 1-2 hours. Please contact Dr. Paul Forrester at 202-541-4711 or send an email to bilingual@howard.edu
This includes the language and region where it is spoken, and your name, phone number, and time you may be reached.

JUST BE A MANN ABOUT IT!
March 18, 2001
6:00 pm in Blackbum Center
Sign Up Today!