My dear Dr. Tate,

I have just returned from a wonderful vacation of eleven days up in the mountains of Northern Luzon at Baguio, summer capital of the Philippines. I also spent part of my vacation at Bengang, an ocean resort which is located near Lingayen Gulf, scene of U.S.P. invasion of Luzon. I enjoyed myself immensely and acquired a wonderful sun tan while swimming and aquaplaning (learning) in the crystal blue and calm Pacific.

Now in the unit my duties are as Battalion Scribe which does not require too much work, especially physically. (Smile)

I have received all the issues of the "Prometheus Paper" up until now and eagerly looking forward for the next issue.

I am enclosing $5.00 money order for myself. I am hoping to be on the campus in late May. Probably useful thinking on my part. (Smile)

Respectfully,
David
