Dear Anne -

I am so much nearer to you than I have been for years but I must scuttle a line to you. I was called out from my Calif. home by a dear reunion that I could not say "no" to, over 500, so while I was comparatively near, ^{near} dear ^{to see} my niece who is married & living ^{near} here, I don't ^{feel} able to get any further east.
I am resting a few days before leaving my West coast tent.

I have enjoyed so much your account of your European experiences that I must thank you for them. You don't don't know how proud I feel of you, &
an' you seen your picture in the "Cress" Send me a line I shall be here about 2 weeks
yours as ever Anne H. Jones
