Dear Miss Tate,

Your surprising letter came the other day, and we are eagerly awaiting the arrival of the book. Although all of the boys that left Howard in the initial group are not with us, there are a few of us still "plugging" it out. We have come quite a way since we left Howard, and often wish we were still there.

In behalf of the A. S. I. boys in the 365th Infantry, I thank you for your kind remembrance of us. May you and the faculty of H. U. have a very Merry Christmas & Happy New Year.

Sincerely,
C. Roger Dawson
