Dear Sue: Your love to Bessie, for I think she is with you + a father's welcome to this side of the ocean. I was up by 5-30. made a lively fire on the hearth-stone after the practice of my youth. When I had washed & dressed, brot. in some wood + done the other preliminary chores, "Aunt Helen" was up + ready for the work of the day. She helped me pack my things in good, unwrinkled order + stow them away in the telescopic satchel. Half past 6 having now arrived, May is called + I write you this morning epistle. We are to catch the P.S. May appear bright, rested & happy & all hear the "breakfast hour" May says; "Do send my love to 'Aunt Bessie'" Tell her how grateful I am for her good letter re. & Aunt Helen lets in sweet messages to Bessie & all. Her "good-bye" is splendid, if he does know "— morning-down-train at nine o'clock, but must ride two miles. Harry's letter & the telegrams reached me last night at supper, ^{when} am satisfied that he took in the whole situation so well. I did mean to be with them in Miss Emeline's last hour & certainly be present at the funeral, but as Gen. Grant used to say: "it was not to be!" I am glad she is at rest. All her prolonged pain & suffering ~~is over~~, - former. I do wish mamma's foot would get better - the foot is always worrisome when it gets to going in wrong ways. I caught 12 Bass yesterday forenoon. Two boys of 10 & 12 rowed for me & put on my bait. Paul Bachelier & Jeffers Wood - much love to Elizabeth, Grandma & the rest. will be at Leeds, D.V. before noon today

Dear Sue:

yesterday Gen. Wheeler with two fine horses drove me to the top of the highest point of Mission^s Ridge, north end - where we fought 44 years ago - A small park has been set apart & monuments & tablets put there to honor Sherman & Sherburne (Union) & Confederate ^{contenders.} At the foot of the slope I found my name with Bushbeek's - Then my friends McAlvorn & Taft fell in action - It was a sadly interesting trip - 55000 folks seen now [a big city + a burgom] Almost as warm as summer & charming weather. Last night his Montagnes game. Howard a dinner & a chance to see some of his special friends.

The ^{menagerie} room is palatial & the dresses of the young ladies (all new young last night) beautified beyond description. Breakfast is ready & so late to all.

His Wheeler says mamma (Mrs Howard) is simply wonderful.
I go to Toronto Monday

Dec 9 / 1908

Dear one: I expected to leave last night for Newark but, it was this way. I went to the "Fort Pitt Hotel" on my arrival Monday night.
Then telephoned to Dr Levy (pronounced Leeve) the Rabbi brother-in-law of my friend Weinstock of Sacramento Cal.
Dr Levy was away, but his Sec'y Abas. H. Joseph came over the six miles of city to see me. This was after I was undressed. Yesterday I rec'd.
~~the~~ reporters of several Evening and the (2) family is nice. Dr Leary is a superb scholar - took me more about the Jewett family - oh - I had some 700 all years to hear me & they all appeared happy to hear my stories of Lincoln - It took 1 1/2 hours. Mr Heintz & some friends were present. I slept here - Today I spoke to his people - 15 or 20 "Managers" from all parts of our country - and to his 600 or 800 workers - an "extra humour" This was at the noon hour. I lunched with him & his - and went over to Berne's

Museum (4) With an auto-mobile - our Patterson to speed over the ground.
and after a short visit to the old Ft. Pitt" & came here again to wait for the evening train. Mr. Bennett gives me a royal hospitality his daughter - in law is just like you, but has but one baby & not two - same age as yours - lots of love to Olga, Mother Harry & all
Sincerely yr. father O. Pitt

Mr. Bennett's youngest sister helps him & is much - lunched ⁽²⁾ with Mr. Yeager; then went with him to Sainty establishment. The Sainty people had tried to find me & began to come here. Mr. King being soon came to me & said:

"I am going to the lecture near my home - you will return with me & stay the night."

I quickly saw, that was the best thing to do. I dined with Dr. & Mrs. Leay & the two daughters & Mr. Joseph. The youngest girl (Say 14 yrs.) said Grace. Mrs. Leay is a charming little woman
