ARTHUR CHRISTOPHER, JR. PAPERS
Collection 15-1 to 15-68

Prepared & Revised by:
Karen L. Jefferson
December 1980

Scope Note

The Arthur Christopher, Jr. Papers were donated by his wife Beatrice, in three installments during August 1968 and January 1972. The papers total 17 linear feet and span the period 1933 to 1967. The periodicals and books received with these papers were transferred to the Moorland-Spingarn Research Center's Library Division.

Arthur Christopher, Jr. was an attorney, with license to practice law in the courts of Florida, Ohio, District of Columbia, the U.S. Court of Appeals, and the U.S. Supreme Court. Although he had a private practice, this collection does not reflect those activities. Rather, this collection reflects his career as a civil servant and a community activist.

Christopher was employed at the National Labor Relations Board from 1946-1967. During this time he held positions of legal assistant, solicitor, hearing examiner, and trial examiner. The collection contains a significant amount of files related to NLRB including personnel files, guidelines, procedures, legal briefs, memoranda, committee work, conference materials and NLRB Union activities. There are also a number of files related to Christopher's employment in the District of Columbia court system.

The collection has a large amount of materials reflective of Christopher's affiliation with civic organizations. He was very active in parent-teacher associations participating in the Taft Junior High School, and the McKinley High School PTAs. He worked vigorously with the D.C. Congress of Parents and Teachers, particularly in the area of budget appropriations. He was also an active member of national parent teacher associations.

Other civic organizations that Christopher was involved with included, the Southeast Neighborhood House, Health and Welfare Council, Social Hygiene Society, and the NAACP.

Arthur Christopher, Jr.'s participation extended to his community as well as his college alma mater. Some of the organizations included in the collection are the Florida Club, the Brookland Area Coordinating Council, Brookland-Michigan Park Planning Committee, the Howard University Law School Alumni Scholarship Fund Drive and the Washington Area Campaign Alumni Centennial Fund.

Christopher was also very involved with professional law associations. Among the organizations he participated in were, the National Lawyers Guild, Federal Bar Association, Bar Association of D.C. and the Washington Bar Association. The collection includes biographic materials about Arthur Christopher, Jr. including resumes, school records, news articles, photographs, certificates and awards. There is also a small amount of materials related to his immediate family.

Outstanding among the family papers are materials related to the death of Arthur's youngest brother, 2nd. Lt. Curtis W. Christopher. Lt. Christopher died in Korea in 1951 during combat, and was posthumously awarded the Silver Star Medal.
