CLASS SONG

The years we spent together here,
The happy children of kind fate,
Will ever, always, be to us most dear,
Oh, dear school-friends, oh, fond class-mates.

And it is with an aching heart,
We see the last hour drawing nigh,
Too soon the class of nineteen eight must part
And say good-bye.

O memories of days long past,
That always in our hearts will dwell,
It is with saddened hearts that now at last
We say farewell, schoolmates, we say farewell.
