Mr. W. H. Conner.
1935 / 11th Street
Washington, D.C.

Dear Sir:

I received your letter this morning & noted its contents carefully.

My cut has not been returned to me, but I have sent word to Mr. Craig, asking him to send it to you immediately & will you kindly let me know if you receive it? Along with letter I am sending my latest photograph as I have no small cut at present.

Indeed, I

cannot tell how grateful I am to Mr. White I hope I may receive word when he comes so I may be sure to be home & thank him

You have asked Mr. Craig to send you a N.Y. circular along with the cut, as I have none.

I wish my name to appear: Señora C. Maria Rovello.

My home is Tawlucker, Rhode Island
You did not state what part you wished me to sing, so I take it for granted that I am to study the Sobremno Solos.

Nothing I have mentioned all important facts I remain Very Truly, Yours

L. Maria Rovello.

Both letters received. 127 Woodlawn Ave
