Dear Comrade,

I received two letters written by Mrs. Scott, one yesterday asking for $3. for expressage + another today saying it was 78 cents. I had requested Morris to send the $3. + find he has. The balance you can credit on our next appropriation to your care.

I am mailing copy of Jersey City Globe edited by Rev. Mark Harris. Siterary sent telegram of thanks. Chaplain Harris remembered you in his prayer. We had a rousing meeting at Siterary. In our business correspondence I think it wise for you to sign letters you have written to save confusion. Ring is rejoiced you will try treatment. He has sent for the directions.

How do you feel about the Aid Society providing a window canopy awning so you can get wholly outside air when you are in bed? It enables you to sleep at window without draft. We can probably get it cheaper + raise the amount.
Eat hearty + keep rested.

Yours for freedom,

Wm. Monroe Trotter.
