John W. Davis Papers
Collection 168-1 to 168-61

Prepared by
Robin Van Fleet
August 1994

SCOPE NOTE

The papers of John Warren Davis (1888-1980), educator, administrator, scientist, author, civil rights activist and international representative, document his personal life, his career at Morehouse College, as well as at West Virginia State College, his role as U.S. Director Technical Cooperation Administration to Liberia, and his affiliation with the NAACP's Legal Defense & Educational Fund. These papers date from circa 1905 through the 1970's, and were acquired by Moorland-Spingarn in 1983 from Ethel Davis, wife of John W. Davis. There are approximately 28 linear feet or 18 cubic feet of materials.

Correspondence, photographs, speeches and writings by John W. Davis are featured in these papers. Writings include topics such as Africa, Negro education and religion. The papers also contain research Davis conducted for a "Talent Study" (a roster of Negro talent) concerning education and professions of Negroes, undertaken by Davis through the Phelps-Stokes Fund and the National Technical Association. Mr. Davis's role in Liberia is also documented with a small group of files. Materials from organizations with which Mr. Davis was associated are included, such as West Virginia State College,

NAACP, Prince Hall Masons, National Science Foundation, African-American Institute and UNESCO.
