William L. Dawson Papers
Collection 188-1 to 188-9

Prepared by:
Katie Salzmann
March 1998

Scope Note

The papers of Illinois Congressman, William L. Dawson (1886-1970), span the period of 1942-1972 and measure approximately 5 linear feet. Correspondence and legislative material highlighting Dawson's political career form the bulk of the collection. The correspondence is arranged alphabetically and includes such notables as Chester Bowles, Ralph J. Bunche, William Henry Huff, Ira Latimer, F.D. Patterson, and Walter White.

The legislative material is arranged chronologically by session of Congress. This series includes civil rights bills, resolutions, motions, and reports supported by Congressman Dawson.

Some of the folders include correspondence reflecting Dawson and his colleagues' opinions of the various bills. Dawson was particularly supportive of legislation concerning anti-lynching, anti-poll tax, and fair employment.

Personal papers include brief biographical sketches of Dawson, material from his retirement and funeral, and campaign flyers; both pro- and anti-Dawson. There is additional campaign material among the oversized items. The collection contains a few photographs, including Dawson with Presidents Truman, Kennedy, and Johnson.

There is a substantial amount of material documenting the role that Christine R. Davis, his congressional secretary and later chief of staff of the House Government Operations Committee, played in Washington and Chicago politics.

Scope Note continued

Correspondence, writings, and organizational material document her activities. Davis corresponded with such notables as Mary McLeod Bethune, Jacqueline and John F. Kennedy, Adam Clayton Powell, and Arthur Spingarn. Christine Davis donated the Dawson papers to the Moorland-Spingarn Research Center in 1980.

Series Description

Series A
Box 188-1

Personal Papers

Biographical sketches, material from Dawson's retirement and funeral, and campaign material document Congressman Dawson's achievements in politics. Of note are the pro- and anti-Dawson campaign flyers and "Mississippians For Eisenhower," a paid political advertisement for the Eisenhower-Nixon ticket that includes excerpts from Truman's pro-civil rights Harlem speech.

Series B
Box 188-1
to Box 188-3

Correspondence

Arranged alphabetically, this series includes correspondence from such notables as Chester Bowles, Ralph J. Bunche, William Henry Huff, Ira Latimer, F.D. Patterson, and Walter White. Included is a series of correspondence regarding the establishment of a George Washington Carver Stamp. Included are letters of support from Crystal Bird Fauset, Henry Ford, William Hastie, Watkins Hunt, Mordecai Johnson, Louis R. Mehlinger, F.D. Patterson, Frank Walker.

Series C
Box 188-3

Writings by Dawson

This series is comprised of four speeches. Two were published in the proceedings of the Democratic National Conventions of 1952 and 1960, one in the Congressional Record. All were delivered before Congress.

Series D
Box 188-3

Writings about Dawson

Newspaper and magazine articles and radio transcripts highlight Dawson's political career. Of interest is a 1946 radio script "Democracy U.S.A. (Congressman William L. Dawson)" that dramatizes Dawson's first speech before Congress.
