

Howard University

Digital Howard @ Howard University

Correspondence

Personal Papers

October 2017

Freeman, F.C.

Follow this and additional works at: https://dh.howard.edu/ajc_corres

Recommended Citation

"Freeman, F.C." (2017). Correspondence. 58.
https://dh.howard.edu/ajc_corres/58

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Personal Papers at Digital Howard @ Howard University. It has been accepted for inclusion in Correspondence by an authorized administrator of Digital Howard @ Howard University. For more information, please contact digitalservices@howard.edu.

June 11, 1950.

Mrs. Anna J. Cooper.

Esteemed Classmate; From your card I suspect you are focussed on the complete amalgamation of the Human Tribes into one great Human Race.

That, too, is my hope and expectation. Am too old to look forward to it; but can think to it.

I believe that we may find a good degree of tolerance a useful tool to help bring about absence of its need.

A remarkable letter was recently sent by Sen. Benton to the Editor of the Post. Written by a young Jew and published June 1. If you have not already done so I hope you will find it and read it; right along our line.

Some 40 or more years ago, when I began to think I could think, did so and, as did so many descendents of of the old Puritans, became a Unitarian.

(By the way, I'm surprized that the Pastor, Dr. Davies, of the Washington Unitarian was invited to take part in the Religious Conference of the YMCA & YWCA in Feb. at Oberlin. See March No. of the Alumni Mag. page 12.)

Thus more and more become more liberal-tolerant.

The value of ones religious faith or belief depends on its giving him comfort, courage and strenght etc. when he feels the needs. Whatever your belief is I do or say anything to weaken. Though I cant believe it it may be better for you. That is my attitude and it is far more ~~than~~ important than my belief. It may be wrong. I would propagate my attitude but not my belief.

Have just re-read Pierre van Passeen's late book, "Why Jesus Died!" Wish everybody could read it. Could criticize some of his methods, but it is near the trut as we can yet come. Very devout, well worth considerati Wish we were not too old to have an O.C.-84 Club to swap experiences. There are now but we 4 here and W. I Wells and Cook left of Classical 84. Very few of Lit. Miss Matter, who got another degree in -89, exchanges letters with me occasionally. Write again.

FL Freeman