Washington D.C.

Feb. 2nd 1841

My dear Sir:

The first time I met a wounded enemy face to face I forgot his offence and my heart
softened towards him - and no other suffering soldier could be
to me an object of indifference.

I hope your coffers will be full to enable you to furnish abundant relief to the sick &
wounded and their needy families

Yours sincerely
O. J. Howard
Brig. Gen. U.S.A.
