Farewell, Alma Mater

Night bids adieu to morning fair,
The summer slowly ebbs away;
Fond lovers linger in despair,
And children's hearts no more
are gay;
Glad youth departs ne'er to return,
Sweet flowers droop and lose their bloom,
And dimly fade the truths we learn,
As slowly shrinks the monthly moon;
Downs sadly fall the golden leaves,
And southward all the songbirds
dart;
So leaving Alma Mater grieves
Each Senior's loyal throbbing heart.
So then, '15 must end its course,
As fits the perfect plan of God;
Howard farewell! Ah, perforce!
Farewell to thy beloved sod!
