JAMES STANLEY DURKEE PAPERS Collection 32-1 to 32-12

Prepared & Revised by: Greta S. Wilson June 1980

MANUSCRIPT DIVISION

Scope Note

The papers of James Stanley Durkee span the years 1831-1938 and are contained in eight boxes measuring approximately six linear feet along with three individually wrapped oversized materials. Among these papers are land indentures of his father Joseph James Durkee, and a copy of the will of Susan Durkee, his mother. Also included are a scrapbook of clippings containing a comprehensive genealogy of the Durkee family from 1630- 1898, a diary for the year 1879 kept by "R.F.D.T sermons, sermon outlines, pastoral prayers, eulogies, manuscripts, letters, postal and greetings cards, a marriage record book and a record of sermons.

In addition, there are photographs, original water colors by S.D. Corning, Russian propaganda posters, newspaper clippings, and the front pages from five Boston newspapers for the period March 14 to July 2 1918.
