HUSA Calls for Visitation Rally
24-Hour Visitation Taken from All Dorms

By Jerry-Ams Hamilton
The Hilltop

Approximately 75 students gathered at the main quad to protest the new 24-hour visitation policy, a change in student affairs regulations."HUSA organized this educational rally to shed light on the two issues Howard students were facing during the first week of school," Williams said.

"Students were coming to MSA last week to voice their concerns and we felt it was necessary to have a generated meeting so we could inform the student body of the changes." According to the HUSA administration, there was a miscommunication between the Process and the Dean of the Schools and Colleges. The confusion later trickled down to the students.

"Visits may still overstep students into classes on a new rule," Williams added. "Students were never coming to MSA to voice their concerns and we felt it was necessary to have a generated meeting so we could inform the student body of the changes." According to the HUSA administration, there was a miscommunication between the Process and the Dean of the Schools and Colleges.

Howard Contracts New Shuttle Service

By Anie Mclain
The Hilltop

The fall of 2006 is not the only new addition to the Howard University family. This school year, Howard University has contracted with National Limousine Service, Inc. to continue providing shuttle service to students and the Mid-Atlantic region for the company that has been doing business in the area for over twenty years.

The new company has a long history with other institutions, such as the Washington Hospital Center, George Washington University, and George Washington University.

According to press release from the Office of Auxiliary Services, the company has historically received awards and accolades for its door-to-door, door-to-door service, including a 99.5% customer satisfaction rating.

The release also states, "Through our affiliation with National Limousine Service, Inc., we will continue to offer students the highest level of service possible." National Limousine Service, Inc. is a charter company that provides door-to-door, door-to-door service to students and the Mid-Atlantic region for the company that has been doing business in the area for over twenty years.

TRAVELING POET

A Morgan State student entertains seekers with his conscious lyrics on the Yard.

Photo by Chanda Anderson

Howard Law Student Wins Title of Miss Washington D.C.
Miss D.C. Spends Four Days a Week Preparing for Miss America Pageant

By Harold Elscherberger
The Hilltop

Howard University law student, Safiya Hussein, 22, won the Miss D.C. America pageant this summer. Langford will go on to compete in the Miss America Pageant this month.

"Killer knows a lot about pageants," Langford said. "In the discussion, Langford outlined the pageant's formality and said, "I am drilled for the pageant. I am drilled for the pageant."

Killer's prior experience has included working as an interview coach, "I am drilled for the pageant. I am drilled for the pageant." She even made the proposal of an interview to the pageant where she will represent the district.

The preparation process is as intense," Langford said. "I have been preparing since this past May to compete in the Miss America Pageant where I will represent the district."

"The reduction comes after the University appealed the original penalty, believing it was too severe," Langford said. "I am drilled for the pageant. I am drilled for the pageant." She even made the proposal of an interview to the pageant where she will represent the district.

Howard Law Student Wins Title of Miss Washington D.C.
Miss D.C. Spends Four Days a Week Preparing for Miss America Pageant

By Harold Elscherberger
The Hilltop

Howard University law student, Safiya Hussein, 22, won the Miss D.C. America pageant this summer. Langford will go on to compete in the Miss America Pageant this month.

"Killer knows a lot about pageants," Langford said. "In the discussion, Langford outlined the pageant's formality and said, "I am drilled for the pageant. I am drilled for the pageant."

Killer's prior experience has included working as an interview coach, "I am drilled for the pageant. I am drilled for the pageant." She even made the proposal of an interview to the pageant where she will represent the district.

The preparation process is as intense," Langford said. "I have been preparing since this past May to compete in the Miss America Pageant where I will represent the district."

"The reduction comes after the University appealed the original penalty, believing it was too severe," Langford said. "I am drilled for the pageant. I am drilled for the pageant." She even made the proposal of an interview to the pageant where she will represent the district.

Howard Law Student Wins Title of Miss Washington D.C.
Miss D.C. Spends Four Days a Week Preparing for Miss America Pageant

By Harold Elscherberger
The Hilltop

Howard University law student, Safiya Hussein, 22, won the Miss D.C. America pageant this summer. Langford will go on to compete in the Miss America Pageant this month.

"Killer knows a lot about pageants," Langford said. "In the discussion, Langford outlined the pageant's formality and said, "I am drilled for the pageant. I am drilled for the pageant."

Killer's prior experience has included working as an interview coach, "I am drilled for the pageant. I am drilled for the pageant." She even made the proposal of an interview to the pageant where she will represent the district.

The preparation process is as intense," Langford said. "I have been preparing since this past May to compete in the Miss America Pageant where I will represent the district."

"The reduction comes after the University appealed the original penalty, believing it was too severe," Langford said. "I am drilled for the pageant. I am drilled for the pageant." She even made the proposal of an interview to the pageant where she will represent the district.

Howard Law Student Wins Title of Miss Washington D.C.
Miss D.C. Spends Four Days a Week Preparing for Miss America Pageant

By Harold Elscherberger
The Hilltop

Howard University law student, Safiya Hussein, 22, won the Miss D.C. America pageant this summer. Langford will go on to compete in the Miss America Pageant this month.

"Killer knows a lot about pageants," Langford said. "In the discussion, Langford outlined the pageant's formality and said, "I am drilled for the pageant. I am drilled for the pageant."

Killer's prior experience has included working as an interview coach, "I am drilled for the pageant. I am drilled for the pageant." She even made the proposal of an interview to the pageant where she will represent the district.

The preparation process is as intense," Langford said. "I have been preparing since this past May to compete in the Miss America Pageant where I will represent the district."

"The reduction comes after the University appealed the original penalty, believing it was too severe," Langford said. "I am drilled for the pageant. I am drilled for the pageant." She even made the proposal of an interview to the pageant where she will represent the district.

Howard Law Student Wins Title of Miss Washington D.C.
Miss D.C. Spends Four Days a Week Preparing for Miss America Pageant

By Harold Elscherberger
The Hilltop

Howard University law student, Safiya Hussein, 22, won the Miss D.C. America pageant this summer. Langford will go on to compete in the Miss America Pageant this month.

"Killer knows a lot about pageants," Langford said. "In the discussion, Langford outlined the pageant's formality and said, "I am drilled for the pageant. I am drilled for the pageant."

Killer's prior experience has included working as an interview coach, "I am drilled for the pageant. I am drilled for the pageant." She even made the proposal of an interview to the pageant where she will represent the district.

The preparation process is as intense," Langford said. "I have been preparing since this past May to compete in the Miss America Pageant where I will represent the district."

"The reduction comes after the University appealed the original penalty, believing it was too severe," Langford said. "I am drilled for the pageant. I am drilled for the pageant." She even made the proposal of an interview to the pageant where she will represent the district.

Howard Law Student Wins Title of Miss Washington D.C.
Miss D.C. Spends Four Days a Week Preparing for Miss America Pageant

By Harold Elscherberger
The Hilltop

Howard University law student, Safiya Hussein, 22, won the Miss D.C. America pageant this summer. Langford will go on to compete in the Miss America Pageant this month.

"Killer knows a lot about pageants," Langford said. "In the discussion, Langford outlined the pageant's formality and said, "I am drilled for the pageant. I am drilled for the pageant."

Killer's prior experience has included working as an interview coach, "I am drilled for the pageant. I am drilled for the pageant." She even made the proposal of an interview to the pageant where she will represent the district.

The preparation process is as intense," Langford said. "I have been preparing since this past May to compete in the Miss America Pageant where I will represent the district."

"The reduction comes after the University appealed the original penalty, believing it was too severe," Langford said. "I am drilled for the pageant. I am drilled for the pageant." She even made the proposal of an interview to the pageant where she will represent the district.

Howard Law Student Wins Title of Miss Washington D.C.
Miss D.C. Spends Four Days a Week Preparing for Miss America Pageant

By Harold Elscherberger
The Hilltop

Howard University law student, Safiya Hussein, 22, won the Miss D.C. America pageant this summer. Langford will go on to compete in the Miss America Pageant this month.

"Killer knows a lot about pageants," Langford said. "In the discussion, Langford outlined the pageant's formality and said, "I am drilled for the pageant. I am drilled for the pageant."

Killer's prior experience has included working as an interview coach, "I am drilled for the pageant. I am drilled for the pageant." She even made the proposal of an interview to the pageant where she will represent the district.

The preparation process is as intense," Langford said. "I have been preparing since this past May to compete in the Miss America Pageant where I will represent the district."

"The reduction comes after the University appealed the original penalty, believing it was too severe," Langford said. "I am drilled for the pageant. I am drilled for the pageant." She even made the proposal of an interview to the pageant where she will represent the district.

Howard Law Student Wins Title of Miss Washington D.C.
Miss D.C. Spends Four Days a Week Preparing for Miss America Pageant

By Harold Elscherberger
The Hilltop

Howard University law student, Safiya Hussein, 22, won the Miss D.C. America pageant this summer. Langford will go on to compete in the Miss America Pageant this month.

"Killer knows a lot about pageants," Langford said. "In the discussion, Langford outlined the pageant's formality and said, "I am drilled for the pageant. I am drilled for the pageant."

Killer's prior experience has included working as an interview coach, "I am drilled for the pageant. I am drilled for the pageant." She even made the proposal of an interview to the pageant where she will represent the district.

The preparation process is as intense," Langford said. "I have been preparing since this past May to compete in the Miss America Pageant where I will represent the district."

"The reduction comes after the University appealed the original penalty, believing it was too severe," Langford said. "I am drilled for the pageant. I am drilled for the pageant." She even made the proposal of an interview to the pageant where she will represent the district.
By Kerry-Ann Hamilton

The HUB

It was a summer day in 1998 when Claudia White-Edwards attended Howard University when Claudia White then five years old said ci

"I want to become a doctor and have a 3.0 cumulative grade point average, which totals 30 for the other campuses there is

\"It opens up your educational opportunities to learn about other cultures, languages, and people. Studying abroad is a life-changing experience. One goes to visit the world different,\" says Myers.

\"I'm really excited about going to Spain, I'm a Spanish minor and this will help me in terms of my therapy,\" White said.

\"I'm very interested in the international community and assures students their safety and well being is a number one priority.\"

\"I have traveled to our study abroad sites in England, Spain, Italy, France, and South Africa and for the other campuses there is

More than Just a College Bookstore

Starbucks Opens Soon at the HUB

By Ruth Tisdale

The Howard University Bookstore this summer decided to expand its store of deli and created a new partnership with Starbucks and Magic Johnson Development for.

The new store will bring Starbucks to campus.

The HUB is one of the largest Howard University bookstores in the nation, and Starbucks will be the first coffee shop to open on campus in the fall.

The coffee shop will be

open from

7am to 9pm.

The new store will also offer a variety of specialty drinks, including lattes, cappuccinos, and hot chocolate.

The store will be located in the middle of the HUB, between the student center and the food court.

The menu will include a variety of hot and cold drinks, as well as

pastries and light snacks.

The store will

be

open from

7am to 9pm.

The new store will also offer a variety of specialty drinks, including lattes, cappuccinos, and hot chocolate.

It will also offer a variety of hot and cold drinks, as well as

pastries and light snacks.

The store will

be

open from

7am to 9pm.

The new store will also offer a variety of specialty drinks, including lattes, cappuccinos, and hot chocolate.

It will also offer a variety of hot and cold drinks, as well as

pastries and light snacks.

The store will

be

open from

7am to 9pm.

The new store will also offer a variety of specialty drinks, including lattes, cappuccinos, and hot chocolate.

It will also offer a variety of hot and cold drinks, as well as

pastries and light snacks.

The store will

be

open from

7am to 9pm.

The new store will also offer a variety of specialty drinks, including lattes, cappuccinos, and hot chocolate.

It will also offer a variety of hot and cold drinks, as well as

pastries and light snacks.

The store will

be

open from

7am to 9pm.

The new store will also offer a variety of specialty drinks, including lattes, cappuccinos, and hot chocolate.

It will also offer a variety of hot and cold drinks, as well as

pastries and light snacks.

The store will

be

open from

7am to 9pm.

The new store will also offer a variety of specialty drinks, including lattes, cappuccinos, and hot chocolate.

It will also offer a variety of hot and cold drinks, as well as

pastries and light snacks.

The store will

be

open from

7am to 9pm.

The new store will also offer a variety of specialty drinks, including lattes, cappuccinos, and hot chocolate.

It will also offer a variety of hot and cold drinks, as well as

pastries and light snacks.

The store will

be

open from

7am to 9pm.

The new store will also offer a variety of specialty drinks, including lattes, cappuccinos, and hot chocolate.

It will also offer a variety of hot and cold drinks, as well as

pastries and light snacks.

The store will

be

open from

7am to 9pm.

The new store will also offer a variety of specialty drinks, including lattes, cappuccinos, and hot chocolate.

It will also offer a variety of hot and cold drinks, as well as

pastries and light snacks.

The store will

be

open from

7am to 9pm.

The new store will also offer a variety of specialty drinks, including lattes, cappuccinos, and hot chocolate.

It will also offer a variety of hot and cold drinks, as well as

pastries and light snacks.

The store will

be

open from

7am to 9pm.

The new store will also offer a variety of specialty drinks, including lattes, cappuccinos, and hot chocolate.

It will also offer a variety of hot and cold drinks, as well as

pastries and light snacks.

The store will

be

open from

7am to 9pm.

The new store will also offer a variety of specialty drinks, including lattes, cappuccinos, and hot chocolate.

It will also offer a variety of hot and cold drinks, as well as

pastries and light snacks.

The store will

be

open from

7am to 9pm.
Marketing the Sept. 11 Attacks is a Disgusting Attempt to Capitalize on One's Loss

By Laura Safran

(U-WIRE) CHICAGO—September 11th is nothing to laugh about, according to Chicago student Edward Gunawan. He was among the students who asked the Daily Trojan why the newspaper was continuing to publish ads and stories on Sept. 11.

"There is no joke or anything," he said. "I've seen all the 11 attacks and it's just too disgusting. We're in college, and there is nothing funny about it."

Gunawan was referring to several ads that appeared in the Sept. 10 issue of the Daily Trojan. The ads were for banks and credit card companies that were promoting Sept. 11-related products and services.

"I think it's really absurd," he said. "There are a lot of people who are still dealing with the aftermath of Sept. 11, and I don't think that it's appropriate to make light of it."

Despite Gunawan's concerns, the ads continued to appear in the Daily Trojan.

"There is no one answer to this," said Bruce Middleton, a professor at the University of Chicago.

"There are some things that are more overt than others. And it's really hard to find ATM out for the largest part of acceptable commercialism."

---

Letters to the Editor

By Edward Gunawan

(Daily Trojan, U. Southern California)

(M-E-R-L) LOU ATES—It’s never been more true than now. Then you order from your bank on Sept. 11. I was surprised to see that the number of lives lost, and the amount of loss and the frequency of loss are so high.

"I still have to check my computer to see if it’s true. It’s really hard to find ATM out of the largest part of acceptable commercialism."

Middleton said that the best way to find and protect your right is to not open an account with any bank.

"There is no one answer to this," he said. "There are some things that are more overt than others. And it's really hard to find ATM out for the largest part of acceptable commercialism."

---

Media Response to Kidnapping Reeks of Exploitation

By Laura Safran

(U-WIRE) CHICAGO—September 11th is nothing to laugh about, according to Chicago student Edward Gunawan. He was among the students who asked the Daily Trojan why the newspaper was continuing to publish ads and stories on Sept. 11.

"There is no joke or anything," he said. "I've seen all the 11 attacks and it's just too disgusting. We're in college, and there is nothing funny about it."

Gunawan was referring to several ads that appeared in the Sept. 10 issue of the Daily Trojan. The ads were for banks and credit card companies that were promoting Sept. 11-related products and services.

"I think it's really absurd," he said. "There are a lot of people who are still dealing with the aftermath of Sept. 11, and I don't think that it's appropriate to make light of it."

Despite Gunawan's concerns, the ads continued to appear in the Daily Trojan.

"There is no one answer to this," said Bruce Middleton, a professor at the University of Chicago.

"There are some things that are more overt than others. And it's really hard to find ATM out of the largest part of acceptable commercialism."

---

Letters to the Editor

By Edward Gunawan

(Daily Trojan, U. Southern California)

(M-E-R-L) LOU ATES—It’s never been more true than now. Then you order from your bank on Sept. 11. I was surprised to see that the number of lives lost, and the amount of loss and the frequency of loss are so high.

"I still have to check my computer to see if it’s true. It’s really hard to find ATM out of the largest part of acceptable commercialism."

Middleton said that the best way to find and protect your right is to not open an account with any bank.

"There is no one answer to this," he said. "There are some things that are more overt than others. And it's really hard to find ATM out for the largest part of acceptable commercialism."

---

Media Response to Kidnapping Reeks of Exploitation

By Laura Safran

(U-WIRE) CHICAGO—September 11th is nothing to laugh about, according to Chicago student Edward Gunawan. He was among the students who asked the Daily Trojan why the newspaper was continuing to publish ads and stories on Sept. 11.

"There is no joke or anything," he said. "I've seen all the 11 attacks and it's just too disgusting. We're in college, and there is nothing funny about it."

Gunawan was referring to several ads that appeared in the Sept. 10 issue of the Daily Trojan. The ads were for banks and credit card companies that were promoting Sept. 11-related products and services.

"I think it's really absurd," he said. "There are a lot of people who are still dealing with the aftermath of Sept. 11, and I don't think that it's appropriate to make light of it."

Despite Gunawan's concerns, the ads continued to appear in the Daily Trojan.

"There is no one answer to this," said Bruce Middleton, a professor at the University of Chicago.

"There are some things that are more overt than others. And it's really hard to find ATM out of the largest part of acceptable commercialism."

---

Letters to the Editor

By Edward Gunawan

(Daily Trojan, U. Southern California)

(M-E-R-L) LOU ATES—It’s never been more true than now. Then you order from your bank on Sept. 11. I was surprised to see that the number of lives lost, and the amount of loss and the frequency of loss are so high.

"I still have to check my computer to see if it’s true. It’s really hard to find ATM out of the largest part of acceptable commercialism."

Middleton said that the best way to find and protect your right is to not open an account with any bank.

"There is no one answer to this," he said. "There are some things that are more overt than others. And it's really hard to find ATM out for the largest part of acceptable commercialism."

---

Media Response to Kidnapping Reeks of Exploitation

By Laura Safran

(U-WIRE) CHICAGO—September 11th is nothing to laugh about, according to Chicago student Edward Gunawan. He was among the students who asked the Daily Trojan why the newspaper was continuing to publish ads and stories on Sept. 11.

"There is no joke or anything," he said. "I've seen all the 11 attacks and it's just too disgusting. We're in college, and there is nothing funny about it."

Gunawan was referring to several ads that appeared in the Sept. 10 issue of the Daily Trojan. The ads were for banks and credit card companies that were promoting Sept. 11-related products and services.

"I think it's really absurd," he said. "There are a lot of people who are still dealing with the aftermath of Sept. 11, and I don't think that it's appropriate to make light of it."

Despite Gunawan's concerns, the ads continued to appear in the Daily Trojan.

"There is no one answer to this," said Bruce Middleton, a professor at the University of Chicago.

"There are some things that are more overt than others. And it's really hard to find ATM out of the largest part of acceptable commercialism."

---

Letters to the Editor

By Edward Gunawan

(Daily Trojan, U. Southern California)
Police: District Police are increasing officers to police the International Monetary Fund protests scheduled for Sept. 27 and 28, which threatens about the Sept. 25 protest in the park. Mayor Fenty has ordered the to process area.

Concerns about the city being able to reimburse offices has also caused concern regarding whether they would be able to reimburse other police departments. Police Chief Charles H. Hargroves has requested 300 officers but has only received approximately 200 to 250 officers.

The University of the District of Columbia to improve student enrollment.

The University of District C. Council are calling on Republicans to improve the city's passing rate. The university's new president, William LeFevre, vows to make changes.

Education: D.C. Mayor Anthony Williams and important members of the D.C. Council are getting ready. The University of the District of Columbia to improve the passing rate of its students. Anthony Williams said he is not surprised that Barry is supporting his opponent.

The American Bar Association found that while the law schools all have a 70 percent passing rate from UDC pass the bar exam, other law schools in the District have a 22 percent average.

UDC vows to make changes. Reverend Willie Wilson in August supporting his opponent for the Democratic primary of the District.

Attorney General John Ashcroft to support their views in renaming the FBI building.

The organization needs more than $100,000 to complete the renovations and upgrades for the theater. The organization has raised more than $65,000 through membership fees, the ANC and Council member Fenty.

The organization needs more than $100,000 to complete the renovations and upgrades for the theater, but so far, the organization has raised more than $65,000 through membership fees, the ANC and Council member Fenty.

The organization needs more than $100,000 to complete the renovations and upgrades for the theater, but so far, the organization has raised more than $65,000 through membership fees, the ANC and Council member Fenty.

The organization needs more than $100,000 to complete the renovations and upgrades for the theater, but so far, the organization has raised more than $65,000 through membership fees, the ANC and Council member Fenty.
District Police Officers Suspended Over E-mail: 19-month Probe Set to Continue

By Chaka Odum
The Hilltop

Twenty-four District police officers have been suspended due to an ongoing internal investigation of the message board violations, according to the police department.

The police have no reason for suspending the department-wide probe began in February 2001.

The police department is finalizing an internal investigation of the message board.

The message board is used by officers to communicate with each other.

The message board is suspended due to an ongoing internal investigation.

The message board is a public forum for officers to communicate with each other.

The message board is suspended due to an ongoing internal investigation.

The message board is a public forum for officers to communicate with each other.

The message board is suspended due to an ongoing internal investigation.

The message board is a public forum for officers to communicate with each other.

The message board is suspended due to an ongoing internal investigation.

The message board is a public forum for officers to communicate with each other.

The message board is suspended due to an ongoing internal investigation.

The message board is a public forum for officers to communicate with each other.

The message board is suspended due to an ongoing internal investigation.

The message board is a public forum for officers to communicate with each other.

The message board is suspended due to an ongoing internal investigation.

The message board is a public forum for officers to communicate with each other.

The message board is suspended due to an ongoing internal investigation.

The message board is a public forum for officers to communicate with each other.

The message board is suspended due to an ongoing internal investigation.

The message board is a public forum for officers to communicate with each other.

The message board is suspended due to an ongoing internal investigation.

The message board is a public forum for officers to communicate with each other.

The message board is suspended due to an ongoing internal investigation.

The message board is a public forum for officers to communicate with each other.

The message board is suspended due to an ongoing internal investigation.

The message board is a public forum for officers to communicate with each other.

The message board is suspended due to an ongoing internal investigation.

The message board is a public forum for officers to communicate with each other.

The message board is suspended due to an ongoing internal investigation.

The message board is a public forum for officers to communicate with each other.

The message board is suspended due to an ongoing internal investigation.

The message board is a public forum for officers to communicate with each other.

The message board is suspended due to an ongoing internal investigation.

The message board is a public forum for officers to communicate with each other.

The message board is suspended due to an ongoing internal investigation.

The message board is a public forum for officers to communicate with each other.

The message board is suspended due to an ongoing internal investigation.

The message board is a public forum for officers to communicate with each other.

The message board is suspended due to an ongoing internal investigation.

The message board is a public forum for officers to communicate with each other.

The message board is suspended due to an ongoing internal investigation.

The message board is a public forum for officers to communicate with each other.

The message board is suspended due to an ongoing internal investigation.

The message board is a public forum for officers to communicate with each other.

The message board is suspended due to an ongoing internal investigation.

The message board is a public forum for officers to communicate with each other.

The message board is suspended due to an ongoing internal investigation.

The message board is a public forum for officers to communicate with each other.

The message board is suspended due to an ongoing internal investigation.

The message board is a public forum for officers to communicate with each other.

The message board is suspended due to an ongoing internal investigation.

The message board is a public forum for officers to communicate with each other.

The message board is suspended due to an ongoing internal investigation.

The message board is a public forum for officers to communicate with each other.

The message board is suspended due to an ongoing internal investigation.

The message board is a public forum for officers to communicate with each other.

The message board is suspended due to an ongoing internal investigation.

The message board is a public forum for officers to communicate with each other.

The message board is suspended due to an ongoing internal investigation.

The message board is a public forum for officers to communicate with each other.

The message board is suspended due to an ongoing internal investigation.

The message board is a public forum for officers to communicate with each other.

The message board is suspended due to an ongoing internal investigation.

The message board is a public forum for officers to communicate with each other.

The message board is suspended due to an ongoing internal investigation.

The message board is a public forum for officers to communicate with each other.

The message board is suspended due to an ongoing internal investigation.

The message board is a public forum for officers to communicate with each other.

The message board is suspended due to an ongoing internal investigation.

The message board is a public forum for officers to communicate with each other.
DNA Test Frees Inmate After Years

By Carl L. Jackson

Edie Joe Lloyd walked away from the Michigan prison that housed him for the past 17 years after DNA testing proved that his confession of raping and strangling a young girl was false.

The results of the test became a cornerstone of a legal battle and are expected to have far-reaching implications in the criminal justice system. The test was conducted by two doctors, Joe Baker, a forensic pathologist, and Kolkata, who said they were unaware of the original case when they agreed to do the DNA test.

"I want to run the 50 or 100 yard dash with my grand baby," said Lloyd upon hearing of his exoneration.

The DNA test has already been used extensively by the FBI, which said it could not have been done on the basis of a single DNA sample.
Poverty, Bush Absence Head Issues at World Summit

By Alison Brozek

The Hilltop

The 26th of August marked the beginning of the World Summit on Sustainable Development in Johannesburg, South Africa, with poverty reduction an absent U.S. President Bush's main preoccupation at the summit of the world.

Former South African President Nelson Mandela, the present South African president, Thabo Mbeki, were some of the first few leaders to address the summit members. Mandela commenting on how greatly he's pinned his hope and was thankful that the Summit would result in changes for the near future.

"What we want now is access to ensure sustainable development that benefits the poor of the world," Mandela said in a CNN.com article, addressing the summit's call for an end to all governmental dismantling. "Your voice must be heard. You have the right to define the agenda for the change of the world." Other heads of government also addressed the Summit at the speech in Johannesburg to all the other leaders of G8 countries - UK Prime Minister Tony Blair, Canadian Prime Minister Jean Chrétien, German Chancellor Gerhard Schroeder, Italian President Silvio Berlusconi, and Russia's Vladimir Putin among others. The Summit was sponsored by the United Nations as a 10-year follow up to the 1992 Earth Summit in Rio de Janeiro, which was attended by then President George H. Bush, father of the current President.

President George W. Bush's announcement to stop the summit was made publicly last week and he gave no particular explanation as to why he will not be joining the other 106 world leaders. Bush, though, has been under pressure from Republican Party and conservative liberals to attend the summit, which many believe might serve as an election boost.

A letter to Bush made public by Friends of the Earth U.K. states the nature of that pressure. Based on a letter,$ the letter is signed by 96 political groups and individuals urging Bush to applaud your decision not to attend the summit in person.

"I'm not surprised that Bush isn't attending, but then again I'm not really much of a Bush fan."

-Hanan Yehia, a freshman political science major commenting on Bush's absence from the summit.

Advocates of reform in Japan have received a major boost, with the victory of a provincial governor over his conservative opponents.

Yasuo Tanaka was removed from office in Nagano prefecture after attacking vested interests in the construction industry.

He has now been returned as governor with a landslide election victory.

Powell Says Iraq Must Let UN Inspectors Back In

Powell on CBS "Face the Nation," March 10

Secretary of State Colin Powell said he did not step back from his demand that Iraq allow U.N. inspectors to resume their search for weapons of mass destruction.

"Three UN resolutions will continue in effect: The Oil-for-Food program and the sanctions will remain against Iraq until the inspectors comply with the demand of the international community that they account for the weapons of mass destruction and the programs that they had under way at the end of the Gulf War," Powell said in an interview with CBS March 10. "They [the Iraqis] said they haven't. If they haven't, let the inspectors in."

"We don't want to be the heads of state who let people down. The New Zealand government has to stand up and be counted."

-Powell on an interview.

Yasuo Tanaka

Advocates of reform in Japan have received a major boost, with the victory of a provincial governor over his conservative opponents.

Yasuo Tanaka was removed from office in Nagano prefecture after attacking vested interests in the construction industry.

He has now been returned as governor with a landslide election victory.

WASHINGTON (CNN) - The president of a landeasy Mitchell High School in Texas denied Tuesday that he had fired his principal for forcing him to resign. "We have made every effort to establish a peaceful coexistence between India and Pakistan," Musharraf said in a CNN.com article, addressing the Summit's call for an end to all governmental dismantling. "Your voice must be heard. You have the right to define the agenda for the change of the world." Other heads of government also addressed the Summit at the speech in Johannesburg to all the other leaders of G8 countries - UK Prime Minister Tony Blair, Canadian Prime Minister Jean Chrétien, German Chancellor Gerhard Schroeder, Italian President Silvio Berlusconi, and Russia's Vladimir Putin among others. The Summit was sponsored by the United Nations as a 10-year follow up to the 1992 Earth Summit in Rio de Janeiro, which was attended by then President George H. Bush, father of the current President.

President George W. Bush's announcement to stop the summit was made publicly last week and he gave no particular explanation as to why he will not be joining the other 106 world leaders. Bush, though, has been under pressure from Republican Party and conservative liberals to attend the summit, which many believe might serve as an election boost.

A letter to Bush made public by Friends of the Earth U.K. states the nature of that pressure. Based on a letter,$ the letter is signed by 96 political groups and individuals urging Bush to applaud your decision not to attend the summit in person.

"I'm not surprised that Bush isn't attending, but then again I'm not really much of a Bush fan."

-Hanan Yehia, a freshman political science major commenting on Bush's absence from the summit.

Advocates of reform in Japan have received a major boost, with the victory of a provincial governor over his conservative opponents.

Yasuo Tanaka was removed from office in Nagano prefecture after attacking vested interests in the construction industry.

He has now been returned as governor with a landslide election victory.

Powell Says Iraq Must Let UN Inspectors Back In

Powell on CBS "Face the Nation," March 10

Secretary of State Colin Powell said he did not step back from his demand that Iraq allow U.N. inspectors to resume their search for weapons of mass destruction.

"Three UN resolutions will continue in effect: The Oil-for-Food program and the sanctions will remain against Iraq until the inspectors comply with the demand of the international community that they account for the weapons of mass destruction and the programs that they had under way at the end of the Gulf War," Powell said in an interview with CBS March 10. "They [the Iraqis] said they haven't. If they haven't, let the inspectors in."

"We don't want to be the heads of state who let people down. The New Zealand government has to stand up and be counted."

-Powell on an interview.
Build Your Own Notebook Computer

Get $100 Back by Mail

Available only at this location:
Washington
1901 L St. N.W.
(202) 785-4616

Open Daily: 8:00 a.m. - 7:00 p.m.
Saturday: 8:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.
Sunday: 12:00 p.m. - 5:00 p.m.

Paying for college just got easier, with a job at UPS.

Experiences can add up, but UPS has a great solution: money for your education, including tuition, books, fees and software programs.

PART-TIME PACKAGE HANDLERS
$8.50-$9.50/hour ($0.50 increase after 90 days of employment)

Paid Vacations • Weekends & Holidays Off

The UPS EARN & LEARN Program

Weekly Paycheck • Consistent Work Schedules

Get as much as $23,000* in College Education Assistance!

AVAILABLE SHIFTS:
Preload Shift: starts at 3:30am (Mon-Thu)
Day Shift: starts at 11:30am (Mon-Fri)
Twilight Shift: starts at 5:30pm (Mon-Fri)
Night Shift: starts at 10:30pm (Mon-Thurs); 9:30pm (Sun)

PLEASE APPLY IN PERSON DURING THE SHIFT YOU WANT TO WORK:
Preload: Call for an appointment
Day: Tues 10:30am-12:30pm, Wed 11am-1pm
Twilight: Tues & Thurs 5pm-7pm
Night: Mon-Wed 10pm-12am

UPS BURTONSVILLE FACILITY
14841 Sweitzer Lane • Laurel, MD
CALL TODAY! 301-987-BAK (Bank)

Chevy Chase Bank
Banking On Your Turn.

Low with checking - Hands of Chevy Chase Bank ATMs - Chevy Chase Check Card

Visit the branch near you at 710 Michigan Avenue, N.E.

www.upsjobs.com
www.ups.com

Read it on the web
www.thehilltoponline.com
www.thehilltoponline.com
www.thehilltoponline.com

Low Price Guarantee

Different schedules... Different ways to shop:

www.office depot.com • visit us on the Web and shop • 1-888-GO-OFFICE (Go to Office Depot)

Because outside of your parent's house, stuff costs money.

When it comes to money, most college students can see all the holes they can get a Good thing Chevy Chase has developed the Student Banking Package. More than a checking account, it's a complete package with everything you need to manage and access your money. The package even helps students meet money at Chase. To sign up, call 301-987-BAK (Bank) or ask a branch representative for details.

Low with checking - Hands of Chevy Chase Bank ATMs - Chevy Chase Check Card

Visit the branch near you at 710 Michigan Avenue, N.E.

www.thehilltoponline.com

www.office depot.com

www.office depot.com

www.thehilltoponline.com
The tournament marked the expected to compete for the Oklahoma Daily (U. MEAC crown this season.

Bison volleyball team took a trip down into the rival’s back­ beginning of the season for the

By Ethan Zago

The Lady Bison started on the road and really showed a little fire on the court this weekend,” said Assistant Sports Information Director Romanda Noble. “The team played really well for it to be their first tournament. This weekend was positive and shows that there are good things to come.”

Third match opponent Wofford would provide quite a test for the Lady Bison Friday night. Despite playing well in the first game, Howard fell 32-30. Wofford would go on to defeat the Lady Bison those games to none. Although Howard was defeated by a large margin in the second game 29-11, the Lady Bison showed heart against the eventual tournament champs as they fell in the third game 29-24. The loss dropped the Lady Bison to 2-1;

Third match opponent Wofford would provide quite a test for the Lady Bison Friday night. Despite playing well in the first game, Howard fell 32-30. Wofford would go on to defeat the Lady Bison those games to none. Although Howard was defeated by a large margin in the second game 29-11, the Lady Bison showed heart against the eventual tournament champs as they fell in the third game 29-24. The loss dropped the Lady Bison to 2-1;
sure, you can quit.
or stick around and [learn] how not to.

Take an Army ROTC course and you'll learn a lot about yourself. Stay with Army ROTC and you'll develop skills you can use throughout your life and career. Stuff like thinking on your feet, making smart decisions, taking charge. Of course, you can always quit. But we're pretty sure once you see how much you learn, you won't want to. Come talk to us at the Army ROTC department. We'll stick around for you.

ARMY ROTC Unlike any other college course you can take.

Call Army ROTC at 202-806-6784 or a-ddc-hu@rotc1.bragg.army.mil
RALLY Page A1

The oversize process was never meant to be the registration-to-programming regime of first rate. For the past several years, the red tape and paperwork has in such a way that the negative consequences have been well known. As part of the post-play dump, the documents must be signed with the Associate Provost, Joseph Reidy, the Dean of Resident Life, Franklin Chambers, Director of Campus Housing, объя, Dean of Residence Life, Franklin Chambers, Director of Campus Housing.

BUS from Page A1

African-American Affairs and Oregon of Student Affairs, said the institution was considering a policy change to avoid the new transportation system.

"International Lonexence had the best hit point and buscus of the package. Overall the team played well with a little help from the Oregon defense.

MISS from Page A2

Miss America contestant April Franklin told the Associated Press that the pageant's "carpet" was "the best hit point and buscus of the package. Overall the team played well with a little help from the Oregon defense.

KID from Page A3

There were more attacks, just more stories about them. People who had been attacked had a duty to tell the public what happened so that others could be protected in percentage.

The fail had to feel the public that things were under control. They weren't the best hit point and buscus of the package. Overall the team played well with a little help from the Oregon defense.

Page A3

The Orange County District Attorney's Office is investigating the death of a child in Brea. The child was found dead in a car in the parking lot of a Brea hospital.

The district attorney's office has said there were no signs of foul play. However, the investigation is continuing.

The police department is working with the Orange County Forensic Pathology Unit to determine the cause of death.

The boy's family has been interviewed by police and is cooperating with the investigation.

The Orange County District Attorney's Office said the investigation is ongoing and that more information will be released as it becomes available.

Page A3

The Orange County District Attorney's Office is investigating the death of a child in Brea. The child was found dead in a car in the parking lot of a Brea hospital.

The district attorney's office has said there were no signs of foul play. However, the investigation is continuing.

The police department is working with the Orange County Forensic Pathology Unit to determine the cause of death.

The boy's family has been interviewed by police and is cooperating with the investigation.

The Orange County District Attorney's Office said the investigation is ongoing and that more information will be released as it becomes available.

Page A3

The Orange County District Attorney's Office is investigating the death of a child in Brea. The child was found dead in a car in the parking lot of a Brea hospital.

The district attorney's office has said there were no signs of foul play. However, the investigation is continuing.

The police department is working with the Orange County Forensic Pathology Unit to determine the cause of death.

The boy's family has been interviewed by police and is cooperating with the investigation.

The Orange County District Attorney's Office said the investigation is ongoing and that more information will be released as it becomes available.

Page A3

The Orange County District Attorney's Office is investigating the death of a child in Brea. The child was found dead in a car in the parking lot of a Brea hospital.

The district attorney's office has said there were no signs of foul play. However, the investigation is continuing.

The police department is working with the Orange County Forensic Pathology Unit to determine the cause of death.

The boy's family has been interviewed by police and is cooperating with the investigation.

The Orange County District Attorney's Office said the investigation is ongoing and that more information will be released as it becomes available.

Page A3

The Orange County District Attorney's Office is investigating the death of a child in Brea. The child was found dead in a car in the parking lot of a Brea hospital.

The district attorney's office has said there were no signs of foul play. However, the investigation is continuing.

The police department is working with the Orange County Forensic Pathology Unit to determine the cause of death.

The boy's family has been interviewed by police and is cooperating with the investigation.

The Orange County District Attorney's Office said the investigation is ongoing and that more information will be released as it becomes available.

Page A3

The Orange County District Attorney's Office is investigating the death of a child in Brea. The child was found dead in a car in the parking lot of a Brea hospital.

The district attorney's office has said there were no signs of foul play. However, the investigation is continuing.

The police department is working with the Orange County Forensic Pathology Unit to determine the cause of death.

The boy's family has been interviewed by police and is cooperating with the investigation.

The Orange County District Attorney's Office said the investigation is ongoing and that more information will be released as it becomes available.

Page A3

The Orange County District Attorney's Office is investigating the death of a child in Brea. The child was found dead in a car in the parking lot of a Brea hospital.

The district attorney's office has said there were no signs of foul play. However, the investigation is continuing.

The police department is working with the Orange County Forensic Pathology Unit to determine the cause of death.

The boy's family has been interviewed by police and is cooperating with the investigation.

The Orange County District Attorney's Office said the investigation is ongoing and that more information will be released as it becomes available.

Page A3

The Orange County District Attorney's Office is investigating the death of a child in Brea. The child was found dead in a car in the parking lot of a Brea hospital.

The district attorney's office has said there were no signs of foul play. However, the investigation is continuing.

The police department is working with the Orange County Forensic Pathology Unit to determine the cause of death.

The boy's family has been interviewed by police and is cooperating with the investigation.

The Orange County District Attorney's Office said the investigation is ongoing and that more information will be released as it becomes available.

Page A3

The Orange County District Attorney's Office is investigating the death of a child in Brea. The child was found dead in a car in the parking lot of a Brea hospital.

The district attorney's office has said there were no signs of foul play. However, the investigation is continuing.

The police department is working with the Orange County Forensic Pathology Unit to determine the cause of death.

The boy's family has been interviewed by police and is cooperating with the investigation.

The Orange County District Attorney's Office said the investigation is ongoing and that more information will be released as it becomes available.

Page A3

The Orange County District Attorney's Office is investigating the death of a child in Brea. The child was found dead in a car in the parking lot of a Brea hospital.

The district attorney's office has said there were no signs of foul play. However, the investigation is continuing.

The police department is working with the Orange County Forensic Pathology Unit to determine the cause of death.

The boy's family has been interviewed by police and is cooperating with the investigation.

The Orange County District Attorney's Office said the investigation is ongoing and that more information will be released as it becomes available.

Page A3

The Orange County District Attorney's Office is investigating the death of a child in Brea. The child was found dead in a car in the parking lot of a Brea hospital.

The district attorney's office has said there were no signs of foul play. However, the investigation is continuing.

The police department is working with the Orange County Forensic Pathology Unit to determine the cause of death.

The boy's family has been interviewed by police and is cooperating with the investigation.

The Orange County District Attorney's Office said the investigation is ongoing and that more information will be released as it becomes available.

Page A3

The Orange County District Attorney's Office is investigating the death of a child in Brea. The child was found dead in a car in the parking lot of a Brea hospital.

The district attorney's office has said there were no signs of foul play. However, the investigation is continuing.

The police department is working with the Orange County Forensic Pathology Unit to determine the cause of death.

The boy's family has been interviewed by police and is cooperating with the investigation.

The Orange County District Attorney's Office said the investigation is ongoing and that more information will be released as it becomes available.

Page A3

The Orange County District Attorney's Office is investigating the death of a child in Brea. The child was found dead in a car in the parking lot of a Brea hospital.

The district attorney's office has said there were no signs of foul play. However, the investigation is continuing.

The police department is working with the Orange County Forensic Pathology Unit to determine the cause of death.

The boy's family has been interviewed by police and is cooperating with the investigation.

The Orange County District Attorney's Office said the investigation is ongoing and that more information will be released as it becomes available.

Page A3

The Orange County District Attorney's Office is investigating the death of a child in Brea. The child was found dead in a car in the parking lot of a Brea hospital.

The district attorney's office has said there were no signs of foul play. However, the investigation is continuing.

The police department is working with the Orange County Forensic Pathology Unit to determine the cause of death.

The boy's family has been interviewed by police and is cooperating with the investigation.

The Orange County District Attorney's Office said the investigation is ongoing and that more information will be released as it becomes available.

Page A3

The Orange County District Attorney's Office is investigating the death of a child in Brea. The child was found dead in a car in the parking lot of a Brea hospital.

The district attorney's office has said there were no signs of foul play. However, the investigation is continuing.

The police department is working with the Orange County Forensic Pathology Unit to determine the cause of death.

The boy's family has been interviewed by police and is cooperating with the investigation.

The Orange County District Attorney's Office said the investigation is ongoing and that more information will be released as it becomes available.
DO YOU WANT TO WORK FOR THE BISON YEARBOOK?

THE FOLLOWING POSITIONS ARE OPEN:

Writers
Photographers

There will be an interest meeting in the Bison Yearbook office (Blackburn Room G-06) this Wednesday, September 4th at 6pm.

QUESTIONS? Contact Yuvay Meyers at 806-7870 or email us at bisonyearbook@hotmail.com.
MEAC PREVIEW

By: Aisha Chancy and Elona Berson

The Hogs

College football season has finally arrived and the small college teams are beginning to feel the pressure of the season. At the beginning of the year, many students were excited about football season, but now they are feeling the strain of the season. Many students are already looking forward to the end of football season.

The Hogs are ranked second in the MEAC this season, but they have not been able to carry over their success from last season. They lost their first game of the season against Florida A&M, 42-7. This was the first game of the season for the Hogs, and they were unable to put up many points. They will be looking to bounce back in their next game against North Carolina A&T.

The Hogs have a strong defense, but their offense has been struggling. They need to find a way to score more points in order to compete with the top teams in the MEAC. They will be looking to improve their offense in the upcoming games.

The Hogs' head coach, James Johnson, is looking to improve his team's performance. He is looking to put more emphasis on the offensive side of the ball. He knows that in order to win games, his team needs to score more points.

The Hogs are facing a tough schedule this season. They have games against some of the top teams in the MEAC, including Florida A&M and North Carolina A&T. They will need to be at their best in order to compete with these teams.

The Hogs have a tough road ahead of them, but they are looking forward to the challenge. They are looking to improve their performance and compete with the top teams in the MEAC. They will be looking to bounce back in their next game against North Carolina A&T.
Bison Prepare for Tomorrow's Home Opener

By Josef Sawyer
The Hillop

For those like me who have endured the baseball season all summer long and are dis­ appointingly on the brink of fall, there is good news… the grid­ iron season has arrived.

The NFL season officially kicks off in about two weeks, with the San Francisco 49ers against the New York Giants.

In addition, the 1997 Super Bowl champions, the New England Patriots, are ready to get their season underway.

As the Buffalo Bills, with their formidable defense, are looking to repeat, so are the New York Jets, with their talented offense.

The Pats will face a tough test in the form of the Los Angeles Rams, with both teams looking to prove their mettle.

Meanwhile, the Bills are ready to take on the Miami Dolphins, aiming to maintain their dominance in the AFC East.

Bison Gets Flat Hat Trick but Soccer Team Still Falls

By Shaw Davis
The Hillop

Soccer fans are in for a treat as the Bison women’s team takes on Georgia Southern University.

With 2 exams during the week, athletes have had to balance training with academic responsibilities.

Despite the pressure, the Bison have managed to maintain a winning streak.

The team’s recent success has been attributed to their strong defense and teamwork.

The Bison are currently ranked 12th in the nation and are looking to continue their winning ways.

Bean Gets Flat Hat Trick but Soccer Team Still Falls

By Shaw Davis
The Hillop

Soccer fans are in for a treat as the Bison men’s team takes on Arkansas State University.

With 2 exams during the week, athletes have had to balance training with academic responsibilities.

Despite the pressure, the Bison have managed to maintain a winning streak.

The team’s recent success has been attributed to their strong defense and teamwork.

The Bison are currently ranked 12th in the nation and are looking to continue their winning ways.
By Jennifer L. Williams

The Hilltop

In the world of fashion at Howard University, the same branded names keep coming up. Gucci, Fendi, Louis Vuitton, and other designer labels are worn by scores of females on the campus, especially those of the Sept. 11 tragedy. Gucci, Fendi, Louis Vuitton, and other brand names keep coming up. The rentals of various idea s and ideologies can evolve into an open forum where different ideas and ideologies can be discussed and debated freely.

Jennifer Ayanna Sharango of Jozen is a 25-year-old native of Washington, D.C., who owns a boutique located in the O.C. area. A plethora of tasteful stores are hard to find in D.C. Besides music, Henderson is working on other projects for socially conscious fans. For example, Henderson is working on a petition at six, where local people will be able to set up a time to bring your own CDs to the store.

The Closet is a virtual fashion
store that lets the neighborhood
and local artist,” Henderson
explained. “The Closet is only supposed to be an open forum where local artists can sell their music and art.

The Closet is a virtual fashion
store that lets the neighborhood
and local artist,” Henderson
explained. “The Closet is only
supposed to be an open forum where local artists can sell their music and art.

“Before you buy a CD at school so that she could try it before she returns to back home?”

...will not make money and we're all affected by the radio station as well.

In Brown’s words, Closet is "to build a suit of th em selfs — a peer (or P2P) music file s haring service, like Napster. The company settled with $8 million in assets after it was launched," said Hilary Rosen, chairwoman of the RIAA.

"If I know the artist and I know it’s
the new Slum Village CD entitled,
"I'll Be the One in the Morning"
with sound cards or burned later
for free to download packs of five, 10, or 20.

But do college music fans agree with pirating MP3 files from free services, yet owed $100 million to the music companies.

"The radio as much because they have their services, yet owed $100 million to the music companies.

"If I know the artist and I know it’s
the new Slum Village CD entitled,
"I'll Be the One in the Morning"
with sound cards or burned later
for free to download packs of five, 10, or 20.

"If I know the artist and I know it’s
the new Slum Village CD entitled,
"I'll Be the One in the Morning"
with sound cards or burned later
for free to download packs of five, 10, or 20.

"If I know the artist and I know it’s
the new Slum Village CD entitled,
"I'll Be the One in the Morning"
with sound cards or burned later
for free to download packs of five, 10, or 20.
On At Howard

Amanda was so weighed down with the possibility of failing. Even the extreme case, but the moral of the story is still strong.

The Hilltop

September 6, 2002

By Aurellia Anderson

The Hilltop

Amanda couldn’t figure out why she was not fatter along the path in her writing career. One famous author and a well-known editor read her novel, both giving her rave reviews. So why hadn’t she sold her novel and picture book to be published? The answer was her.

She had allowed herself to be flattered along the path of her career because in order to do so she would have to move into the unknown. The level of success would have her vulnerable to the possibility of failure. Even the thought of foregoing success scared her. This had been her place, but didn’t know what to do now. This may be an extreme case, but the moral of the story is still strong: it is always important to keep the fear of failure in mind.

The Hilltop

Tallahassee, Florida

By Enoch Thomas III

Beginning tonight Lincoln Center will host a series of movie screenings starting Saturday night at 8:00 p.m. on HBO and continuing for the next two weeks. Each screening will be followed by a discussion and Q&A session with the filmmakers.

Cedric’s Lineup

Steps to the Plate

By Aurellia Anderson

The Hilltop

Cedric’s Lineup

The Hilltop

Cedric the Entertainer Presents the Starring Lineup

By Enoch Thomas III

The Hilltop

Cedric’s Lineup

Steps to the Plate

By Aurellia Anderson

The Hilltop

Top 10 Things You Can Always Count On At Howard

1) A hold on your table

2) Waiting in line to get the hold of your account

3) The administration letting you know when you can and cannot have visites

4) Getting hungry after the cafe is closed

5) Dudes representing Dope Hall like they grew up there

6) Writing in line again

7) The football team wearing Tye Ties

8) A ticket on your car

9) Standing room only

10) Always getting validation stickers and no one asking to see it
Sharpe trash talked his way out of town and Shannon league and all he has to do is get his workhorse running back.

Their defense is good, but the best receiving corps in the league is not much help. The speed that wide open .

start off hot and cool down. Couch break his last season in offense last season with the future for Atlanta though.

The Atlanta Falcons may not go down quietly. Sharpe has made the Pro Bowl last season, but he's not in a Super Bowl appearance now. For the Falcons.

October 26, 2002

The Denver Broncos began looking for the season's end at last. Playing in the AFC, with its compact geography, things are looking up early. The Broncos will go 11-5, the Ravens 10-6, but all the broken teams. Leadership is now the issue and with Shannon Sharpe back hill ball, the Ravens will be ready.
HUSA Political Forum A Mess

Political fervor is a healthy feature of democracy. Yet political fervor does not mean it's time to act a fool. The political atmosphere on Howard's campus is nasty, and no one in it does not have to be nice. Nonetheless, flag-waving, and constituents' comments (especially one expressing an opinion that has been shaped on his head as a child) - dwindling. It is not a way to gain votes or members at the forum because it's not a way to gain votes or members at the forum. The political atmosphere is not a democracy. Yet, political fervor does not mean it's time to act a fool.

More importantly, the candidates on the political forum should be ashamed of their immature and inappropriate behavior. Students should choose who they vote for wisely. The political atmosphere on Howard's campus is not an element of a democracy. Yet, political fervor does not mean it's time to act a fool.

Busch Moving Toward Right Decision

President George Bush, who is what President Bush and Congress are currently considering. The president of the United States is a decision maker. The president of the United States is a decision maker. The president of the United States is a decision maker. The president of the United States is a decision maker. The president of the United States is a decision maker. The president of the United States is a decision maker. The president of the United States is a decision maker.

Our View

We would like to commend President Bush on seeking the advice and counsel of Congress before making a decision to launch preemptive attacks on Iraq.

However, with our allies not willing to back in on war with Iraq without further evidence that Iraq poses an immediate threat, we need to take heed to the Bush administration's argument. In our judgment, the policy should be put on hold for the moment.
Dazed and Confused

Revolution's Den

Are You Black?

Brandon A. Miller

After years and years of education and training, my vocabulary, lately, it seems, I can't seem to come up with three words: "I don't know."

As a senior, about 97 percent of my course, most departmental consultants, involves the following question: "May I go to graduate school? "What will you live?"

There must be a mistake on campus somewhere instructing people to ask their question all over again. Honestly, my answer to each question is the same: "I don't know."

So I kept trying to impress upon my teacher that I didn't know. And I still think that I didn't know. I still think that I don't know:

I don't know what is going on in my life's direction. I think you say in my life's direction. I think you say in my life's direction. I think you say in my life's direction. I think you say in my life's direction.

I understand what you mean by 'design'. I see my job as just a... I definitely can't... I definitely can't... I definitely can't... I definitely can't...

There was that idea that I had been looking... to get to the end of the whole thing. I think you say... I think you say... I think you say... I think you say...

It is the same statement: "I..." But I'm actually coming to bear. But I'm actually coming to bear. But I'm actually coming to bear. But I'm actually coming to bear.

You must be aware that many students are questioning their direction. And if you would have left... would be just a record label, "I just want... I just want... I just want...

I mentioned here a few years ago, that... many have... many have... many have... many have...

There was ambiguity. This is a time in the coming months. That's... But I'm actually coming to bear. But I'm actually coming to bear. But I'm actually coming to bear. But I'm actually coming to bear.

I took my time, I know my... I took my time, I know my... I took my time, I know my... I took my time, I know my...

I'm in the quarter, and... I'm in the quarter, and... I'm in the quarter, and... I'm in the quarter, and...

Some people may see this... I mean: "I..." But I'm actually coming to bear. But I'm actually coming to bear. But I'm actually coming to bear. But I'm actually coming to bear.

I was amazed to find out that... Sincerely,

Dazed and Confused

Revolution's Den

Are You Black?

By Thomas F. Deming, Jr.

The Hilltop, 6/2002

Revolution's Den

Today was one of those perfect not-so-perfect days. Today I traveled to a distant island, it was sunny and 35 miles past spirit.

Somatic in the metaphysical and the inferno called reality.

I arrived at a place unknown to most men.

Revolution's Den

"freedom songs for the liberated soul!"

Don't get twisted... My den is not like your den. My den does not contain the Bible, Koran, tape album, nor incense.

My Den in solace, it was created by me for me only.

I can invite you in that you cannot stay in the revolution sitting on the throne of my table. The only reason you know it's a sea of despair, the smoke is rising. My cup runneth over but not a drop of revolution has spilled on the floor.

I am often plagued by the feeling that one man cannot change the world but in the Revolution's Den, one man can change himself and thus alter his external environment.

-Teachereon Jones

Are You Black?

Tiffany Digennaro

What are you, are you Black, African-American, Caribbeans, or just Africans?

I was surprised to hear that at Howard University, the most famous and most... deacon of so many brilliant men... I am like to be a difficult question to answer. I wanted to find out how I could each student... 'I don't consider myself an African because nobody in my family is African. I am African American.' They made me feel I was missing something. They made me feel I was missing something. They made me feel I was missing something. They made me feel I was missing something.

Are you Black, why are the people... I don't know... I don't know... I don't know...

The world had a back-up. "There is nothing anyone can do; the systems are..."

The world had a back-up. "There is nothing anyone can do; the systems are..."

The world had a back-up. "There is nothing anyone can do; the systems are..."

The world had a back-up. "There is nothing anyone can do; the systems are..."

The world had a back-up. "There is nothing anyone can do; the systems are..."

The world had a back-up. "There is nothing anyone can do; the systems are..."

The world had a back-up. "There is nothing anyone can do; the systems are..."

The world had a back-up. "There is nothing anyone can do; the systems are..."

The world had a back-up. "There is nothing anyone can do; the systems are..."
HILLTOPICS

Spring Break

Attention Spring Breakers! Travel Free 2003 Free trips, drinks & meals Party w/ MTV Blasted Destinations Most Reliable www.sampiineak.com 1-800-426-7710

01 Spring Break Free trips, drinks/Meals Lowest Prices Parties w/MTV/Jerry Springer Featured w/MSNBC/Travel Channel Better than ever!! www.sampiineak.com I-800-426-7710

For Rent

Attention campus organizations for meetings, seminars or non profit are charged as individuals advertising for the purpose of announcing a service, buying or selling are charged $5 for the first 20 words and $1 for ever additional five words. Local companies are charged $10 for first 20 words and $2 for every 5 words thereafter. Personal ads are $2 for the first 10 words and $1 for every additional 5 words.

Announcements

The Bisexual Lesbian and Gay Organization of, Students at Howard (BLOSAHO) will have its first meeting of the semester today, September 6th, at 7:00 P.M. It will be held in the Blackburn Center's Music Listening Room. (Basement level) All Are Welcome!!

ATTENTION ALL STUDENT AMBASSADORS! The FIRST GENERAL BODY MEETING OF THE YEAR WILL TAKE PLACE ON WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 11TH @ 6:00 PM IN THE BLACKBURN FORUM. PLEASE PLAN TO ATTEND.

Help Wanted

Moto Photo has several FT-PT positions. Must possess excellent communication skills, some photography knowledge and enjoy working with the public. Will train. Apply at One hour Moto Photo, Union Station, 50 Mass. Ave., N.E. or call 202-371-6445. Ask for Vivian

IS IT ME? OR DON'T YOU NEED TO PLACE A HILLTOPIC? EMAIL US @ hllltopbusiness@hotmail.com

Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc.

Beta Chapter presents . . .

Annual Back to School

Back To School Specials

Straw Set $40
Streaks & Styles $55
Camo rows $25 & up
Quick Weave $75

Touch-Up $38
Flip Styles $25
Wrap & Curl $25
Roller Wraps $23
Black Rods $35

Michelle Formally of Parrson
Has Relocated to
3211 Georgia Ave N.W.
202-669-7415

B8

The Hilltop

September 6, 2002
Khaleef: An Aspiring Singer Gets a Chance at Stardom
One Howard Student's First-Hand Experience on Fox's Singing Competing 'American Idol'

By Jarei Cummings

The Hilltop

The summer of 2004, Howard University student Chiles decided to take his music career to the next level. After meeting the qualifications, he submitted an online video of himself singing and within a couple of weeks, he received a call to audition. Chiles prepared for his audition and was excited for the opportunity to showcase his talent. He arrived at the audition on time, ready to deliver his best performance. The audition was tough, but Chiles handled it well, making a good impression on the judges. He was notified a few days later that he had made the cut and was invited to the next round of auditions.

Once in Hollywood, Chiles was singing for an entirely different crowd. How would sign a chance to win a spot on the highly acclaimed TV show 'American Idol.' The 'inner of the house (picture above), located in Southeast, Washington, DC, still stands today. The mansion was once owned by Fredrick Douglass, a prominent civil rights leader. Today, it serves as a museum and a symbol of the city's rich history.

Chiles was among the 120 contestants who made it to Hollywood, competing against thousands of others for the chance to become the next 'American Idol.' The competition was fierce, with contestants vying for attention from the judges and the audience. However, Chiles handled the pressure well, delivering powerful performances that left a lasting impression on the judges. He was one of the nine chosen to move on to the next round of the competition.

Chiles had now gone from a local talent to a national celebrity. He was getting recognized for his skills, and the attention was exciting. However, the reality of the situation also dawned on him. He was away from his family and friends, living in a city where he had to perform for thousands of people every week.

Chiles was grateful for the opportunity, but the experience was also challenging. He had to balance his personal life with the demands of the show. However, he was determined to succeed and make the most of his opportunity. His hard work and dedication paid off, and he was named as one of the top 10 contestants on 'American Idol.'

Chiles' story is a testament to the power of perseverance and determination. He started as a local talent and ended up as a national celebrity, all thanks to his hard work and dedication. His journey is a reminder that with hard work, anything is possible. Chiles is a shining example of what can be achieved through dedication and hard work.
M.T.V. Tries Hitting to Higher Ground with 2002 Video Music Awards

By Brittany Teal

Daily Texan (U. Texas-Austin)

(WIRE) AUSTIN, Texas — Thursday marked a memorable day in the lives of pop fans across the country as they tuned in to watch the premier viewing of the 16th annual M.T.V. Video Music Awards, which marked the 45th birthday of pop music from the 1950s to today.

The one-hour special, which featured Slug, Mr. Dibbs and many other performers, highlighted some of the many highlights of M.T.V.'s history. The event was hosted by "Saturday Night Live" up-and-coming star Michelle Dow, who followed in the footsteps of many other successful hosts, including Ellen DeGeneres, White Guy, Red, Nelly, Andy Kaufman and Enrique Iglesias. Traditionally known for its lack of negativity, the MTV Video Music Awards is known for its diverse lineup and bold and energetic performances.

Among the high-profile acts that performed that night were J.R. Rotem; Ashanti, Pink; and Sheryl Crow. One of the standout performances was the moment when the legendary rock band, The Cars, performed their hit song "Heartbeat City." The band's rendition was a loving tribute to the late guitarist, Ric Ocasek, who passed away in September 2019.

Many students at U.C. Santa Barbara are excited about the potential impact of the awards on the music industry. Such a list would probably include the names of many artists who have already established themselves in the music industry, and would likely feature performers who are currently making waves in the charts.

The Princeton Review's rankings are based on an average of 300 surveys of 100,158 students at more than 500 four-year colleges and universities. The list might "play a factor" in deciding the future of M.T.V., as well as the careers of many performers.

However, the list does not play a major role in determining the future of M.T.V., as the network is focused on delivering high-quality content that resonates with its audience. Despite the controversy surrounding the awards, M.T.V. remains committed to providing entertainment that appeals to a wide range of viewers.

With song titles such as "F Y O: You. Lucy" and "Living Legends," Dee Jay B2 is living up to the type of hip-hop music that the 90s promised to be different. "We're not as good as the rest of them — it's that I insist. "Seriously."

The atmosphere of the awards was electric, with the audience filled with energy and excitement. The performances were dynamic and diverse, showcasing a wide range of musical styles and genres. The awards were a celebration of the music industry and the artists who make it great.

Despite the controversy surrounding the awards, M.T.V. remains committed to providing entertainment that appeals to a wide range of viewers. With song titles such as "F Y O: You. Lucy" and "Living Legends," Dee Jay B2 is living up to the type of hip-hop music that the 90s promised to be different. "We're not as good as the rest of them — it's that I insist. "Seriously."

The awards were a celebration of the music industry and the artists who make it great. A growing number of Midwest Hip-Hop bands are gaining attention, with bands like Atmosphere and Brother Ali gaining popularity. The movement is gaining trend.

In many ways creative people are always looking for ways to make their work more interesting and distinctive, and the music industry is no exception. With the rise of new genres and subcultures, there is always a need for fresh ideas and new sounds.

The awards were a celebration of the music industry and the artists who make it great. A growing number of Midwest Hip-Hop bands are gaining attention, with bands like Atmosphere and Brother Ali gaining popularity. The movement is gaining trend.

However, just how much time and money was spent on M.T.V. during the awards show is unclear. Whether the focus should be on the awards themselves or the music industry as a whole is a matter of debate.

For the purposes of this story, the awards were a celebration of the music industry and the artists who make it great. A growing number of Midwest Hip-Hop bands are gaining attention, with bands like Atmosphere and Brother Ali gaining popularity. The movement is gaining trend.

The awards were a celebration of the music industry and the artists who make it great. A growing number of Midwest Hip-Hop bands are gaining attention, with bands like Atmosphere and Brother Ali gaining popularity. The movement is gaining trend.
Howard Copy

Proudly Serving the Community for More than 14 Years

2618 Georgia Ave., NW • Washington, DC 20001
TEL: (202) 462-2679 • FAX (202) 332-5944
e-mail: howardcopy@aol.com

ACROSS FROM H.U.'s SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

“Quality is Our Business”
• High Speed Copying
• Color Copying
• Banners/Posters
• Typsetting / Resumes
• Binding / Laminating
• Fax
• Business Cards
• Letterheads
• Envelopes
• Invitations
• Announcements
• Passport Photos

Coupon
• Color copies 95¢ each for 10 or more copies
• 10% OFF - Flyers, brochures, posters, banners, & other services

(EXCEPT COURSE PACKS)
COUPON MUST BE PRESENTED BEFORE PURCHASE

September 3, 2002 The Hilltop
24-Hour Visitation a Must-Have for Upperclassmen in the Towers

As a freshman, visitation hours have been established and, yet, understood. As a freshman, you were just coming from home and the University needed it to your parents to assure them you weren't having potential harmful moments and dailies in your dorm after certain hour. Now this is not to say that everyone could come and leave regardless of visitation hours, but to show where there may have been a need for the University to act in your parents.

As the years progress, so does the responsibilities, issues halls regardless of co-ed and upperclassmen status.

Although bunking may prevent a problem for residence halls regardless of co-ed and upperclassmen status, bunking may prevent a problem for residence halls regardless of co-ed and upperclassmen status. Although bunking may prevent a problem for residence halls regardless of co-ed and upperclassmen status, bunking may prevent a problem for residence halls regardless of co-ed and upperclassmen status.

There have been concerns of a few problems and students have had previous issues as some other problems. Students have many reasons why others may not be in their dorm rooms at midnight. Study groups, projects and just plain guests should not be considered to be in the hall library and other campus buildings.

Visitation restrictions make grown-up Howard students wonder if they are still children.
Hoodwinked by Cutco

By Leron Lee

The worst word that you can hear on the first day at the job is "recruitment." It's not fail into the trap.

No matter what a job tells you, remember there is always a catch.

Have you ever opened a newspaper or a magazine and come across an offer for an $18 hourly rate? If you have, then you probably have been hoodwinked into the Cutco scam.

Recruitment refers to the people who are most desperately seeking poverty-stricken college students.

When you go to "visit" the company, there are a hundred other competitors who are trying to get you.

The "first" interview is basically the beginning of the job contract. You are无所谓 for employment that was previously planned to agree to regardless of the terms.

Cutco will tell you in your face that the job is not about the job or the commission. So you think you have an interview and nothing is final.

There is another for months or hours through a presentation of the "Cutco" brand. The presentation includes a demonstration of what the "Cutco" brand is. It also includes a non-detailed explanation of how you are going to get paid. They tell you that you have to "sell" the other people, but if you look at the product, you can't help but feel like they are trying to sell you the "Cutco" brand. And this is where the big lie begins. Everyone who has job hunting, the job seems pretty easy.

The next step is the "second" interview. This is the interview where the recruiters will make you believe. Believe me, they are very convincing. They are the ones who do not understand, you will be illegitimate if you are one of all your friends that now have a job paying you full. Until all you can get is the next day and all our head people are back.

Before you actually go to work, just do more research and brainwashing practice.

When you start to sell these knives to your friends and family.

Also, in order to get the "first" job, you are then going to sell these knives to your friends and family.

I remember it like it was yesterday. He was a "black" alteration from the performance high school. My mom, who had never been raised in the "Cutco" brand, didn't have any idea that it was going to be really hard to make.

In closing, Sweetie, put that into the "Cutco" brand, and you will be illegal. You will be illegitimate if you are one of all your friends that now have a job paying you full.

Here's what you said.

"I don't care, I have $120 in my car."

Yes, there might be some money in your car, but you are not going to make $120 in your car.

You are going to be making $120 per week, but you are not going to make that in your car.

Now, I am by no means saying that Black women are the worst women or that Black men are the worst men (no comment). I just want Black men to realize our value and appreciate that we are, how we are, because of the way you are. We wouldn't be able to have you if we didn't want you to be. We wouldn't be able to have your presence at our hands if we didn't want you there. We wouldn't be able to have your presence at our hands if we didn't want you there.

In the August 23, 2002 Edition of www.thehilltoponline.com we asked if These Freshmen girls to one room was too many. Here's what you said:

Yes! There is too many. (47%) No. There is not too many. (53%) What's the reason? I will have an interview with this company later, STAY IN BED!

By Derek Kindle

The demoralization of the Black male is a very pernicious addiction.

While African-Americans are making more money and gaining more power in society, they can't help but continue to be portrayed as"thugs and gangsters". But as these groups continue to grow, we need to meet with drug dealers, pimps, prostitutes, and crack addicts to carry our new slow movement of black destruction of the male, and subsequently, the nation.

Black males volunteering in underserved areas has failing success. There is no doubt that, with more positive Black male role models, young Black and females can begin to understand the danger of this type of situation, which they have for themselves and their people. This is not desirous. Yet there's nothing right.

With parece, studies and research, the topic of Black male roles has been run into the ground. Facts are almost trivilized, but I have researched and compiled in this made ofall of the present and past research. It can be noted that volunteering needs to occur on a larger scale.

However, the point of the particular piece is to present an actual, effective plan. I submit, that after (if ever) Black males on college campuses become more organized, then we could start to stop the black gang in a much more effective way.

I am not of the opinion that we have to plan ahead and capture a much larger piece of the pie. It is known that young Black males—those who are proud of the only keys to the over and under success of our nation. It is also understood that there needs to be more Black male volunteering with young Black children.

There is a plan that should turn toward one'real objective. The transcendent plan should influece in ways which attempt to influence Black male volunteers for Black male children.

If African-American males were to volunteer and mentor young Black children, there would be less Black males who would be a threat to the Black male. Also, in order to get the "first" job, you are then going to sell these knives to your friends and family.

I have had too many conversations with young Black professionals, and the most positive Black male role model was "my mother". According to Ebony magazine, some of us have found only in the soul of Black people. This is not desirous. Yet there's nothing right.

In case you're wondering what do I mean dressing in "cutco" brand, I can't speak on behalf of everyone, but I am dressed in "cutco" brand. I am wearing a "cutco" brand for the basketball season, if you're gifted with any artistic level.

I have had too many conversations with young Black professionals, and the most positive Black male role model was "my mother". According to Ebony magazine, some of us have found only in the soul of Black people. This is not desirous. Yet there's nothing right.

If African-American males were to volunteer and mentor young Black children, there would be less Black males who would be a threat to the Black male. Also, in order to get the "first" job, you are then going to sell these knives to your friends and family.

I have had too many conversations with young Black professionals, and the most positive Black male role model was "my mother". According to Ebony magazine, some of us have found only in the soul of Black people. This is not desirous. Yet there's nothing right.

If African-American males were to volunteer and mentor young Black children, there would be less Black males who would be a threat to the Black male. Also, in order to get the "first" job, you are then going to sell these knives to your friends and family.

I have had too many conversations with young Black professionals, and the most positive Black male role model was "my mother". According to Ebony magazine, some of us have found only in the soul of Black people. This is not desirous. Yet there's nothing right.

If African-American males were to volunteer and mentor young Black children, there would be less Black males who would be a threat to the Black male. Also, in order to get the "first" job, you are then going to sell these knives to your friends and family.

I have had too many conversations with young Black professionals, and the most positive Black male role model was "my mother". According to Ebony magazine, some of us have found only in the soul of Black people. This is not desirous. Yet there's nothing right.

If African-American males were to volunteer and mentor young Black children, there would be less Black males who would be a threat to the Black male. Also, in order to get the "first" job, you are then going to sell these knives to your friends and family.

I have had too many conversations with young Black professionals, and the most positive Black male role model was "my mother". According to Ebony magazine, some of us have found only in the soul of Black people. This is not desirous. Yet there's nothing right.

If African-American males were to volunteer and mentor young Black children, there would be less Black males who would be a threat to the Black male. Also, in order to get the "first" job, you are then going to sell these knives to your friends and family.

I have had too many conversations with young Black professionals, and the most positive Black male role model was "my mother". According to Ebony magazine, some of us have found only in the soul of Black people. This is not desirous. Yet there's nothing right.
A MESSAGE FROM
HOWARD UNIVERSITY LIBRARIES

Welcome Returning Students and Class of 2006!

As we begin a new academic year, we invite you to take a few moments to find out about the wealth of library resources available to you. Consulting with librarians, in person or electronically, will help you find information more effectively.

Visit the student “Fall Orientation” page, review our access policy and familiarize yourself with the procedures and decorum that will ensure a fruitful, safe and well-organized learning environment.

LOCATION: HOWARD UNIVERSITY HOSPITAL
Department of Dermatology
1241 Georgia Avenue
Washington, DC
ALWAYS bring your Capstone Card (Howard ID) with you, as you are required to present it before gaining access to the libraries. After 12:00 Midnight only Howard University students, faculty and staff are permitted entry to the Undergraduate Library. Special admission policies apply in the Louis Stokes Health Sciences Library and the Law Library.

Please, take time to review the University’s policy on restrictions for admission of children under age 15. Security personnel will strictly enforce this.

We are continually working to provide all students with the best facilities, equipment and services. Let us know if there’s anything we can do to enhance your learning experiences.

Shaving Bumps/ Razor Bumps

DOCTORS AT THE HOWARD UNIVERSITY HOSPITAL ARE CURRENTLY CONDUCTING A STUDY TO LOOK AT A TREATMENT FOR SHAVING BUMPS OR RAZOR BUMPS.

LOCATION: HOWARD UNIVERSITY HOSPITAL
Department of Dermatology
2041 Georgia Avenue
Washington, DC
COST: There is no cost to participate in the study

For more information, please call the Howard University Department of Dermatology at 202 865-6725.

The best wishes for a successful academic year!
Metropolitan Police Department
Fourth District Station
6001 Georgia Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20011
202.576.6745 phone
Larry McCoy, Commander 4th District
Jesse Porter, PSA 404 Lieutenant
Yvonne Smith, Office of Community Outreach

The Fourth District Metropolitan Police Department would like to offer suggestions that may reduce your opportunity of becoming a victim and surviving a robbery (for students living off campus and for campus students traveling around the city). Note: Most of the Howard University Campus is located in the Third Police District 202.673.6815. For more information and for local MPD monthly meetings, visit with us at www.mpdc.gov.

Safety Tips

- Tell a roommate, friend or family member of your plans, your destination, probable return time, and possible route.
- Never fight over material items, regardless of monetary or sentimental value.
- Shop during the day, or, at night, shop and walk in groups, criminals more often target persons traveling alone.
- Walk on public sidewalks; avoid paths, alleys, or shortcuts.
- Have keys ready (house or car, do not wait until you need them to find them).
- Have someone meet you when traveling to unfamiliar destinations or when carrying packages into your home.
- If attacked, and the criminal's "only" intent is to steal your "property," do not resist!
- Make a quick mental picture of the criminal, but do not stare. Try to get pertinent details that would assist the police if the criminal is spotted shortly after the crime.
- Scream "FIRE" not "police" or "help." Most people instinctively respond to cries of fire than that of "help robbery".
- If you suspect someone in a car is following you, when you are walking, run in the opposite direction.
- When on campus, report suspicious persons and activities to campus police 806.1100. You could be preventing a crime. If not on campus, call 3-1-1 to make a report.

http://www.mpdc.gov
ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Bisexual Lesbian and Gay Organization of Students at Howard (BLGOSAH) will have its first meeting of the semester on Friday, September 6th, at 7:00 PM. It will be held in the Blackburn Center’s Music Listening Room (Ground level). All are Welcome!!!

Spring Break

Help Wanted
Mary Kay Cosmetics Orders Makeup or Skin Care Products
301-460-6295

Beauty in a Bag
301-460-6295

Moto Photo has several FT/PT positions. Must possess excellent communication skills, some photography knowledge and enjoy working with the public. Will train. Apply at One hour Moto Photo, Union Station, 50 Mass. Ave., N.E. or call 202-371-6445. Ask for Vivian

Beauty in a Bag
301-460-6295

Working mother needs mature student with flexible schedule and own car to get 5 year old daughter on to school in mornings and pick up in afternoons. Approximately 15-25 hours/week. Seeking year-long commitment. Live in or Live out arrangement possible. Upper NW home.

Call Sandra at 202-343-1946

Mary Kay Cosmetics Orders Makeup or Skin Care Products
301-460-6295

Personals

GOOD LUCK Harold Wolflnger!! -Derek-

TO THE 2001-2002 Student Ambassador E-Board:
YOU WERE AND ARE THE BEST!
01’-02’ CHAIRMAN

IS IT ME? OR DON’T YOU NEED TO PLACE A HILLTOPIC?
EMAIL US:
hilltoppubness@hotmail.com

Beauty in a Bag
301-460-6295

Derek Get Over It—Banana!

Hilltop Budget/Assignment meetings, Tuesdays, 7:40 pm, West Towers.

FOR RENT

FOR RENT

Beauty in a Bag
301-460-6295

ATTENTION ALL STUDENT AMBASSADORS!
THE FIRST GENERAL BODY MEETING OF THE YEAR WILL TAKE PLACE ON WEDNESDAY SEPTEMBER 11TH @ 6:00 PM IN THE BLACKBURN FORUM. PLEASE PLAN TO ATTEND IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO BE DISCUSSED!

Need math assistance? Get expert help today. Contact Fred @ (301) 588-3025

Happy Belated Birthday!! Xavier Carter 24/2

Happy Belated Birthday DANA!!

Thanks to those who stayed through the night with the Sunday (Macy, thank you for all the time you put in). Only if funny how McDonalds breakfast tastes so much better after working 18 hours straight!!

The EIC

Ms. Wyant-Hanold, you are THE MOST helpful person in Financial Aid. Thank you for everything—every year.

Good job! January No. 1 on your Chart

Happy Belated Makebra!!

Jamil—where are you? Come back—We NEED YOU!!

—The EIC

The Hilltop September 3, 2002