no maid. Just help by the hour when I need it.

Our spring has not really come yet. The chorus of the birds are back, so will not be long tho before the garden will need attention & that is a great time consumer.

Hope you are as well as I am and that everything is satisfactory with you.

Thank you again for remembering me -

Most cordially

Dear Mrs. Cooper:-

Your Easter remembrance reached me safely last week, and I appreciated, both your poem and your remembering me.

Thank you for sending it.

I shall use it just as many times as there are opportunities. As a response at roll call. both at the Study Club, & Church Aid Society.

and the basis for remarks at Bible school (of which I am Supt.) So you see I will try to make ^{the receipt of it} it worth while.

How long is it since you have heard from me?

The years fly by, like the wind, - much the same.

There was the Shaver letter as you know I am able to wield my pen - but that was impersonal.

My old Aunt, in her 94th year is still with me and has been quite a care since the last of Jan as she has been confined to her bed most of the time since then. - She had the flu, was in bed five weeks down stairs one week, & took cold again - as bad as the 1st attack & is still in bed, tho' a little stronger & sitting up a little each day. I am well and able to "do all my duties" as a little six year old girl said one time. & those duties are numerous as I keep
