Committee Meeting Marred by Disruption

By Charles Moers

Director of the Student Counseling and Mental Health Services, Howard University, Howard University Counseling Center, has an office in the Student Union Building. The counseling center offers a variety of mental health services to students, including individual and group therapy, counseling, and crisis intervention.

The center is open Monday through Thursday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Friday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Services are available to all students, regardless of their major or minor, and are confidential.

Meridian Hill Resident Murdered on "U" St.

By Permania F. Howard

A resident of Meridian Hill was murdered in an apparent robbery near his home on U Street.

The victim, a 35-year-old man, was found on the ground near a convenience store, where he had been seen earlier that day.

The crime is still under investigation, and the police are seeking anyone with information to come forward.

L.A.S.C. Suffers

$13,000 Budget Cut

By Charles Moers

The L.A.S.C. budget was cut by $13,000 for the upcoming year, which will impact the organization's ability to provide services to students.

The budget cut is due to a decrease in funding from the university and a decrease in membership dues.

Insurance Plan Developed

By Charles Moers

A new insurance plan has been developed for Howard University students.

The plan is designed to provide comprehensive coverage at an affordable cost.

Law School Holds Special Assembly

By Permania F. Howard

The Howard University School of Law held a special assembly to discuss important issues affecting the law school.

The assembly featured discussions on recent court decisions, legal developments, and opportunities for students.

Gaines tries to explain why budget was cut

By Permony F. Howard

Dr. Gaines, the director of the Counseling Center, attempted to explain why the budget was cut.

He said that the center was facing financial challenges and that the budget cut was necessary to maintain its operations.

The center provides a wide range of services to students, including counseling, mental health assessments, and crisis intervention.

The budget cut will affect the center's ability to provide services to students, and the center is currently seeking ways to mitigate the impact.

The center's future is uncertain, and the impact of the budget cut will depend on the availability of additional funding.
Campus Bulletin

Coming Soon!

October 18th, 1973

Fall Homecoming Cercerat

Homecoming Court:

- Pre-Game: 11:14 at p.m. in the Student Center
- Game: 7:00 p.m. vs. Virginia Commonwealth University

Exhibits:

- Museum: Freedom Hall
- Hall: Student Union

Faculty & Staff Volunteers:

- Donations: Cash, clothing, household items, food

Volunteer Sign-Up:

- Location: Student Union
- Deadline: October 15th

Volunteer Responsibilities:

- Orientation: October 16th
- Training: October 17th

Contact:

- Faculty: 555-1234
- Staff: 555-4567

---

Foreign Policy

Dee M. J. King, Staff Associate

American Political Science Association

Policy on Tuesday and Thursday

Meeting: Social Science Library

Foreign Policy Conference

- Date: October 13 at 10:00 p.m.
- Location: Social Science Library

Conference Topics:

- Regional Perspectives:
  - Asia
  - Latin America
  - Africa
  - Europe
  - Middle East

Call for Papers:

- Deadline: October 1

---

Illegal Aliens

- Issue: Legal status of illegal aliens
- Background: Immigration and the economy

---

Student Activities

- Theatre: Production of "Theatrical Ensemble"
- Sports: Intramural games

---

Student Life

- Events: Concerts, lectures, cultural events
- Locations: Student Union, Multipurpose Room

---

Local Bank Opens Howard U. Branch

- Name: Howard University Bank
- Location: Campus Center

---

African History

- Focus: Colonialism, post-colonial African societies
- Instructor: Dr. Joseph K. Nsengue

---

Local Bank Opens Howard U. Branch

- Location: Campus Center
- Services: Checking and savings accounts

---

Student Life

- Events: Concerts, lectures, cultural events
- Locations: Student Union, Multipurpose Room

---

Volunteer Assistance Bureau—Involves Howard

- Mission: To provide support to Howard University students through volunteerism

---

Support Staff

- Positions Available:
  - Administrative Assistants
  - Clerical Support

---

Campus News

- Recent Developments:
  - Student elections
  - Campus events

---

Volunteer Opportunities

- Requirements:
  - Minimum age 18
  - Background check

---

International Students

- Programs:
  - Exchange programs
  - Study abroad

---

Local Bank Opens Howard U. Branch

- Location: Campus Center
- Services: Checking and savings accounts

---

Student Life

- Events: Concerts, lectures, cultural events
- Locations: Student Union, Multipurpose Room

---

Volunteer Assistance Bureau—Involves Howard

- Mission: To provide support to Howard University students through volunteerism

---

Support Staff

- Positions Available:
  - Administrative Assistants
  - Clerical Support

---

International Students

- Programs:
  - Exchange programs
  - Study abroad
The Howard University Gallery of Art, located in the Fine Arts building, opened a one-man exhibition of paintings and sculptures by Michael Pike, who received his MFA from Howard last January.

Opening of the show began on September 7 in Gallery C of the Fine Arts building and will continue through September 21.

Pike, who believes that he has a central theme, makes good use of shades, textures, and colors, something he learned to do while at Howard's graduate school, and the Columbus College of Art Design, as an undergraduate.

One takes particular notice of Pike's use of lines, color and balance in his work, and descends lines to achieve the effect of smoothness, grace, and serenity. A line game to play while viewing is to try to grasp the expression of movement without reading the rule of the work. His sculptures pose show quite as much creativity as do his oils. All needs in art is a culmination of his theme is related to textures, and one can easily imagine Pike ar\n
Best World Magazine is not an actual magazine, but is why was Howard University established and why is it still here? Actually, Howard University was the first institution of higher learning for African Americans. In 1973, Howard University was founded as a private, coeducational, liberal arts, and professional, university. The university is widely recognized for its excellence in education and research, and is consistently ranked among the top universities in the United States. Howard University is located in the District of Columbia, and has a diverse student body of approximately 12,000 undergraduate and graduate students. The university offers a wide range of programs and degrees in fields such as business, economics, education, engineering, health sciences, humanities, law, and social sciences. Howard University is committed to providing a high-quality education to all students, regardless of their background or socio-economic status. The university is also known for its strong alumni network and its impact on the world, particularly in the fields of science, technology, medicine, and journalism. Howard University has produced many notable alumni, including former President Barack Obama, who graduated from the university in 1983, and a number of other high-profile individuals. The university is also known for its contributions to the arts, athletics, and community service. Overall, Howard University is a top-tier institution that remains a beacon of excellence in higher education for African Americans and beyond.
Bubba McKenta, president Architectural Council

Architectural Council

The Architectural School Student Council was first established in 1976 by the School of Architecture and Architecture School was merged into the University. The Student Council is the official representation of the student body and serves in an advisory capacity to the faculty and administration. The Student Council is responsible for the planning and implementation of student activities and serves as a liaison between the student body and the university administration.

The Council is run by a group of elected students and is responsible for the coordination of all student activities. The Council is also responsible for the development of policies and procedures that are essential to the functioning of the student body.

The Council consists of the President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, and various other positions, such as the Student Trustee, who represents the student body on the Board of Trustees.

The Council is responsible for the oversight of the Student Affairs Office and is responsible for the administration of student services, including the Student Union, the Student Activities Center, and the Student Life Center.

The Council is also responsible for the development of policies and procedures that are essential to the functioning of the student body.

PR Firm On Time

Dr. Thomas J. Conlon

A pr, 1984

The program was on time and on budget. The project was completed ahead of schedule. The client was pleased with the results.

New Journalism Head

By Roger Glas

The new head of the School of Journalism, Dr. Thomas J. Conlon, was appointed to the position on July 1, 1984. The appointment was made by the Board of Trustees.

Dr. Conlon comes to the University from the University of California, Berkeley, where he served as the Dean of the School of Journalism. He is also a former journalist and has written several books on journalism.

Hilltop

The Student Council of the University of California, Berkeley, was established in 1917. The Student Council is the official representation of the student body and serves in an advisory capacity to the faculty and administration. The Student Council is responsible for the planning and implementation of student activities and serves as a liaison between the student body and the university administration.

The Council is run by a group of elected students and is responsible for the coordination of all student activities. The Council is also responsible for the development of policies and procedures that are essential to the functioning of the student body.

The Council is responsible for the oversight of the Student Affairs Office and is responsible for the administration of student services, including the Student Union, the Student Activities Center, and the Student Life Center.

The Council is also responsible for the development of policies and procedures that are essential to the functioning of the student body.

The Best Food Doesn’t Cost More

Join the Organic Builder Club (OBC) and enjoy

- Fresh, organic produce
- Local, sustainable meats and dairy
- Healthy, whole foods

Feast of the Arts

The Feast of the Arts is a celebration of the arts and culture on the campus. The event features performances by students, faculty, and members of the community, as well as art exhibitions and workshops. The Feast of the Arts is a popular event and attracts a large crowd each year.

Allende Deposed In Chile

President Salvador Allende was deposed by a military coup in 1973. The coup was led by General Augusto Pinochet, who overthrew Allende and established a dictatorship.

The coup in Chile was a major event in the history of Latin America and had significant implications for the region. The coup was led by a group of military officers who were opposed to the socialist government of President Allende.

The coup resulted in the deaths of thousands of people and the repression of political opposition. The government of Pinochet was characterized by human rights abuses and political repression.

In the years following the coup, Chile experienced significant political and social instability. The economy was in crisis and the country was under international pressure to change its policies.

The coup in Chile was a major event in the history of Latin America and had significant implications for the region. The coup was led by a group of military officers who were opposed to the socialist government of President Allende.

The coup resulted in the deaths of thousands of people and the repression of political opposition. The government of Pinochet was characterized by human rights abuses and political repression.

In the years following the coup, Chile experienced significant political and social instability. The economy was in crisis and the country was under international pressure to change its policies.

The coup in Chile was a major event in the history of Latin America and had significant implications for the region. The coup was led by a group of military officers who were opposed to the socialist government of President Allende.

The coup resulted in the deaths of thousands of people and the repression of political opposition. The government of Pinochet was characterized by human rights abuses and political repression.

In the years following the coup, Chile experienced significant political and social instability. The economy was in crisis and the country was under international pressure to change its policies.
In the Memory of Calvin McKenzie

Howland is a unique place. Throughout the years noble and obscure men and women have walked down its hallowed halls making their various and sundry impressions on this land we call America. It's people are basically no different than any others. They have the same hopes and fears, triumphs and defeats, loves and hates common to us all. Howard folk, however, no matter how overwhelming the sense of size or grandeur of this institution, relate to its members as a family. And in any family when death occurs there are those mourning that death and those who find it somewhat less of a loss.

On this day the meaning of one of our own.

Many of us knew Calvin, not for his strength and speed as an athlete, or the striking height of his academic genius, nor for his formidable personal magnetism. Because Calvin McKenzie was a simple man. He was liked and loved by many, perhaps like in many cases, even disliked by a few. However, no matter what he was or strived to be, he spent his life working on the illusion that the thousands of others who have made Howard the great university it is, his death was a sad one. Vainly in a city filled with towering masses working out only a bare existence, and struggling against what might seem insurmountable odds. We share this tragedy with the school body and the thousands who can say at least that they approached encouraging words, or lending hand might have prevented his demise.

The facts and motives surrounding this incident are at this precise stage of ambiguity. No one can even say if they will ever come to light of truth. But these are only the vestiges of life.

Calvin McKenzie—Howard salutes you. Quiet and sensitive, yet noble brother.

---

The Challenge We Face

Henry L. Smith

Welcome to the world of the students which is the strength of Black America today. We are the future of this nation and we must work together to maintain the interest and the future of Black America. That future is in the hands of our leaders.

A critical mutation of political parties, so complex is the result, and is the most painful challenge we must overcome. Listening to how the country has moved, this challenge is our way to a true Black government and approach, with practical steps. Nipperly highlighted, this nation's struggle to find its energy and identity, and its impact on the world. The strength of our country is in turmoil. Our strength is in the nation's strength of Black and Black people's willingness to listen to our country's strength.

The strength of our country is in turmoil. Our strength is in the nation's strength of Black and Black people's willingness to listen to our country's strength.

The reason was that they were present, and they were the strength of this movement. This is our way to a true Black government and the nation's strength of Black and Black people's willingness to listen to our country's strength.

The reason was that they were present, and they were the strength of this movement. This is our way to a true Black government and the nation's strength of Black and Black people's willingness to listen to our country's strength.

About F.O.L.K.S.

By Richard Allen

There is a problem turning many black people's backs on America. It is a problem deeply rooted to the history of Black in America. America is the land of jealously, it is a place of jealousy people. It is not a place of jealousy people.

Youth gang wars exist on some college campuses. This is a problem deeply rooted to the history of Black in America. America is the land of jealously, it is a place of jealousy people. It is not a place of jealousy people.

The reason was that they were present, and they were the strength of this movement. This is our way to a true Black government and the nation's strength of Black and Black people's willingness to listen to our country's strength.

The reason was that they were present, and they were the strength of this movement. This is our way to a true Black government and the nation's strength of Black and Black people's willingness to listen to our country's strength.

Our strength is in the nation's strength of Black and Black people's willingness to listen to our country's strength.

Our strength is in the nation's strength of Black and Black people's willingness to listen to our country's strength.

Our strength is in the nation's strength of Black and Black people's willingness to listen to our country's strength.

Our strength is in the nation's strength of Black and Black people's willingness to listen to our country's strength.

The reason was that they were present, and they were the strength of this movement. This is our way to a true Black government and the nation's strength of Black and Black people's willingness to listen to our country's strength.

The reason was that they were present, and they were the strength of this movement. This is our way to a true Black government and the nation's strength of Black and Black people's willingness to listen to our country's strength.

Our strength is in the nation's strength of Black and Black people's willingness to listen to our country's strength.

Our strength is in the nation's strength of Black and Black people's willingness to listen to our country's strength.

Our strength is in the nation's strength of Black and Black people's willingness to listen to our country's strength.

Our strength is in the nation's strength of Black and Black people's willingness to listen to our country's strength.

The reason was that they were present, and they were the strength of this movement. This is our way to a true Black government and the nation's strength of Black and Black people's willingness to listen to our country's strength.

The reason was that they were present, and they were the strength of this movement. This is our way to a true Black government and the nation's strength of Black and Black people's willingness to listen to our country's strength.

Our strength is in the nation's strength of Black and Black people's willingness to listen to our country's strength.

Our strength is in the nation's strength of Black and Black people's willingness to listen to our country's strength.

Our strength is in the nation's strength of Black and Black people's willingness to listen to our country's strength.

Our strength is in the nation's strength of Black and Black people's willingness to listen to our country's strength.

The reason was that they were present, and they were the strength of this movement. This is our way to a true Black government and the nation's strength of Black and Black people's willingness to listen to our country's strength.

The reason was that they were present, and they were the strength of this movement. This is our way to a true Black government and the nation's strength of Black and Black people's willingness to listen to our country's strength.

Our strength is in the nation's strength of Black and Black people's willingness to listen to our country's strength.

Our strength is in the nation's strength of Black and Black people's willingness to listen to our country's strength.

Our strength is in the nation's strength of Black and Black people's willingness to listen to our country's strength.

Our strength is in the nation's strength of Black and Black people's willingness to listen to our country's strength.

The reason was that they were present, and they were the strength of this movement. This is our way to a true Black government and the nation's strength of Black and Black people's willingness to listen to our country's strength.

The reason was that they were present, and they were the strength of this movement. This is our way to a true Black government and the nation's strength of Black and Black people's willingness to listen to our country's strength.

Our strength is in the nation's strength of Black and Black people's willingness to listen to our country's strength.

Our strength is in the nation's strength of Black and Black people's willingness to listen to our country's strength.
ART DISPLAY

"Black Presence in Revolution"

By Al Jones

For those of us who missed her rousing performance at the Black Alley Theatre last spring, WTA channel 25 has now recorded Marlo Barnett's one-woman show. "Black is a Beautiful Woman," which it will air at 9 p.m. The show is Miss Barnett's dramatic interpretation of the black woman's experience through the poetry of renowned black writers. As a closed screening of the production this Tuesday at the station in South Arlington, this reporter who has seen the original presentation on stage, set out to discover how Margo captures across on the tube. Remarkably, the excellence of her performance at Black Alley was not diminished by the vacant effect the camera seemed to emphasize on the background. Before a live audience, Miss Barnett renders the works of such black writers as Langston Hughes, W. E. B. Du Bois and Paul Robeson, among others, with dramaticizations that echo both her words and her music. Finally, this black woman exposes the truth that others have attempted to erase in the past, she has made up for in the future.

BecallSt 0.

"Black Presence in Revolution"

By Al Jones

For those of us who missed her rousing performance at the Black Alley Theatre last spring, WTA channel 25 has now recorded Marlo Barnett's one-woman show. "Black is a Beautiful Woman," which it will air at 9 p.m. The show is Miss Barnett's dramatic interpretation of the black woman's experience through the poetry of renowned black writers. As a closed screening of the production this Tuesday at the station in South Arlington, this reporter who has seen the original presentation on stage, set out to discover how Margo captures across on the tube. Remarkably, the excellence of her performance at Black Alley was not diminished by the vacant effect the camera seemed to emphasize on the background. Before a live audience, Miss Barnett renders the works of such black writers as Langston Hughes, W. E. B. Du Bois and Paul Robeson, among others, with dramaticizations that echo both her words and her music. Finally, this black woman exposes the truth that others have attempted to erase in the past, she has made up for in the future.

"Black Presence in Revolution"

By Al Jones

For those of us who missed her rousing performance at the Black Alley Theatre last spring, WTA channel 25 has now recorded Marlo Barnett's one-woman show. "Black is a Beautiful Woman," which it will air at 9 p.m. The show is Miss Barnett's dramatic interpretation of the black woman's experience through the poetry of renowned black writers. As a closed screening of the production this Tuesday at the station in South Arlington, this reporter who has seen the original presentation on stage, set out to discover how Margo captures across on the tube. Remarkably, the excellence of her performance at Black Alley was not diminished by the vacant effect the camera seemed to emphasize on the background. Before a live audience, Miss Barnett renders the works of such black writers as Langston Hughes, W. E. B. Du Bois and Paul Robeson, among others, with dramaticizations that echo both her words and her music. Finally, this black woman exposes the truth that others have attempted to erase in the past, she has made up for in the future.
It was death - the violent death of those very close to me that led me to question things in depth.
H.N.I.C.

By Lafayette Johnson

"If you're interested in the sport of baseball, take the time to read this article. It's well written and informative. Moreover, it provides a great deal of information about the recent developments in the world of baseball." — Bill Parcells, Manager, New York Yankees

Bisons Open at Home Against Hawks

by Pete Smith

"The Bisons are showing signs of improvement, but they still have a long way to go before they become a contender in the league. The team is led by a young pitching staff, but their offense has yet to find its rhythm." — Joe Torre, Manager, New York Yankees

Bisons Open at Home Against Hawks

by Bob Lewis

"The Bisons are looking to improve their record by winning more games at home. They have a strong pitching staff and a solid defense, which should help them stay competitive." — Tony La Russa, Manager, St. Louis Cardinals

Sports

FRI., SEPT. 15, 1989

Bisons Slide By Morris Brown 14-13

by Mary Kaye

"The Bisons lost a close game against Morris Brown, but they will bounce back. The team's defense was solid, and they have a good pitching staff." — Dick Enberg, Sportscaster, CBS Sports

CHIEF or chief...

by Al Ollin

"The chief is a key figure in any sports organization. He sets the tone for the team and is responsible for making important decisions." — Arturo Pulido, President, Los Angeles Dodgers

Bisons Open at Home Against Hawks

by Gary Kim

"The Bisons have a tough schedule ahead, but they have the talent to compete with any team in the league. Their pitching staff is one of the best in the league, and their defense is solid." — Bob Uecker, Broadcaster, NBC Sports
Hammerin’ Hank

headin’ for home

By Marty Karte

If he had gone all the way he should have stopped out the Braves when they were a foot especially with No. 14 out at the plate. At least he was out of the game. Baseball may not be the most exciting game to watch, but Hank’s performance was. His single was a hit. But he didn’t get the hit. He was left on the field, and the only reason he was left was that he had the ball when he was hit No. 50. In the bottom of the seventh, he came back to bat for the remainder of the game.

Miracle Workers

By Bob Lewis

Often times the excitement of athletics, events, and plays are enhanced when those who help make the day special for the fans. Those who do this deserve the same tribute that the athletes who play the games do. I think we all work together to make the games a little better. I remember the day when I was a little kid and I was alone in the stands, you know what I mean? Just me, the crowd, and the game. And then I realized that it was the team’s fans who made the game better. They were the ones who made it fun to watch.

Bison Batter

GWU Pontious

By Bob Lewis

After watching the game against Coastal Carolina University, I can now say that our team has it all. The offense is great, and the defense is solid. The team is led by Coach Phil, who is always ready to help his players. I’m sure that with his guidance, our team will continue to improve.

A Rap With Phillips

By Gregory Kearse

As you can see, this is a great game. The offense is constantly moving, and the defense is solid. The team is led by Coach Phil, who is always ready to help his players. I’m sure that with his guidance, our team will continue to improve.

Howard University Football

This is the 15-10 of the Lions

Soccer Preview

By Lafayette Johnson

The Howard University soccer team is ready for the season. The team is led by Coach Phil, who is always ready to help his players. I’m sure that with his guidance, our team will continue to improve.
Campus Speak Out Questions

1. What organization in the U.S. do you feel is doing the most for the cause of Black Liberation today?
2. What role, if any, do you feel Howard plays in this cause?

Darrel Kennon, Grad School Physics Counseling
1. The KKK, in my opinion is making the draft volunteer. ROTC can turn blacks to leaders in the takeover.

Willis Pennington, Senior History
3. The Nation of Islam.
4. None, there is too much "Negro" complacency here at Howard. The ironic thing about it is, that this institution should be about the lack of perpetuating the Black Liberation Struggle.

Dr. D. George Kousoulas, Prof Political Science Dept.
1. Since the people in the Black community face a variety of problems, there is a need for many organizations, different efforts, varied approaches. For this reason, I cannot single out just one organization. It is the combined efforts that serve the course of Black liberation most effectively.
2. By our efforts, at Howard to prepare our students as best as we can contribute, I believe, in a realistic way to the strengthening of leadership in the Black community. Howard has a mission, and both faculty and students are part of the continuous effort to fulfill this mission.

Tawana Tolson, School of Communications Social Work
2. I feel that Howard plays no significant role in this cause.

Catherine L. Taylor, Educational Advisory Center
1. No single organization is doing the most of anything. But I do feel that although CBO has done more for OBVIOUS Black causes. Due to the "Thrill On The Hill", most of the fruitful efforts will be abandoned as of July 1, 1974.
2. I feel as though Howard University plays its largest role by offering Political Science in the College of A.D. and having a Law school of such qualities as to counter attack the "Thrill On The Hill" and save the dignity of Blacks through retradings for today's students.

Dr. Bahadhir Cole, Prof. Political Science Dept.
1. Each predominantly black organization deals with the problems in its own way. I believe that all of them are contributing to the solution of the problems faced by blacks in the country. I cannot therefore pick out one organization as "the" one that is most important.
2. Howard University plays an important role in that it develops and provides our students with the equipment with which to deal with the problems of the society as a whole and those of blacks especially.