Dear Mr. Smith: I trust what I am about to say may not wish a burden on anyone but I was so impressed on Thursday last with the beneficial effects actually noted in the school from the appearance in musical program of a "Faculty Chorus" I am tempted to ask if you do not think it a good idea to invite Miss Europe to form a perennial faculty glee club, an extra-curricula activity that would, I am sure, afford social pleasure, stimulate school spirit & furnish to the students whenever occasion ~~was offered~~ <sup>presents itself</sup> to sing before them, a standard of what may amuse without being coarse & that which teaches by means of the purest joy & relaxation (I know all the children will second my motion.) I <sup>may</sup> hope you forgive any suspicion you find of going outside my province in making this suggestion.
