

5-1910

Ein Knopf

Follow this and additional works at: https://dh.howard.edu/academy_herald

Recommended Citation

(1910) "Ein Knopf," The Academy Herald: Vol. 2: Iss. 2, Article 16.

Available at: https://dh.howard.edu/academy_herald/vol2/iss2/16

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by Digital Howard @ Howard University. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Academy Herald by an authorized editor of Digital Howard @ Howard University. For more information, please contact digitalservices@howard.edu.

EIN KNOPE.

A German farce was given under the auspices of the Senior Class in Andrew Rankin Chapel, May 12th. It proved to be a rare treat, being under the careful management of Miss Highwarden, whose very deep interest in the students and whose excellent service have always been most highly appreciated by the entire student body.

The Senior Class Day exercises were held in the chapel Tuesday evening, May 17th.

ATHLETIC NOTES.

F. A. TAYLOR.

Early one September morning, as the birds were softly singing among the rustling autumn leaves, a proud Paene prospective walked upon the campus of Howard University filled to the brim with hopes of becoming a star Prep. football man. But when, upon inquiry, he learned that no such team was in existence, his proud heart sank under the weight of this disappointment. He was not to be crushed, however, for after being informed that he would be allowed to try for the 'Varsity team, his drooping spirits revived and he took on a new determination. He would make himself a necessary man when the selection of a 'Varsity football team should be under consideration.

How well he kept his ambitious vow the records of the athletic field plainly show. He played in every important game from that September of 1907 to the Lincoln-Howard game of 1909. Although the lightest man on line, his comrades acknowledge him a tower of strength to Howard. He was the only man on the hill who made the 'Varsity this year. Just think, and a Prep.!

Among the sideline men the team had four good "subs."—