Mrs. Calvin Coolidge,
Washington, D. C.

My dear Mrs. Coolidge:-

Please forgive the intrusion of this note. It is sent you because of an injustice to a former Oberlin classmate of mine, who is the finest colored woman I ever knew. Her mental ability and her training, both in this country and abroad, are remarkable without regard to the color of her skin; but on one pretext or another she has been denied the "Group B" salary offered by law to "superior teachers".

On a separate sheet enclosed will be found her name and address with a mere mention of a few of her many points of qualification, in case you thought best to look into the matter.

Pardon the use of old stationery as that used by the National Society has not yet reached me.

With pre-congratulations to the ^{best} "First Lady" we have ever had, I am

Most sincerely "Her's",

(Mrs. N. Stone Scott)
