ABRAM LINCOLN HARRIS PAPERS
Collection 43-1

Prepared & Revised by:
Karen L. Jefferson
June 1980

Scope Note

The Abram Lincoln Harris Papers consist of 29 items and span the period 1919-1929. These papers were developed from Harris' research on the involvement of Negroes in the American Labor Movement, particularly in the Industrial Workers of the World (I.W.W.). In letters from Covington Hall and Benjamin H. Fletcher, both activists in the I.W.W.,

Harris gained information concerning the sociological and historical relationship between the I.W.W. and the Negro membership. Letters and pamphlets also provide data involving the American Socialist Party and the Negro. Research notes and manuscripts included with the papers further reflect the involvement of Negroes in the American Labor Movement.
