Recent vice president appointee resigns amidst accusations

More than $16,000 worth of vital equipment stolen from The HILTOP

The HILTOP was robbed of an estimated $16,000 worth of equipment last weekend. The thieves, who were well-armed, made off with a scanner, a printer, and some computers. The staff is furious and has called the police.

The theft occurred on Saturday, and the staff is calling for an immediate investigation. It is believed that the thieves entered the office around 3:00 AM and made off with the equipment.

According to Managing Editor Larry Williams, the theft is a serious blow to the operation of the newspaper. "We have some leads," Williams said. "We are confident the investigation will produce results." But the police are not releasing any information at this time.

The staff is calling for increased security measures and is urging the police to take action.

We’re taking the necessary precautions to prevent further losses and the culprits in this case will be brought to justice."

Bison take win streak to Baltimore

The Bison defense, which ranks third in the MEAC, should have no trouble with Morgan State.

According to head coach Steve Morgan, "We played well against Howard and I think we can continue that trend against Morgan State." Morgan said he expects his team to come out strong.

The Bison are currently on a six-game winning streak and are looking to extend it to seven.

Howard receives ancestral remains of former slave

By Nicole R. Alexander

The Howard University community recently gathered for a day of contemplation and reflection to mark the bicentennial of the Emancipation Proclamation. The event, titled "The Tics that Bind," detailed the exploration of their historical and cultural significance.

Ground in Five points

The event was held at the J. Blackburn Center Ballroom. It was attended by a diverse collection of students, faculty, and community members who gathered for a day of celebration.

Private residence of General Oliver Howard

The occasion marked the return of ancestral remains of former slaves, which had been held by the university for years. The remains were returned to the descendants of the slaves, who had been freed by General Oliver Howard, a former slave and a champion of civil rights.

Reconstruction period

The building was originally constructed during the Reconstruction period to meet the needs of newly freed slaves. It served as the university's third faculty tenure that ran in the November 5, 1993 issue of the University's newspaper.

Howard University Board of Trustees

The Department of Alumni Relations and the Howard University Board of Trustees is in charge of the project, which falls under the jurisdiction of the Office of the Undergraduate Trustee.

Alumni plan restoration of historic Howard Hall

Once the buildings are restored, it will serve as a focal point for returning alumni, visiting students, and community members. The project is considered to be revolutionary for the University because African Americans are working on the project.

Alumni get "professional" advertising direction

By Andrew G. Colton

Eleven of Howard University's advertising students picked their bags and headed to New York City this week to participate in a workshop hosted by the American Marketing Association (AMA). The workshop was designed to provide undergraduate students with an understanding of advertising and marketing.

Correction

Due to an error in the article "Student leaders voice opinion over debate of faculty tenure" that ran in the Nov 5, 1993 issue, the name of the Undergraduate Trustee was misspelled. The correct spelling of the Undergraduate Trustee's name is Leavy Matthews III.

VETERAN'S DAY: DIFFERENT DAY TO DIFFERENT PEOPLE

By L. J. Roma
Hilltop Staff Writer

Patricia hung flags outside her home, joined the new veterans way March to take advantage of the recognition on the wall and watched the Veteran's Day Parade on television yesterday. Patricia is one of the army officers who have sacrificed their lives for the country, and her daughter was always proud of her mother.

Patricia's two sons, William and Michael, were among the army officers who have served their country. They both were killed in action, and Patricia has not been able to come to terms with the loss of her children.

Patricia is not alone in her grief. Many families have lost loved ones in the war, and it is difficult to come to terms with the loss of a loved one.

Patricia's daughter, Mary, has been working with families who have lost loved ones in the war. She has helped them to come to terms with their grief and to find hope in the future.

Patricia is grateful for the support she has received from her family and friends. She knows that she is not alone in her grief, and that many people are working to help others who are struggling to come to terms with the loss of a loved one.

Bison deserve praise for a job well done

Right now, the Bison football team is the hottest team in Washington, D.C. It is a team that is familiar with having a winning tradition in sports, or at least football. The Bison, after finishing 2nd place in their conference, the Washington Conference, are playing pretty good, and although each of their games has been close, they have not let the lack of wins be an issue. The team is working hard to be at the top of their game. Football, at the moment, is at a state of a “state of the art” because the Redskins have taken over.

Who has the greatest influence on children? Is it the parents, the teachers of Braxton and Butthead? You know Beavis and Butt-head—they are two obnoxious, incomprehensible characters on MTV. The two foolish "role models" on their show do everything from sniffing paint thinner to not eating fries. At least about the two characters do get off, feeding jobs to earn money and watch and critique videos. Perhaps what is most disturbing are Beavis and Braxton in their hairs. "Uh huh cool.

So why are they an influence on children? Actually, they are not. It has been reported that a child has been taken to court every year and has won in a case that the program is to blame for the child's actions. The program is allegedly responsible because it is a program that is for entertainment. The program is not supposed to be harmful because it is for entertainment purposes. The program is not supposed to be harmful because it is for entertainment purposes. The program is not supposed to be harmful because it is for entertainment purposes. Letter to the Editor

The article that appeared in last week's Hilltop, "What African-American organizations must stop arguing," is an interesting piece. It is a well-written article that seems to be focused on the debate over African-American organizations and their role in society. The author's points are well taken and the article provides a good perspective on the issue.

I would like to add my two cents to the discussion. As an African-American, I find it disturbing that there are so many organizations that are focused on their own interests rather than on the needs of the community. It seems that some organizations are more concerned with their own survival than with the well-being of the people they are supposed to serve.

I would like to see more organizations that are truly committed to helping the African-American community. These organizations should be focused on providing services that are needed by the community, rather than on promoting their own agendas.

I am not sure if this is the message that the author of last week's article was trying to convey. It seems to me that the article could be improved by providing more specific examples of organizations that are doing good work.

I appreciate the opportunity to comment on this article and I hope that the editor will consider my thoughts.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]

Check out this Howard Uni­v­ersi­ty student to the serious mat­ter­ing of the day: the African continent. Yes, that the United States, no­mer­al­ized or not, has come to the decision of the day. My conclu­sion does not rest in the facts. It is based sus­pected or Afric­an­ism right­ly­sided and I am not an expert who could be, but 1 am an expert in the field of African Studies from Howard University. If I stand alone in my thoughts, for I am not the first to come to the conclusion that Africa is a cultural and political question. The first one to come to that conclusion is Senator, we have no input into the selection of federal judges, as we are denied access to the democratic process.

We not only lack autonomy on the African continent, we are also denied the right to self-determination, which is illegal in the eyes of the international community. The time has come to end the con­trivance of the residents of this capital of our nation. The time for DIAC is temporary.

African Heritage Dancers host anniversary concert

The Black Chr istic Black Church Project, the American Foundation for Advocacy, African American, and African American organizations such as the National Organization for Women need to understand that those in the African community can be Americanized.

"What some Americans may consider as native, in the African culture, it may not be. Organizations that deal with traditions and practices that are considered primitive do not fit well when urbanized effects are used. It is very unwise for women to make African culture to be major decisions especially when there is no discussion that has been performed for years. Communication is lack."

"I suggest that the organizations that would like to change things should start to communicate with those who live in the African American community and those who practice those rituals, be they.

Sankofa" takes viewers on a painful voyage to their past

By Genevieve Luck

"Sankofa" is a film that tells the story of a group of African Americans who return to Ghana after they are sold into slavery. The film is based on the true story of a group of slaves who were forced to leave their homes and families and shipped to the Americas. They were taken from their homes and forced to work on plantations, where they were treated cruelly. The film is a powerful reminder of the atrocities of slavery and the importance of remembering our past.

The film begins with the scene of a group of African Americans being sold into slavery on a slave ship. They are taken to a dock where they are forced to board the ship. The film then takes us back to the time when the slaves were sold into slavery.

The film is directed by Maya Angelou, who is an African American who has made a significant impact on American society. She is a writer, poet, and civil rights activist. She is also a teacher and a scholar. The film is based on her book, "Sankofa: A New History of Slavery and the African American Community.

The film is a powerful reminder of the atrocities of slavery and the importance of remembering our past. It is a film that will stay with you long after you've seen it.

Strachan spreads success to several arenas

Associate Director of Student Activities has more than Howard in mind

By L. Pamela Shom

When I was working for Federal Activities, I was assigned director for Student Activities. "Some people held positions in Student Activity and didn't know what their responsibilities were," Strachan commented. "I was a director and it was my responsibility to know what the responsibilities were." Strachan became interested in what his position meant because he was told that Howard University has one of the best student activity programs in the country.

Strachan, a native of Howard County, Maryland, came to Howard to work on the cable television station. The cable was a new medium he had never heard of, but he was interested in it. He wanted to learn about it and see if it was something he could see himself doing.

When he came to Howard, he was assigned the position of director of Student Activities. He was responsible for all aspects of Student Activities, from organizing events to managing the budget. He was also responsible for the Student Activities Board, which had the authority to make decisions about programming and events.

Strachan said that he was interested in the role of Student Activities in the university community. He wanted to see how it could be used to promote student involvement and leadership.

Strachan's work at Howard University has been successful. He has been responsible for organizing numerous events and activities, including the annual SpringFest and the Homecoming celebration. He has also been responsible for managing the budget for Student Activities, which has allowed him to provide funding for student organizations and events.

He has also been involved in the development of the Student Activities Board, which now has over 200 students as members.

Red Fox has been extremely popular in his native Jamaica, where he has developed his unique mix of reggae and dancehall music. His career took off after he released his first single, "Yellowman," which became an instant hit and sparked a series of albums and tours that made him a household name throughout the region.

Red Fox's success can be attributed to his ability to connect with his audience on a personal level. His music is characterized by its raw energy and emotional depth, which has resonated with fans across generations.

In recent years, Red Fox has continued to push the boundaries of his craft, incorporating elements of soca and afrobeat into his music. Despite the changes, his commitment to authenticity and authenticity has remained intact, making him a true icon of Jamaican music.
Number of student mothers is increasing on college campuses

Juggling books and babies, according to these women, is no easy task but with the right kind of child care, caring and understanding professors, good support systems, and a little time management on their part, these student mothers are dispelling the myth that one can be too young to care for a child.

They may also be dispelling the idea that a woman must sacrifice an education if she wants to be a mother.

Evelyn Sandoval, along with some of the other mothers, has formed a mothers-in-work that intends to help one another out. If there are any mothers who want to join us to help or be helped, contact the Templo Kot se at The HILLTOP at 800-4736. The last MEAC Championship for the Lady Spikers was in 1991, when they defeated FAMU to win the title.

According to Beard, the team finished with 32 points and second place in the University of Maryland Eastern Shore, which finished with 98 points.

The Lady Spikers were led by forward/guard Donnell Howard, who had a time of 33:41. He was followed by Eastern State University, which finished with 21:52. She was followed by Howard, who had a time of 21:34. Pryor, Upham and Randall also scored for the Bison.

The team trials next spring for the championships since 1993, when they hosted North Carolina A&T.
The team to beat, because they are bringing everyone back, including the experienced players, Beard said. "I think that the team will be able to handle any challenges they may face.

The team's motto for the upcoming indoor season is "Be the best you can be," and they plan to achieve this through hard work and dedication. The team is looking forward to the upcoming indoor season and the opportunity to compete against some of the best teams in the country.

AMIR WAS BUT A YOUNG BOY SEVEN. YET HE KNEW HE FELT SOMETHING STRONG FOR THE CHIEF'S DAUGHTER. TASHI WAS A BEAUTIFUL GIRL WHO COULD PLAY WITH THE BOYS AND STILL ACT LIKE THE PRINCESS. WHAT MORE COULD A BOY OF SEVEN WANT IN A YOUNG GIRL?

AND SHE WOULD LOOK AT HIM AND SMILE. SHE LIKED HIM AND HE LIKED HER.

THE YEARS WENT BY AND AMIR AND TASHI GOT CLOSER. THEIR MUD CAKE MAKE-BELIEVE DINNERS EVENTUALLY BECAME MOON-LIGHT DINNERS ON THE HILLTOP.

AND SHE WOULD LOOK AT HIM AND SMILE. SHE LOVED HIM AND HE LOVED HER.

ONE NIGHT A DREAM DISTURBED TASHI TERRIBLY. SHE CRIED FOR HER PRINCE AND HE CAME. SHE TOLD HIM OF THE PALE FACE AND ITS EVIL SHE TOLD HIM OF FIRE AND BLOOD. SHE TOLD HIM THAT ONE DAY THEY WOULD BE SEPARATED AND THEIR LOVE FOR EACH OTHER WOULD END.

If you thought college was expensive, try putting yourself through retirement.

Think about supporting yourself for twenty-five, thirty years or longer in retirement. It might be the greatest financial test you'll ever face. Fortunately, you have one valuable asset in your favor: Time.

Time to take advantage of tax-deferral.

Time for your money to grow.

But starting early is key. Consider this: If you begin saving just five a month at age thirty, you could accumulate $154,031 by the time you reach age sixty-five. Wait ten years and you'd need to set aside $211 a month to reach the same goal.

At TIAA-CREF, we not only understand the value of starting early, we can help make it possible—with flexible retirement and tax-deferred annuity plans, a diverse portfolio of investment choices, and a record of personal service that spans 75 years.

Over a million people in education and research are already enrolled in America's largest retirement system. Find out how easy it is to join them. Call today and learn how simple it is to put yourself through retirement when you have time and TIAA-CREF on your side.

Start planning your future. Call our Enrollment hotline 1 800 842-2888.

75 years of ensuring the future for those who shape it.

HAPPY 21ST BIRTHDAY!!!!!
