WILLIAM HENRY HUNT PAPERS
Collection 55-1 to 55-12

Prepared & Revised by:
Greta S. Wilson
January 1981

MANUSCRIPT DIVISION

Scope Note

The William Henry Hunt Papers extend from the years 1898 to 1941. They measure approximately 6 linear feet including several rolls of wrapped documents.

The bulk of the material is the correspondence of his wife, Ida Gibbs Hunt. Also included, however, are manuscripts, programs, invitations, announcements, photographs, and cards arising out of their diplomatic and organizational activities. There is a scrapbook and miscellaneous newspaper and magazine clippings pertaining to Hunt's diplomatic career, as well, as several documents relating to his various appointments as Consul in the Foreign Service. The collection also contains the diplomas of Ida and Hattie Gibbs.
