Resolutions

The following set of resolutions is a loving tribute to the late Mr. John W. Lowe, of Danville, Virginia and to Miss Ruth V. Smith of New Orleans, Louisiana, both of whom departed this life since close of school, June fifth, Anno Domino nineteen hundred and thirteen.

Whereas, it has pleased God to remove from our midst our schoolmates and friends, John W. Lowe and Ruth V. Smith;

In as much as it is but just that there should be a fitting recognition of their many virtues; therefore, be it resolved:

That in the deaths of Mr. Lowe and Miss Smith, the student body of the Academy laments the loss of two of its members, who were always respected and beloved by classmates and fellow students and be it further resolved:

That in our sorrow for the loss ere their prime of these promising lives, we find consolation in the thought that it is well with these two for whom we mourn.

And be it still further resolved:

That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of Miss Smith and the family of Mr. Lowe as a token of our respect and affection for our departed schoolmates and a mark of sympathy for their mourning friends.

And be it lastly resolved:

That a copy of these resolutions be printed in the Academy HERALD and spread on the minutes of the Senior Class of the Academy.

Fame is no plant that grows on

Mortal soil,

Nor in the glistening foil

Set off to the world, nor in broad rumor lies,

But lives and spreads aloft by those pure eyes

And perfect witness of all judging Jove;

As He pronounces lastly on each deed,

Of so much fame in Heaven expects thy need.
