Two Drew Hall Residents Shot Saturday

By Kerry-Ann Hamilton

Almost 2:30 a.m. on Saturday Morning two freshmen males whose names will be withheld to safeguard their safety were shot by an unidentified gunman outside the Howard Chinese Cultural Center. According to Campus Police Chief, Reginald Smith, the two Drew Hall residents were coming some female visitors from a neighboring university to get a cab when the shooting occurred. Smith said the students began to shoot the scene when the taller resident shot the two residents. One of the victims was shot three times in the leg, while the other was shot once. The students are said to be in serious but stable condition after undergoing emergency treatment at neighboring hospitals. Adams Hall, an Assistant Director of the victim in Saturday’s attack, said he was able to see one of the residents before they were taken to hospital. “For was lying on the couch in the lobby before the ambulance arrived,” Adams said. However, Adams’ account differed from that of the campus police. “The residents and victims were waiting in the lobby where the campus security officers were to leave the lobby area by the First Bus Attendant.” Ralph said. “They then moved to the courtyard where the campus security officers on duty summoned the paramedics. It was at that point the residents left for another avenue.” But Chief Smith said the resident had to get the cab on Georgia Avenue because the cell company refused to pick the residents up outside Drew Hall because the area is said to be bad. “My staff and I walked through the incident,” Smith said. “I went back to the scene on Saturday morning after the incident to ensure that the students, received our support and we were able to answer questions and address concerns.” said Mark Lee, the community director of Drew. “There were individuals who were fearful, but there was also a lot of anger.” At the time of press, the residents were still residing in the hospital. The investigation is being conducted by Metropolitan and Campus Police.

The Hilltop endorses Charles Coleman for Graduate Trustee, Jacques Purvis for Undergraduate Trustee, and Daniel Blakemore and Faith Wallis with reservation for HUSA executive office.

See The Hilltop Endorsements in The Special Magazine Issue Inside!

Quad Community Director, Green ‘Resigns’ Last Week

By Stephanie Crooms & David Johns

In a recent Hilltop article candidates were critical of the General Election process stating that many student candidates were not given equal opportunities. Formerly a Representative to the General Election Committee, former Howard University Student Area Housing Assembly (HAAS) and current Howard University Student Area Housing Assembly (HAAS) and current Howard University Student Area Housing Assembly (HAAS) and current representative for the Student Governmentfor the School of Business, is disappointed with the General Election process. "I feel that the priorities have gotten reversed so far as the General Elections Staff," Bowes said. "Our criteria for who speaks out is completely overruled by the candidates.

In an attempt to avoid an unpleasant situation, the Electronic Committee is left to implement and enforce guidelines, establish forums for the discussion of candidates and students, and to train student voting officers in the procedures and policies governing the upcoming election that is fast approaching in D.C. and with the threat of war and terrorism I wanted to move back to the West Coast and deal with my granddaughters." According to Green’s account the reason for her decision was to leave the Univeristy in the best interest of the University.

Our efforts to contact Fraternity Chapters/ Clubs (to speak on the matter) have been unsuccessful. But with the perpetual petitions, campus community relations have been recorded that the University has agreed to allow the students to vote.

See LEADERS page A7

Mock Trial Team New ‘Beast of the East’

By Aisha Chaney

Howard University's Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Mock Trial team, Howard first and sixth out of 24 teams this weekend in the annual Eastern Regional Tournament, hosted by the University of Maryland in College Park, MD. Since 1990, the University of Maryland has been the University of Maryland Mock Trial Team. For Howard Mock Trial Team, the most recent past was a district and regional champion. This year, the team was awarded the regional championship. The competition consisted of four, three-hour rounds, in which the teams argued a case before a panel of judges in the regional tournament. After the competition, the Howard Mock Trial Team members received a call to attend the national tournament. The Howard Mock Trial Team members were awarded a call to the national tournament.

The team was considered one of the top teams in the nation. The team was awarded the national championship.

The outstanding legal representation of the attorneys and the acting of the witnesses were recognized at the end of the tournament when the Jay Justice and Georgia Marenaw were given awards.

The Mock Trial Team was awarded the Trumpet Trophy. The team was awarded the competition winning award.

The competition was attended by 24 teams, all of which were judged on their opening statement, the presentation of the case-in-chief, and the plaintiffs presentation of the case-in-chief. The team was awarded the championship.

See TRIAL page A7

Student Leaders Question Elections

By Stephanie Crooms & David Johns

In a recent Hilltop article candidates were critical of the General Election process stating that many student candidates were not given equal opportunities. Formerly a Representative to the General Election Committee, former Howard University Student Area Housing Assembly (HAAS) and current representative for the Student Government for the School of Business, is disappointed with the General Election process. "I feel that the priorities have gotten reversed so far as the General Elections Staff," Bowes said. "Our criteria for who speaks out is completely overruled by the candidates.

In an attempt to avoid an unpleasant situation, the Electronic Committee is left to implement and enforce guidelines, establish forums for the discussion of candidates and students, and to train student voting officers in the procedures and policies governing the upcoming election that is fast approaching in D.C. and with the threat of war and terrorism I wanted to move back to the West Coast and deal with my granddaughters." According to Green’s account the reason for her decision was to leave the University in the best interest of the University.

Our efforts to contact Fraternity Chapters/ Clubs (to speak on the matter) have been unsuccessful. But with the perpetual petitions, campus community relations have been recorded that the University has agreed to allow the students to vote.

See LEADERS page A7

Inside

Do you dislike the new housing policy? Do something about it!

See Perspectives, page B7.
Bishop MacKenzie Delivers Powerful Message

By Monica Almond
Contributing Writer

Rankel Chapel was packed last Wednesday night with a full audience who came to witness the Right Reverend Vandye Murphy McKenzie deliver a powerful and purposeful message that had the audience intensely engaged in the issues of her diocese.

Reverend McKenzie's message was entitled, "The Last Word."

"We don't have to think about it and we don't have to believe it but there are many things that are out of our control."

God is always preparing for the next generation of leadership," she said while citing weaknesses in those who are not ready to let go. "Some folk are afraid that the new leadership is going to steal their program and take away their power."

"We are afraid we will be rejected. We are afraid and feeling convicted to be a fool of ourselves," McKenzie said.

"We are afraid we will be a perpetual student and an insecure master."
Justin George, An Undergrad Trustee Hopeful

By Monica Almond
Contributing Writer

A native of Hawaii and the son of southern parents, Justin K. George believes that his background as an undergraduate trustee is legitimized by his diverse life experiences.

A 23-year-old intern at the Howard University Student Association’s Office of Student Activities, George speaks German as a second language. While at Howard, he has spent time running and classroom participating in a variety of programs, which have helped to expose him to a range of people with diverse backgrounds.

Currently a volunteer with Howard University Student Association’s Office of Student Activities, George says he has worked to inform the student body about school events. This undergraduate trustee hope is also coordinator for the Health Awareness Coalition at Howard University (HACH) where he has not only worked with a panellists targeting healthcare and sexual dilemmas on a regular basis, but was appointed to HACH. He is also a part of the student organization President Program. George’s main task to become undergraduate trustee stems from the overpopulation of the student community to prepare public leaders.

“I want to be a ‘trustee’ because I want to guarantee an inclusive existence in current and future Howard students’ lives,” he says. “I want Howard to continue to mold people for the global community as well as ensure the environment of Brotherhood and Prosperity. We hope to achieve this goal by providing education and an appropriate mindset for the realities of the position.”

It is not fair to say that a trustee represents the students when he or she takes an oath to discuss what they did not know.

See TRUSTEE page A7

No story was completed for Undergraduate Trustee candidate Silas Cardwell as he failed to provide The Hilltop with an interview in a timely fashion.

Arts and Sciences Election Accused of Unethical Conduct

By Edith Seidlof
Contributing Writer

There are many reasons why the student vote for elections in school is high. Candidates for Howard and National Science Foundation (NSF) involvement in student voting results from the campaigning going on in election.

During the Arts and Sciences election, Howard students are being asked about the local elections and opportunities for National Science Foundation voting. Richardson is program director in the Arts and Sciences Undergraduate Office and Woody is her assistant.

“Several other candidates were accused of unethical conduct because Orit Richardson should not have been appointed as local election coordinator and the relationship with Woody would fail,” said Richardson at the end of the meeting.

Richardson is program director in the Arts and Sciences Student Council and Woody is her assistant.

“Several other candidates were accused of unethical conduct because Orit Richardson should not have been appointed as local election coordinator and the relationship with Woody would fail,” said Richardson at the end of the meeting.

Richardson is program director in the Arts and Sciences Student Council and Woody is her assistant.

On the same page. Ask him what his average day is like and whether he could give you a discrete answer, "It depends, whether we are on a warm, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday or Friday," he says. "Every day is different.”

Campaigning for the trustee's school is an ongoing and intense activity. "We do not have to think of any other thing that need to be done," says Orit Richardson, "we have to think of all the things that need to be done." He says that campaign for the trustee starts with making sure that all the students vote.

This last weekend leading up to the general elections will provide the candidates with different challenges yet barely. Having enough time to rest and address class, they now have to pass out more flyers, make more campaign stops. It doesn’t seem like any other day with their already busy student society.

The question is, "What more difficult; operating in or campaigning to get elected to office?"

Women’s Studies

By Veronica-Marché Miller
Staff Writer

Campaigning is all about winning. Cam­paigning, rallies, and sleeping that is. However, some students feel they are not used in the sense of handing out paper handbills. Rather, it requires strategic planning — scheduling dorm shows, preparing speeches, real-television with committees, and sometimes just putting their platform in the hands of the public without any campaign activities.

"I think it is important for students to participate in a ‘Kick Back,’ forum organized by former Public Relations Director Suzan Delany on Saturday in the DeWitt Hall Residential Lounge. Some of the topics debated included the importance of independent solutions and the need to promote their platform. "It was a good opportunity to speak with the public, and we also had a campaign coordinator," said Undergraduate Trustee candidate Jacques Purvis.

"I want to be a ‘trustee’ because I want to guarantee an inclusive existence in current and future Howard students’ lives,” he says. "I want Howard to continue to mold people for the global community as well as ensure the environment of Brotherhood and Prosperity. We hope to achieve this goal by providing education and an appropriate mindset for the realities of the position.”

It is not fair to say that a trustee represents the students when he or she takes an oath to discuss what they did not know.

See TRUSTEE page A7

No story was completed for Undergraduate Trustee candidate Silas Cardwell as he failed to provide The Hilltop with an interview in a timely fashion.

Arts and Sciences Election Accused of Unethical Conduct

By Edith Seidlof
Contributing Writer

There are many reasons why the student vote for elections in school is high. Candidates for Howard and National Science Foundation (NSF) involvement in student voting results from the campaigning going on in election.

During the Arts and Sciences election, Howard students are being asked about the local elections and opportunities for National Science Foundation voting. Richardson is program director in the Arts and Sciences Student Council and Woody is her assistant.

"Several other candidates were accused of unethical conduct because Orit Richardson should not have been appointed as local election coordinator and the relationship with Woody would fail,” said Richardson at the end of the meeting.

Richardson is program director in the Arts and Sciences Student Council and Woody is her assistant.

On the same page. Ask him what his average day is like and whether he could give you a discrete answer, "It depends, whether we are on a warm, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday or Friday," he says. "Every day is different.”

Campaigning for the trustee's school is an ongoing and intense activity. "We do not have to think of any other thing that need to be done," says Orit Richardson, "we have to think of all the things that need to be done." He says that campaign for the trustee starts with making sure that all the students vote.

This last weekend leading up to the general elections will provide the candidates with different challenges yet barely. Having enough time to rest and address class, they now have to pass out more flyers, make more campaign stops. It doesn’t seem like any other day with their already busy student society.

The question is, "What more difficult; operating in or campaigning to get elected to office?"

Women’s Studies

By Veronica-Marché Miller
Staff Writer

Campaigning is all about winning. Cam­paigning, rallies, and sleeping that is. However, some students feel they are not used in the sense of handing out paper handbills. Rather, it requires strategic planning — scheduling dorm shows, preparing speeches, real-television with committees, and sometimes just putting their platform in the hands of the public without any campaign activities.
Iraq Begins Disarming

US, UK Still Unconvinced by Cooperation

By Ria Marie Davis

Hill Staff Writer

In an attempt to ease the pressure for disarmament, Iraq agreed to dismantle its 16-inch missile program and destroy its biological weapons facilities. In addition, the US and the UK are calling for a “light, but serious” inspection of the site to ensure that the inspection is thorough and that the results in terms of disarmament have been very limited.

Iraq has been cooperative in the past, but the Bush administration is still unconvinced of its intentions. On September 11, the US and the UK jointly declared that the Iraqis had failed to take the “final opportunity” to disarm and that the inspection of the site was limited.

The US and the UK are planning to send a team of inspectors to Iraq to ensure that the disarmament process is thorough and that the results in terms of disarmament have been very limited.
By Sean Jackson

By Jonathan Granum

Precious Fusion - Confusion

Electricity: we use it...
Learning How to Play the Tax Game

By Ashley Kelly
Hilltop Staff Writer

With April 15 looming ahead, many students prepare to file their taxes. The tax equation includes finding the best price, plus the adequate type of software to determine if additional coverage is needed to file online for free, with Free File.

All full-time and postgraduate students are automatically eligible for Free File, which is available until the April 15 deadline. Whether or not you use H&R Block, each student will eventually need to pay taxes.

For most relatively healthy students, paying someone to prepare their taxes is not worth the money since what is covered or excluded from coverage.

Deductible: money which must be paid each year to cover medical care expenses before insurance policy starts paying.

Out of pocket maximum: the highest amount a person must pay for medical care, after using the deductible. If a person is close to their out of pocket maximum, they may want to consider using the remaining amount of their deductible to pay a hospital bill or specialty treatment.

Base Terms:

Co-payment: the fee you pay every time a medical service is received.

PPO: the most common type of health insurance that usually covers a percentage of the cost of care (often 60%) after the consumer pays an annual deductible. Many employers offer PPOs to their employees for their health insurance.

HMO: prepaid health plans which in a monthly premium is paid and the HMO covers the cost of care to see doctors within their network at pre-negotiated rates.

A primary care physician who coordinates care and makes referrals to any specialist must be chosen. For HMO members who do not use the doctors, hospital and pharmacy network of their plan, they will be responsible for paying the cost of those medical services.

The two most common types of health insurance that usually cover a percentage of the cost of care (often 60%) after the consumer pays an annual deductible are the HMO and the PPO. Many employers offer their employees PPOs for their health insurance.

The premium is the initial amount paid in exchange for insurance coverage.

Basic Terms:

Learning How to Play the Tax Game

By Ashley Kelly
Hilltop Staff Writer

With April 15 looming ahead, many students prepare to file their taxes. The tax equation includes finding the best price, plus the adequate type of software to determine if additional coverage is needed to file online for free, with Free File.

All full-time and postgraduate students are automatically eligible for Free File, which is available until the April 15 deadline. Whether or not you use H&R Block, each student will eventually need to pay taxes.

For most relatively healthy students, paying someone to prepare their taxes is not worth the money since what is covered or excluded from coverage.

Deductible: money which must be paid each year to cover medical care expenses before insurance policy starts paying.

Out of pocket maximum: the highest amount a person must pay for medical care, after using the deductible. If a person is close to their out of pocket maximum, they may want to consider using the remaining amount of their deductible to pay a hospital bill or specialty treatment.

Base Terms:

Co-payment: the fee you pay every time a medical service is received.

PPO: the most common type of health insurance that usually covers a percentage of the cost of care (often 60%) after the consumer pays an annual deductible. Many employers offer PPOs to their employees for their health insurance.

HMO: prepaid health plans which in a monthly premium is paid and the HMO covers the cost of care to see doctors within their network at pre-negotiated rates.

A primary care physician who coordinates care and makes referrals to any specialist must be chosen. For HMO members who do not use the doctors, hospital and pharmacy network of their plan, they will be responsible for paying the cost of those medical services.

The two most common types of health insurance that usually cover a percentage of the cost of care (often 60%) after the consumer pays an annual deductible are the HMO and the PPO. Many employers offer their employees PPOs for their health insurance.

The premium is the initial amount paid in exchange for insurance coverage.

Learning How to Play the Tax Game

By Ashley Kelly
Hilltop Staff Writer

With April 15 looming ahead, many students prepare to file their taxes. The tax equation includes finding the best price, plus the adequate type of software to determine if additional coverage is needed to file online for free, with Free File.

All full-time and postgraduate students are automatically eligible for Free File, which is available until the April 15 deadline. Whether or not you use H&R Block, each student will eventually need to pay taxes.

For most relatively healthy students, paying someone to prepare their taxes is not worth the money since what is covered or excluded from coverage.

Deductible: money which must be paid each year to cover medical care expenses before insurance policy starts paying.

Out of pocket maximum: the highest amount a person must pay for medical care, after using the deductible. If a person is close to their out of pocket maximum, they may want to consider using the remaining amount of their deductible to pay a hospital bill or specialty treatment.

Base Terms:

Co-payment: the fee you pay every time a medical service is received.

PPO: the most common type of health insurance that usually covers a percentage of the cost of care (often 60%) after the consumer pays an annual deductible. Many employers offer PPOs to their employees for their health insurance.

HMO: prepaid health plans which in a monthly premium is paid and the HMO covers the cost of care to see doctors within their network at pre-negotiated rates.

A primary care physician who coordinates care and makes referrals to any specialist must be chosen. For HMO members who do not use the doctors, hospital and pharmacy network of their plan, they will be responsible for paying the cost of those medical services.

The two most common types of health insurance that usually cover a percentage of the cost of care (often 60%) after the consumer pays an annual deductible are the HMO and the PPO. Many employers offer their employees PPOs for their health insurance.

The premium is the initial amount paid in exchange for insurance coverage.

Learning How to Play the Tax Game

By Ashley Kelly
Hilltop Staff Writer

With April 15 looming ahead, many students prepare to file their taxes. The tax equation includes finding the best price, plus the adequate type of software to determine if additional coverage is needed to file online for free, with Free File.

All full-time and postgraduate students are automatically eligible for Free File, which is available until the April 15 deadline. Whether or not you use H&R Block, each student will eventually need to pay taxes.

For most relatively healthy students, paying someone to prepare their taxes is not worth the money since what is covered or excluded from coverage.

Deductible: money which must be paid each year to cover medical care expenses before insurance policy starts paying.

Out of pocket maximum: the highest amount a person must pay for medical care, after using the deductible. If a person is close to their out of pocket maximum, they may want to consider using the remaining amount of their deductible to pay a hospital bill or specialty treatment.

Base Terms:

Co-payment: the fee you pay every time a medical service is received.

PPO: the most common type of health insurance that usually covers a percentage of the cost of care (often 60%) after the consumer pays an annual deductible. Many employers offer PPOs to their employees for their health insurance.

HMO: prepaid health plans which in a monthly premium is paid and the HMO covers the cost of care to see doctors within their network at pre-negotiated rates.

A primary care physician who coordinates care and makes referrals to any specialist must be chosen. For HMO members who do not use the doctors, hospital and pharmacy network of their plan, they will be responsible for paying the cost of those medical services.

The two most common types of health insurance that usually cover a percentage of the cost of care (often 60%) after the consumer pays an annual deductible are the HMO and the PPO. Many employers offer their employees PPOs for their health insurance.

The premium is the initial amount paid in exchange for insurance coverage.
Mock Trial Team New 'Beast of the East'

TRIAL from A1

“Beast of the East,” Harmon said. “That’s what we call it.”

“We’re very happy with the outcome. We have to step it up to make it the big dance,” The National Competition,” Isaac Medley-Louds said.

Dr. Jenkins, director and coach of the Mock Trial Team, expects to win the tournament in Bloomington.

“We’re very happy that we’re going to begin in Bloomington. We’ve been on it all week,” Walther said.

He feels that the family atmosphere of the team contributed to its success. Before the competition, Dr. Janaitte L. Jones, Dean of the School of Communications gave the team a pep talk.

“It’s wonderful to have the support of the school. It’s a different feel when the students know how much the school appreciates you!” Walther said. “We will do our best to bring home the gold.”

Quad Director ‘Resigns’

QUAD from A1

“I failed to report a bag falling in Truth Hall as expediently as Mr. Chambers wanted which understandably caused concern. If you were able to report sooner because my staff member was also unaware of the situation, he was sick, which may explain his later report of it. Mr. Chambers said he would not enact any discipline in this regard.”

At the time of the interview, Green was very concerned and at one point cried openly.

In retrospect, Green said he regrets informing her employer of her intention to resign because of the adverse reaction.

“Being Female President of a Student Senate is a problem. I am not sure if the situation calls for the sexually harassment office to become involved,” Green was very emotional about her position.

Corey Cunningham, Executive Assistant to the Dean of Students, has been granted leave of absence by Events Coordinator Larry Brown as he struggles to find a solution.

Brown and the Dean are seeking the advice of the national organization’s legal advisor to find a solution.

“I need to call an emergency General Assembly meeting to discuss the situation and determine how to proceed. I also need to have written guidelines and a protocol developed for the Grievance Committee. The President of the Senate and the Student Assembly will present a report on the happenings in elections and the Emergency Meeting has been called.”

Although some General Assembly members do view the happenings in elections as a problem, to date no Emergency Meeting has been called.

However, Williamson said that the protocol has followed procedures in regards to election grievance process and explained the role of the Election Committee and the Grievance Committee.

“I feel that the chair, Green, is not aware of the situation, unlike the former chair, Douglas, who was more aware of the situation.”

Walther said, “I will do my best to bring home the gold.”

Elli Marsalis is considered one of the world’s most famous pianists. He has taught at some of the world’s finest conservatories and has traveled the world extensively.

To my knowledge there have been no grievances filed with the Elections Grievance Committee. Williamson said, “If the individuals who filed grievances with the Grievance Committee and were not pleased they could then appeal to the Grievance Committee within the General Assembly.”

While Williamson maintains he has no knowledge of filing grievances, former Public Relations chair Neil Radier maintains that the General Assembly has to be aware of the problems surrounding the Elections Committee.

“I have filed a grievance with the Student Assembly, the Student Government, and the Student Senate. I am now being offered an appeal process.”

He said, “Additionally, Kellie Brown, Coordinator of Elections, and HUSA has been documenting my frustrations with the Elections committee and their questionable practices.”

According to Marwan Porter, a student leader, the situation is far worse than what everyone is aware of.

Student Leaders Question Elections

LEADERS from A1

Addressing the emerging concern among student leaders such as speed to bring about a solution.

“We need to call an emergency General Assembly meeting to discuss the situation and determine how to proceed. I also need to have written guidelines and a protocol developed for the Grievance Committee.”

Walther said, “If the individuals who filed grievances with the Grievance Committee and were not pleased they could then appeal to the Grievance Committee within the General Assembly.”

While Williamson maintains he has no knowledge of filing grievances, former Public Relations chair Neil Radier maintains that the General Assembly has to be aware of the problems surrounding the Elections Committee.

“I feel that the chair, Green, is not aware of the situation, unlike the former chair, Douglas, who was more aware of the situation.”

Walther said, “I will do my best to bring home the gold.”

Arts and Sciences Science Accused of Unethical Conduct

TRUSTEE from A3

I suggest that a series of meetings take place during the election period, Brown said. “These meetings should be mandatory and serve as the General Election Committee.”

Williamson assures me that the General Assembly will hold emergency meetings tomorrow before Thursday’s elections to address any grievances.

The General Assembly Chair also says another emergency meeting is also tentatively scheduled for Friday or Saturday to address post-election grievances. Williamson also expressed the need for the constitutional reform to address general elections.

Before the end of my term, our Constitutional Review Committee will present its recommendations to modify election guidelines, he said.
Black Face Awards Show to Honor Simpsons

SIMPSONS from A2

"Producing this event in support of those who haven't had experience working in big productions before," Heflin said. "This event allows students the opportunities to do everything from producing to acting." McDemeth also said that the students will have the chance to do rewrites for the School of Communications in a tremendous school. "This event brings together the talents of the students from the School of Communications and students from other schools so we can all learn from each other."

The first grievance was filed on campus police. After school program aimed to focus on integration.

Black Face Awards Show to Honor Simpsons

SIMPSONS from A2

"Producing this event in support of those who haven't had experience working in big productions before," Heflin said. "This event allows students the opportunities to do everything from producing to acting." McDemeth also said that the students will have the chance to do rewrites for the School of Communications in a tremendous school. "This event brings together the talents of the students from the School of Communications and students from other schools so we can all learn from each other."

The first grievance was filed on campus police. After school program aimed to focus on integration.

Black Face Awards Show to Honor Simpsons

SIMPSONS from A2

"Producing this event in support of those who haven't had experience working in big productions before," Heflin said. "This event allows students the opportunities to do everything from producing to acting." McDemeth also said that the students will have the chance to do rewrites for the School of Communications in a tremendous school. "This event brings together the talents of the students from the School of Communications and students from other schools so we can all learn from each other."

The first grievance was filed on campus police. After school program aimed to focus on integration.

Black Face Awards Show to Honor Simpsons

SIMPSONS from A2

"Producing this event in support of those who haven't had experience working in big productions before," Heflin said. "This event allows students the opportunities to do everything from producing to acting." McDemeth also said that the students will have the chance to do rewrites for the School of Communications in a tremendous school. "This event brings together the talents of the students from the School of Communications and students from other schools so we can all learn from each other."

The first grievance was filed on campus police. After school program aimed to focus on integration.

Black Face Awards Show to Honor Simpsons

SIMPSONS from A2

"Producing this event in support of those who haven't had experience working in big productions before," Heflin said. "This event allows students the opportunities to do everything from producing to acting." McDemeth also said that the students will have the chance to do rewrites for the School of Communications in a tremendous school. "This event brings together the talents of the students from the School of Communications and students from other schools so we can all learn from each other."

The first grievance was filed on campus police. After school program aimed to focus on integration.

Black Face Awards Show to Honor Simpsons

SIMPSONS from A2

"Producing this event in support of those who haven't had experience working in big productions before," Heflin said. "This event allows students the opportunities to do everything from producing to acting." McDemeth also said that the students will have the chance to do rewrites for the School of Communications in a tremendous school. "This event brings together the talents of the students from the School of Communications and students from other schools so we can all learn from each other."

The first grievance was filed on campus police. After school program aimed to focus on integration.

Black Face Awards Show to Honor Simpsons

SIMPSONS from A2

"Producing this event in support of those who haven't had experience working in big productions before," Heflin said. "This event allows students the opportunities to do everything from producing to acting." McDemeth also said that the students will have the chance to do rewrites for the School of Communications in a tremendous school. "This event brings together the talents of the students from the School of Communications and students from other schools so we can all learn from each other."

The first grievance was filed on campus police. After school program aimed to focus on integration.

Black Face Awards Show to Honor Simpsons

SIMPSONS from A2

"Producing this event in support of those who haven't had experience working in big productions before," Heflin said. "This event allows students the opportunities to do everything from producing to acting." McDemeth also said that the students will have the chance to do rewrites for the School of Communications in a tremendous school. "This event brings together the talents of the students from the School of Communications and students from other schools so we can all learn from each other."

The first grievance was filed on campus police. After school program aimed to focus on integration.

Black Face Awards Show to Honor Simpsons

SIMPSONS from A2

"Producing this event in support of those who haven't had experience working in big productions before," Heflin said. "This event allows students the opportunities to do everything from producing to acting." McDemeth also said that the students will have the chance to do rewrites for the School of Communications in a tremendous school. "This event brings together the talents of the students from the School of Communications and students from other schools so we can all learn from each other."

The first grievance was filed on campus police. After school program aimed to focus on integration.
You know us for our bravery, our technology and our passion.

You know us for our skills, our dedication and our pride.

And now, as we defend freedom around the world, you will know us as everyday heroes.

Air Force Reserve
Above & Beyond

800-257-1212 • www.afreserve.com
Help us help companies determine how import taxes, manufacturing costs and labor will affect their profits and we'll help you build a career.

For opportunities and information go to: www.pwcglobal.com/lookbeyond.

Look beyond the numbers.
Surviving Howard
By Joya Cummings Life and Style Editor

While waiting for a cab, the black man had grabbed me by the throat, and then walked away with my wallet. I didn't laugh, but then again, getting robbed gets in the way.

Life & Style

The Hilltop
Tuesday, March 4, 2003

420 Almost On Time

By Edith Sodolko Contributing Writer

The poster for "Afro-Punk," a new documentary about African-American kid's who live the rock 'n roll life. Musicians with the Cody Chessmire, right, have embraced with a life style.

True Hip-hop Authority: Talib Kweli

Hi, I'm Talib Kweli, a rapper and producer. The year 2000 brought much more than a means of handling my responsibility, I love women, and I speak about issues that effect men.

This, hip-hop neo-soul is different from the majority of her peers. Dennis Richardson, Vincent Richardson, and Tim Steele are the five members of 420 Lauda. Hancock loves poetry and writing, and Tim Steele is the drummer. He also composes music and may think that it's one way of being a certain kind of punk, such as the Mohawk hairdo, style is shared with others: locks up the hill or a few screws out of how to stop criminal activity occurs, the YJ is a safe world to morph: I love women, and I speak about issues that effect men. It's not fair to the consumer who may not hear the music and may think that it's one way of being a certain kind of punk, such as the Mohawk hairdo, style is shared with others: locks up the hill or a few screws.
The runaway success of "No Letting Go," which has brought acclaim to artists Wayne Wonder, has been a bittersweet for Wonder, who didn't want to hear my original material. Wonder reflects. "It was very frustrating," Wonder says about making the album.

Wayne Wonder is new to the music industry, and he made a name for himself by making covers of popular songs. However, the album was not popular, and it was not well received. Wonder says, "I want to make music that people can appreciate." Wonder's work is full of elements of go-go and R&B, and it is a soothing melodic technique accentuates her message. The last song is a bonus track and it is untitled.

"It was very frustrating," Wonder says about making the album. Wonder's work is full of elements of go-go and R&B, and it is a soothing melodic technique accentuates her message. The last song is a bonus track and it is untitled. Wayne Wonder's latest album is in stores now.

Jargon from B1

Then again, our neighborhood is going to change overnight. It can even begin to look like Georgetown, but it doesn't mean it'll be crime-free. All I know is OWU students perception of crime can be forever changed, because what happened is near the percent on the Hilltop Market, 4, 2003.

BLACKS from B1

Spiritually Different. This alternative lifestyle doesn't stop at music. Spirituality is also a key to the black alternative perspective typically ignored.

Wayne Wonder's "No Letting Go" album is an album that required a lot of time and energy on Wonder's part. The album was recorded over a span of months, and at the end, he had 10 songs, and he had cut it down to 7.

Challenging as the task was, the tracks that compose clearly showcase Wayne's best work, full of elements of go-go and R&B, and it is a soothing melodic technique accentuates her message. The last song is a bonus track and it is untitled. Wayne Wonder's latest album is in stores now.

Jargon from B1

"Wicca was more someplace. It never felt like a part of me. I was, the 17 tracks that compose clearly showcase Wayne's best work, full of elements of go-go and R&B, and it is a soothing melodic technique accentuates her message. The last song is a bonus track and it is untitled. Wayne Wonder's latest album is in stores now.
HU Basketball Prepares for Conference Tournament

By Thomas Savage, Jr.

Men's Basketball

South Carolina State 69-70
Hampton 91-86
Delaware St. 92-91
Howard 85-84
Delaware St. vs. Howard

The Bison, led by MEAC player of the year, Ron Williamson, average 15.6 a game. He has been able to put his same scoring ability on the books. Williamson has showed no signs during a win over Norfolk State in first round.

Women's Basketball

Howard vs Hampton in the conference championship.

The second half of the season, Ron Aluko has stepped up his game this year scoring almost ten points a game and grabbing seven rebounds each game. Williamson has been able to contribute tremendously by scoring a double digit his last four games.

College Basketball Player Turns Back on American Flag

By Robert L. Anderson, II

Conquering Wences

As college students have recently organized a National Day of Action against the United States' ongoing war against Iraq. War on Iraq is one major basketball players having to deal with the most hot topics of the season.

Howard University is still looking to improve its in the conference giving five first round

Ron Williamson wins MEAC Player of the Year.

Williamson named MEAC Player of the Year

Williamson has played a phenomenal season. He averaged almost 23 points per game and scored more than 20 points in six out of seven games. Williamson received a scholarship against North Carolina at and at one point during the season, he scored 30 or more points in six out of seven games. Williamson ranked among the best in the conference in several categories including scoring, free throw shooting percentage, three point field goal percentage (45 percent) and three pointers made (610) per game. During his 20-point performances, Williamson hit on 11-14 from three-point range while also adding career-high eight assists. Williamson had another remarkably strong performance when he scored an unbelievable 46 points in overtime against a team with a new coach. Williams, a

Write for sports!

Budget meetings Tuesdays at 7:00 pm
West Towers, Plaza Level

March 4, 2003

The Hilltop
Local High School Star Stands Above Rest

By Thomas Savage Jr

There is a lot of debate about who will be this year's top star in the Lancaster area. USC quarterback Carson Palmer is currently the favorite, but there are two local athletes who are putting up numbers that many are':omitted. One is a senior, and the other is a junior. Despite their different ages, both athletes have already made a name for themselves in the world of high school sports.

By Keith Sned Contributing Writer

For a long time now, the sport of basketball has been in transition. If you weren't familiar with the sport, it's like going back to the days of Michael Jordan. The transition has been a slow, but steady one. Throughout their career, both athletes have not only proven themselves to be superior to their opponents, but have also shown the world that there is no limit to their skill. Their ability to handle a ball and score points has been nothing short of astonishing. The transition has been difficult, but the two athletes have not only proved themselves, but have also shown the world that there is no limit to their skill.

Column

Let's Get Ready To Rumble

By Melanie M. Clarke

Jonathan Ogden and Howard Legacy: Raven Rests in Family Football Tree

By Melanie M. Clarke

Lacrosse Team Falls To

By Michael T. Kyle Jr

After finally getting their first game of the high school season under their belts, Sunday afternoon's postponement of the game opened the door for the Howard University lacrosse team to have a chance to compete at George Washington University's Varsity Athletic Field. Either way, the long vacation added to the seniors of Howard's 2013 senior class of 55 in their first game in years and they eventually

S he was on her way to Howard. During the game, she confirmed her commitment to the school, and the team.

Lacrosse Team Falls To

By Michael T. Kyle Jr

Lacrosse Team Falls To

By Michael T. Kyle Jr

Jonathan Ogden and Howard Legacy: Raven Rests in Family Football Tree

By Melanie M. Clarke

Lacrosse Team Falls To

By Michael T. Kyle Jr

Lacrosse Team Falls To
Learning How to Play the Tax Game

TAXES from A6

be aware of in the tax process than these things. Avoiding schemes by tax professionals is a very important problem for the taxpayer to be aware of.

The IRS has written a list called "Dirty Dozen," which lists twelve popular schemes performed during tax season.

Identity theft is one of the twelve on the list and the IRS said one way to prevent this is by selecting a trustworthy tax professional.

"America-Americans get a tax refund, ranks at number five on the "Dirty Dozen," list. This scheme has occurred in the past when tax professionals stated that reparations for slavery could be received by filing a separate tax return. The tax professional would then request an additional payment to file an additional tax return that does not exist, thus profiting from the excess money.

Research is the most important aspect of avoiding schemes as well as getting the correct tax return.

"It is important for people to have tax knowledge because tax laws change every year," said Montagne.

"If you miss or leave something out, the federal government does not care."

Business Profile:

Howard Delicatessen

Howard football and basketball team by hanging their pictures up as well.

Regi Payton, who has worked at the Delicatessen for over 32 years, smiled proudly as he spoke about his rich past with his colleagues he ended by saying, "If you want good food, come down to 26 1/2."
The Hilltop March 4, 2003

LAUREN BAYNE ANDERSON, Editor-in-Chief

JESSE SAWYER, Managing Editor

AISHA CHANEY, Managing Editor

CASSANDRA CUMBESS, Editorial & Perspectives Editor

General Assembly Should Take Some Blame

The student voice of Howard University since 1924

No Letters, No Housing?

last weekend. This incident is not just due to the untoward behavior of the few residents who were shot, but also to the fact that many students did not find out that the specified let ters were due until The Hilltop’s

Waiting for Campus Police to Serve and Protect

But the fact that many students did not find out that the specified letters were due until The Hilltop’s release means that on last Friday, Resident Life did not have enough time or staff to get letters together; this turned out to be two days. This was not adequate time for those who had to obtain letters from organizations that could be time-consuming.

Our View:
The new RSVP housing policy was poorly organized and poorly planned.

We believe that the solution to this problem is not just to blame the candidates and their shills, along with individuals who have demonstrated a pattern of behavior that is detrimental to the interests of the student body. We are here to protect the interests of the student body. In light of this past experience, one would think that the General Assembly should have taken some blame for the way in which elections have been going.

Some students组织 have been getting much negative attention of late, largely because of the lack of speak-outs and controversial matters being discussed by the candidates and their shills, along with individuals who have demonstrated a pattern of behavior that is detrimental to the interests of the student body. In light of this past experience, one would think that the General Assembly should have taken some blame for the way in which elections have been going.

Our View:
The General Assembly is largely responsible for the poor way in which elections have been going.

We believe that the solution to this problem is not just to blame the candidates and their shills, along with individuals who have demonstrated a pattern of behavior that is detrimental to the interests of the student body. In light of this past experience, one would think that the General Assembly should have taken some blame for the way in which elections have been going.

Our View:
The General Assembly is largely responsible for the poor way in which elections have been going.

We believe that the solution to this problem is not just to blame the candidates and their shills, along with individuals who have demonstrated a pattern of behavior that is detrimental to the interests of the student body. In light of this past experience, one would think that the General Assembly should have taken some blame for the way in which elections have been going.
March 4, 2003

CAMPUS POLICE Won't Do Their Job

Jen Sawyer

In the midst of the two students getting shot (Friday night), Corey Cunningham (Mr. 40 Percent) did not seem to have the intentions of doing his job and it's alarming.

On Saturday night after spending twelve hours in The Hilltop interviewing candidates and working on the online issue the last thing I wanted was a slump with common policy.

A first-year campus security officer, Corey and I will start with: If it's not working, I decided to

Full of us sit outside the Towers and the only way we get in is to rub the cat. The first campus security service that be credited to The Howard administration, a service operated by students to transport people and students to go to class, has now become at campus at night.

Last year's campus policy complained that performing hazing rituals of the fraternity life and their ability to study, yet they still do it. The services are required to be on campus at night.

Jen Sawyer

Campus Police Won't Do Their Job

In the midst of the two students getting shot (Friday night), Corey Cunningham (Mr. 40 Percent) did not seem to have the intentions of doing his job and it's alarming.

On Saturday night after spending twelve hours in The Hilltop interviewing candidates and working on the online issue the last thing I wanted was a slump with common policy.

A first-year campus security officer, Corey and I will start with: If it's not working, I decided to

Full of us sit outside the Towers and the only way we get in is to rub the cat. The first campus security service that be credited to The Howard administration, a service operated by students to transport people and students to go to class, has now become at campus at night.

Last year's campus policy complained that performing hazing rituals of the fraternity life and their ability to study, yet they still do it. The services are required to be on campus at night.
Hilltops

Classifieds with Ad-inide!

(202) 806-4740

Spring Break

SPRING BREAK 2003 is now sponsored by Student Express, Caesars, Aces, and Bilco. Call 202-423-9592 and book now for FREE MEALS! Student Express reserves the option to reactivate or cancel this promotion. Please contact www.studentexpress.com or 1-800-735-7795 for details.

For Sale (cont.)

Want to get Away? Well let Us Help You!
Offering lowest rates to Africa, the Caribbean, Asian Europe, and South pacifics all over the world. With a multilingual travel agency speaker English, Spanish, French, Fuloise and more, we will ensure that you get the best. Call Us For Your Travel needs!

For Sale

NEW in cinema

If you are against the War in Iraq, join us in a nation wide walkout for peace on Saturday March 1, 2003. (1) introduce your Flagstaff.

Voting March 6th!

The School of Education Presents
The nationally Appropriate Teaching Conference, The Brittany Factor Featuring Mister Assante, Founder of Afrocentricity, to be held on Saturday March 8, 2003 at 10:00 a.m. in the Blacklion Center. Tickets and Snacks, 18. A student Black Babies Balaclava Raffle, Shana Unruh, Adams Building, 11:30 a.m. DCPS Board Members/Student, Alumni Panel Peggy Cooper Cafritz, William Lockett, Ibrahim Morris 12:30 p.m. African Contributions to Science Charles Flanigan 1:45 p.m.

The Hilltop Raceway

Where your business is our business

Address: 2000 Sherman Ave NW Washington, DC 20052
Tel: (202) 724-9591

For Sale

You A Lions Hair Braiding Specializing in Ethnic Hair, please call
Kinky Twist
Nappy Braid
Senegalese Twist
Human Hair and more

Address: 2000 Sherman Ave NW Washington, DC 20052
Tel: (202) 724-9591

For Rent

2 Bedrooms and Bath

304 East Capitol St., NW

Available: 06-01-03

For Sale

3 Bedroom and Bath

925 L St, NW

Available: 06-01-03

For Sale

> 1 Bedroom

833 21st St, NW

Available: 06-01-03

Hilltops

Classifieds with Ad-inide!

(202) 806-4740

March 4, 2003