Mr. James M. Nabrit Jr.

Dear Mr. Nabrit

The "newsy letter" received from you as a follow up of McClavin's suggestion was definitely a master stroke. I could see everything as I feasted my eyes on this letter's contents and resolved to return from this South West Pacific to again behold a graduation exercise at my dear Old Alma Mater with the ever present Welcome Home sign as a "land mark" during this period of the year.

I have not received the "Bulletin" and anxiously await more news from Dear Old Howard.

Yours for a Better Howard as years pass by
Frederic A. Piper, 1st LT. INF.
