Metz T.P. Lochard Papers Collection 137-1 to 137-3

> Prepared by: Sharon Green June 1986

Manuscript Division

Scope Note

Dr. Metz T.P. Lochard served as Associate Editor and Chief Editorial Writer of the Chicago Defender. The Metz T.P. Lochard Papers, measuring 1½ linear feet, were donated by Dr. Lochard in 1975. This small collection spans the time period of the 1930's to the 1970's.

Items within the collection document his lengthy career and devotion to the cause of civil rights. This is evident from the substance of his weekly editorial column, his correspondence with key political figures and his associations with members of the Black press.

Other items in the collection include the first six chapters of Dr. Lochard's manuscript,

The Negro Press, his United States Certificate of Naturalization and several photographs.
