THE HONORABLE MAYNARD H. JACKSON

The Candidate Will be Presented by Dr. Geraldine P. Woods
Chairman, Board of Trustees

Maynard Holbrook Jackson, Jr. was born in Dallas, Texas, and reared in Georgia. He attended the David T. Harvard High School in Atlanta and was graduated at the age of fourteen. As a Ford Foundation Early Admission Scholar, he was accepted at Morehouse College. Keeping up his outstanding scholastic achievements, he graduated at eighteen with a bachelor's degree in political science in 1956. He went on to earn his law degree (cum laude) in 1964 from North Carolina Central University in Durham. On October 16, 1973, he was elected Mayor of Atlanta, at 35, becoming not only the city's first Black Mayor, but also the youngest person ever to hold the city's highest executive office and the youngest Mayor of a major American city.

Beginning his political career in 1968, Mayor Jackson left a position as Attorney for the Emory Community Legal Services Center to declare his candidacy for the United States Senate. Running a hard campaign against incumbent Senator Herman Talmadge, he was defeated in this first race, but he carried the city of Atlanta with a 6,000 vote margin.

In 1969, he entered the race for Vice Mayor of Atlanta, winning handily by out-polling every other candidate in the city-wide election.

Mayor Jackson is a member of numerous organizations, including the National Bar Association, the Atlanta Bar Association, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, the Atlanta Urban League, and the National Black Caucus of Local Elected Officials.

THE ALMA MATER

Reared against the eastern sky
Proudly there on hilltop high
Far above the lake so blue
Stands old Howard firm and true
There she stands for truth and right,
Sending forth her rays of light,
Clad in robes of majesty;
O Howard, we sing of thee.
Be thou still our guide and stay,
Leading us from day to day;
Make us true and leal and strong
Ever bold to battle wrong.
When from thee we've gone away,
May we strive for thee each day
As we sail life's rugged sea,
O Howard, we'll sing of thee.

THE ACADEMIC COSTUME

The caps, gowns, and hoods worn at college and university functions date back to the Middle Ages. Monks and students used them to keep warm in medieval castles and halls of learning. From these practical origins, they have developed into the accepted garb which symbolizes scholarly achievement.

Baccalaureate gowns have a long pleated front with shirring across the shoulders and back. They are primarily distinguished by flowing sleeves, pointed at the fingertips. These gowns may be worn either open or closed.

The master's degree gown is worn open, and the sleeve is cut so that the forearm comes through a slit just above the elbow.

Gowns for the doctor's degree are also worn open. They carry broad, velvet panels down the front, and three velvet bars on the full, round sleeves. This velvet trimming may be either black or the color distinctive of the degree.

Mortar boards or caps worn with baccalaureate and master's gowns generally have black tassels. The tassel of the doctoral cap is usually made of gold bullion.

Faculty members and guests in today's procession are robed in gowns and hoods which represent the institutions from which they have received degrees.

The hood gives color and real meaning to the academic costume. Its silk lining bears the colors of the institution conferring the degree. The hood is bordered with velvet of a prescribed width and color to indicate the field of learning to which the degree pertains as follows: medicine, green; music, pink; nursing, apricot; pharmacy, olive green; public administration, peacock blue; science, golden yellow; social work, citron; theology, scarlet; architecture, brown; arts, letters, and humanities, white; business, drab; dentistry, lilac; education, light blue; engineering, orange; fine arts, brown; law, purple.

THE MACE

THE MACE, carried by the University Marshal, Dr. Michael R. Winston, Director, Moorland-Spangarn Research Center, is the ceremonial symbol of the University. Its origin dates back to the Middle Ages. It is used on all occasions of academic ceremony at the University. At today's Commencement, the entry of the Mace heralds the arrival of the academic procession.

THE BATON

THE BATONS carried by the Marshals and Assistant Marshals of each school and college are being used to lead the academic procession of the respective schools and colleges into and out of the place of the ceremony. The batons are made of wood, painted blue, and tied with white ribbon denoting the colors of Howard University.

THE PRESIDENTIAL CHAIN OF OFFICE (The Medallion)

The Presidential Chain of Office, worn by President Cheek, was presented to the University on the occasion of the Centennial Celebration in 1967 by Trustee Herman B. Wells and his mother, Mrs. Granville Wells. The chain symbolizes the current and past holders of the Office of President. The basic material of the chain is sterling silver, plated with hard gold. Both the University Seal and the Centennial Seal are appended to the chain.
